The New Institutionalism in Sociology Mary C. Brinton, Victor Nee, 2001 Institutions play a pivotal role in structuring economic and social transactions and understanding the foundations of social norms networks and beliefs within institutions is crucial to explaining much of what occurs in modern economies This volume integrates two increasingly visible streams of research economic sociology and new institutional economics to better understand how ties among individuals and groups facilitate economic activity alongside and against the formal rules that regulate economic processes via government and law Reviews This volume is a welcome addition to the expanding literature on institutional analysis Besides sociologists we are afforded the pleasure of contributions from anthropologists economists historians political scientists and scholars located in schools of law and education One of the pleasures of the volume is the wide range of topics times and locales addressed by the authors In all these diverse situations the application of institutional queries and approaches enhances our understanding and appreciation of the endlessly rich and diverse nature of social life Contemporary Society This admirable book makes a strong contribution to institutional theory has many excellent chapters and is a model for interdisciplinary exchange and cross fertilization It is dense with interesting ideas and points for debate and I heartily recommend it Sociological Research Online

Classic Anthropology John William Bennett, Classic Anthropology is Bennett s label for the work produced by anthropologists during the period 1915 1955 which many believe represents the most productive era in the discipline s history It is also one that can never be repeated given the fact that most of anthropology s basic data the ideas and customs of tribal peoples have been extinguished or greatly transformed by modernization and nationalization The book is composed of some fifteen essays Among the issues examined are the emergence of a functionalist viewpoint in ethnology the difficulties of developing a theory of human behavior because of the focus on culture the search for concepts of culture to serve specialized needs the neglect of social psychology by the culture and personality field how value judgments emerged willy nilly or conversely were neglected in ethnological research how applied anthropology was challenged by Action Anthropology and how the interdisciplinary anthropology of the late 1940s was submerged in the postwar effort to return the discipline to traditional roots Individual anthropologists whose work is examined include among others Bronislaw Malinowski Leslie Spier Alfred Kroeber Ralph Linton Margaret Mead Ruth
