Social Futures Global Visions Development Change:

Social Futures, Global Visions Cynthia Hewitt de Alcantara, 1996-08-08 Where is the world heading at the turn of the twenty first century Towards a desolate landscape of disintegrating societies or towards the construction of new institutions to mitigate violence reduce poverty and promote peace in a rapidly changing global context Do ideas of globalization reflect reality and how far are they either new or helpful Can trends identified in the near and distant past be helpfully extrapolated to predict the future and to understand the present Ralf Dahrendorf Amitai Etzioni Johan Galtung Anthony Giddens Eric Hobsbawm Fatima Mernissi Tetsuo Najita Emma Rothschild Wole Soyinka and Tatyana Tolstaya take up these and other questions and provide some searching and provocative answers Their discussions span academic disciplines and continents to provide a truly international dialogue on the future of humankind Development Theory Jan Nederveen

Pieterse, 2001-03-20 This study is a critical commentary connecting issues of development with the latest thinking in sociology critical theory and social science It addresses questions such as the connections with globalization and culture and modernity Social Movements in Development Staffan Lindberg, Arni Sverrisson, 2016-07-27 Nationalist movements in the South have been superseded by a plethora of different social movements This book examines these new movements and considers emerging paradigms of organization and mobilization which are related to the role movements play in economic and political development The book analyzes a number of cases and their context and discusses the implications for social movement theory The focus is on social movements among underprivileged and middle class groups and the book is global in scope Catalysing Development? Jan P. Pronk, 2009-02-04 This volume presents a state of the art debate on the controversial topic of development aid The contributors are all experts in the field of international development Presents some challenging conclusions about the role that aid plays in catalysing or stifling development Represents a wide range of different analytical perspectives Community Analysis and Practice Josefine Figueira-McDonough, 2013-05-13

Concentrating on three main themes environmental complexity community as the target of intervention and commitment to social justice Community Theory and Practice updates and expands the current boundaries of thinking about community organization This book is an important resource for social work students educators and practitioners as well as those who work in the areas of sociology urban studies community organization and development and criminology and other areas of social study and policy Debating Climate Change Elizabeth L Malone, 2009-12 As greenhouse gas emissions continue unabated and contentious voices fill the air the question gains urgency How can people with widely varying viewpoints agree to address climate change Each participant in the debate seems to have a different agenda from protecting economic growth in developing countries to protecting the energy industry in industrialized countries from those aghast at the damage done to the Earth to optimists who think we just need to adjust our technological approach Debating Climate Change sorts through the tangle of arguments surrounding climate change to find paths to unexpected sites of agreement Using an innovative sociological approach combined discourse and social network analyses Elizabeth L Malone analyzes 100 documents representing a range of players in this high stakes debate Through this she shows how even the most implacable adversaries can find common ground and how this common ground can be used to build agreement Written in a clear accessible style this original research and insightful use of communication analysis will help advance understanding and negotiation on climate change throughout the pivotal times to come Published with Science in Society Community Analysis and Praxis Josefina Figueira-McDonough, 2001 First Published in 2001 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company

Herd, 2010-02-25 This book addresses the issue of grand strategic stability in the 21st century and examines the role of the key centres of global power US EU Russia China and India in managing contemporary strategic threats This edited volume examines the cooperative and conflictual capacity of Great Powers to manage increasingly interconnected strategic threats not least terrorism and political extremism WMD proliferation fragile states regional crises and conflict and the energy climate nexus in the 21st century The contributors question whether global order will increasingly be characterised by a predictable interdependent one world system as strategic threats create interest based incentives and functional benefits The work moves on to argue that the operational concept of world order is a Concert of Great Powers directing a new institutional order norms and regimes whose combination is strategic threat specific regionally sensitive loosely organised and inclusive of major states not least Brazil Turkey South Africa and Indonesia Leadership can be singular collective or coalition based and this will characterise the nature of strategic stability and world order in the 21st century This book will be of much interest to students of international security grand strategy foreign policy and IR Graeme P Herd is Co Director of the International Training Course in Security Policy at the Geneva Centre for Security Policy GCSP He is co author of several books and co editor of The Ideological War on Terror World Wide Strategies for Counter Terrorism 2007 Soft Security Threats and European Security 2005 Security Dynamics of the former Soviet Bloc 2003 and Russia and the Regions Strength through Weakness 2003 Contemporary Perspectives on Social Work & the Human Services Ian O'Connor, Jeni Warburton, Paul Smyth, 2000 The social and community services labour market is growing rapidly but profound changes in attitude to the roles of government market and civil society are resulting in radical administrative reforms which are affecting the delivery of human services These institutional shifts are reshaping the nature of the social and community services as well as workplaces career structures and professional identities of social workers and human service workers This book contributes to the development of a new intellectual agenda and brings together in one volume much of the best opinion available in Australia It describes and analyses the national and international trends affecting human service delivery social policy formation and the future of the welfare state Routledge Handbook of Social Futures Carlos López Galviz, Emily Spiers, 2021-11-22 Featuring chapters from an international range of leading and emerging scholars this Handbook provides a collection of cutting edge interdisciplinary research that sheds new light on contemporary futures studies Engaging with key defining questions of the early twenty first century such as climate change big data AI the future of economics education mental health cities and more the Handbook provides a review and synthesis of futures scholarship highlighting the role that societies can and should play in their making While the various chapters demonstrate how futures emerge and take shape in particular places at particular times the distinctive insight provided by the volume overall is that futures thinking today must be social and contextual By presenting a range of futures work from contexts around the globe the Handbook contextualizes techniques forecasting backcasting scenario planning collaboration and co production to ask how different dimensions of the social are created and circulated in the process Through its thirty chapters the volume explores and interrogates narratives anticipations enactments ecologies collaborations prospectations and so on to highlight which versions of the social are legitimized and which are encouraged and foreclosed This Handbook opens an important conversation about the centrality of the social in futures thinking By bringing arts humanities and social sciences scholars and practitioners into conversation with biologists environmental climate and computer scientists this volume seeks to encourage new pathways across between and within multiple disciplines to interrogate the futures we need and want The social must be our starting point if we are to steer our planet in a direction that supports good lives for the many everywhere Sanctuaries of the City Anni Greve, 2016-04-01 This book proposes that we can learn from Tokyo about the intrinsic importance of in between realms to an international culture the sanctuaries It argues that certain urban societies are more robust than others because they offer socio spatial capacities that enable the development of skills for coping with modern forms of living It studies places that may open the way to an international culture namely market places venues for performing arts and religious sites which with particular reference to the Durkheimian tradition are considered here in their quality as sanctuaries From its empirical analysis of such sanctuaries in Tokyo this book develops a more general theory about mega cities urban sociability and identity Future Cities Nick Dunn, Paul Cureton, 2020-12-10 What might our cities look like in ten twenty or fifty years How may future cities face global challenges Imagining the city of the future has long been an inspiration for many architects artists and designers This book examines how cities of the future have been visualised what these projects sought to communicate and what the implications may be for us now It provides a visual history of the future and explores the relationships between different visualisation techniques and ideologies for cities Thinking about what futures are who they are for why they are desirable and how and when they are to be brought into being is central to this book Through visualisation we are able to experiment in ways that would be impractical and potentially hazardous in the real world and this book therefore aims to contribute toward a better understanding of the power and agency of visualisations for future cities In this lavishly illustrated text the authors apply several critical lenses to consider the subject in different ways technological futures social futures and global futures providing a comprehensive survey and analysis of visions for future cities and engaging creatively with how we perceive tomorrow s world and future studies more widely

Scheherazade Goes West Fatima Mernissi,2001 For her book s inspired central metaphor Mernissi turns to the ancient Islamic tradition of oral storytelling illuminating her grandmother s feminized subversive and highly erotic take on Scheherazade s wife preserving tales from The Arabian Nights and then ingeniously applying them to her own lyrically embellished personal narrative Interwoven with vivid ruminations on her childhood her education and her various international travels are the author s piquant musings on a range of deeply embedded societal conditions that add up Mernissi argues to a veritable Western harem

Virtualism James G. Carrier, Daniel Miller,2020-08-25 We live in a time of economic virtualism whereby our lives are made to conform to the virtual reality of economic thought Globalization transnational capitalism structural adjustment programmes and the decay of welfare are all signs of the growing power of economics one of the most potent forces of recent decades In the last thirty years economics has ceased to be just an academic discipline concerned with the study of economy and has come to be the only legitimate way to think about all aspects of society and how we order our lives Economic models are no longer measured against the world they seek to describe but instead the world is measured against them found wanting and made to conform This profound and dangerous change in the power of abstract economics to shape the lives of people in rich and poor countries alike is the subject of this interdisciplinary study Contributors show how economics has come to portray a virtual reality a world that seems real but is merely a reflection of a neo classical model and how governments the World Bank and the IMF combine to stamp the world with a virtual image that condemns as irrational our local social and cultural arrangements Further it is argued that virtualism represents the worrying emergence of new forms of abstraction in the political economy of which economics is just one example

Negotiating Statehood Tobias Hagmann, Didier Péclard,2011-10-04 Negotiating Statehood Dynamics of Power and Domination in Africa provides a conceptual framework for analysing dynamic processes of state making in Africa Features a conceptual framework which provides a method for analysing the everyday making contestation and negotiation of statehood in contemporary Africa Conceptualizes who negotiates statehood the actors resources and repertoires where these negotiation processes take place and what these processes are all about ncludes a collections of essays that provides empirical and analytical insights into these processes in eight different country studies in Africa Critically reflects on the negotiability of statehood in Africa
