Social Problems A Policy Perspective:

Social Problems and Public Policy Lee Rainwater, 1974 Deviance is by definition a social problem Since deviant behavior violates the normative expectations of a given group deviance must be regarded as a problem for that group since all groups of people want their norms to be enforced Many modern societies place considerable value on personal liberty so much so that interference with personal choices to deviate from group norms can be justified only in terms of the potential damage that particular kinds of behavior might do to the legitimate interests of others Sociological research suggests that the social problem associated with deviance is often the behavior of individuals who violate norms cannot be justified in terms of basic values of liberty social order or justice In other kinds of deviance though the social problem is that people or in a more organized way social institutions interfere with individual liberty and self realization Each selection in this volume has been chosen to cover a full range of substantive problematic issues a range of social science perspectives that can be brought to bear on issues of all kinds and a range of social science methodologies used in studying modern society Deviance and Liberty is divided up into thirty nine contributions and five main parts ranging from Modern Perspectives on Deviance and Social Problems Deviant Exchanges Gambling Drugs and Sex Deviant Personal Control Illness Violence and Crime Deviance Identity and the Life Cycle and Moral Enterprise and Moral Enforcement It is a welcome addition to the libraries of those interested in the study of deviance or society as a whole Understanding Social Problems, Policies, and Programs Leon H. Ginsberg, Julie Miller-Cribbs, 2005 In this fourth edition of a social work standard Leon Ginsberg and Julie Miller Cribbs offer an updated version of the text that has introduced thousands of social work students to the defining policies and procedures of the profession Concise yet comprehensive the volume surveys the span of social welfare history explains the elements of social welfare policy education and describes the impact of executive legislative and judicial initiatives on the delivery of social services DISADVANTAGED GROUPS: A SOCIAL POLICY PERSPECTIVE Deniz SAY ŞAHİN, Sevinç PEHLİVAN SÜTLÜ, 2022-01-19 Universal Declaration of Human Rights begins as All human beings are born free and equal in dignity and rights and Everyone is entitled to all the rights and freedoms set forth in this Declaration without distinction of any kind such as race colour sex language religion political or other opinion national or social origin property birth or other status But some segments of the society have more rights and freedoms than others Although the Others have been given names such as Groups that Need Special Protection they are now called Disadvantaged Groups and include children young people addicts the elderly the disabled immigrants minorities ex convicts women single parent families the poor Considering that the majority of the world's population consists of children young people women and the elderly it is obvious that the problems of disadvantaged groups are actually the problems of society Although the groups are counted individually a person is in more than one group The disadvantaged poor child can grow up to be a woman who becomes a single parent Social Problems Anna Leon-Guerrero, 2018-08-07 Empower your students to become part of the solution The new Sixth Edition of Social Problems Community Policy and Social Action goes beyond the typical presentation of contemporary social problems and their consequences by emphasizing the importance and effectiveness of community involvement to achieve real solutions. With a clear and upbeat tone, this thought-provoking text challenges readers to see the social and structural forces that determine our social problems, to consider various policies and programs that attempt to address these problems, and to recognize and learn how they can be part of the solution to social problems in their own community. Corporate Social Responsibility in Sub-Saharan Africa Stephen Vertigans, Samuel O. Idowu, René Schmidpeter, 2015-12-21 This book provides a comprehensive overview of corporate social responsibility and its development in Africa It provides in depth studies on 11 sub Saharan countries demonstrating that corporate social responsibility is forming and going through different stages of metamorphosis in the continent Though corporate and individual attitudes towards sustainability in Africa still leave a lot to be desired this book showcases how things are rapidly changing for the better in this regard It demonstrates and provides evidence for the fact that corporate social responsibility contributes significantly to the way sub Saharan African economies are being transformed with service sectors expanding commercial activities diversifying and industrial bases growing through the initiatives of small medium and large organizations and innovators supported by widespread higher education program rollouts The book highlights how progressive and wide ranging CSR approaches have emerged and how much they differ from the obsolete approaches of the past which promulgated negative stereotypes marginalized communities and positioned them as victims or beneficiaries of development

Handbook of Social Problems George Ritzer, 2004 Ritzer s Handbook of Social Problems offers a comprehensive treatment of today s major societal issues The articles are authored by some of the top scholars in the field and address problem areas that will capture the interests of students and professors alike The international coverage is most welcome in this time of intensifying global inequalities Nancy Jurik Arizona State University The Handbook of Social Problems A Comparative International Perspective provides a unique broadly comparative perspective on the current state of social problems and deviance in a variety of societies around the world Editor George Ritzer along with leading U S and international sociologists examines the relationship between social problems and a society s level of development and affluence The essays in this volume focus on four interrelated issues involved in the relationship between social problems and the level of development and affluence Less developed and less affluent societies are more likely to experience a range of social problems than developed and affluent societies Affluence causes or at least brings with it a series of social problems that do not exist in less affluent societies It is only with affluence that certain things can come to be imagined as social problems such as excessive consumption The very affluence of a society makes it vulnerable to problems that would not be social problems in poorer societies The Handbook explores the theory of the weakness of the strong in other words strong or wealthy nations may have greater vulnerability to some social problems than less developed or affluent societies This theory is clearly illustrated in this volume by the aftermath of September 11 2001 depicting the vulnerability of the U S to social problems in far removed corners of the world In addition the international and comparative essays in this volume cover other important issues such as the impact of modern technologies on social problems ecological problems global inequality health as a social problem and much more The Handbook of Social Problems is a vital resource for sociologists and graduate students as well as an excellent addition to any academic library Social Problems Howard E. Freeman, 1979-06

Critical Perspectives on the Crisis of Global Governance S. Gill, 2015-01-02 The contributors highlight alternative imaginaries and social forces harnessing new organizational and political forms to counter and displace dominant strategies of rule They suggest that to address intensifying economic ecological and ethical crises far more effective legitimate and far sighted forms of global governance are required Addiction Reimagined: Challenging Views of an Enduring Social Problem Leonard A. Steverson, 2020-09-01 Addiction Reimagined: Challenging Views of an Enduring Social Problem outlines the current issues in the field of substance use and addiction by thoroughly analyzing its history and other concerns such as diagnosis treatment and prevention measures or the effect of addiction on the family and its connection to the criminal justice system In this work Professor Steverson calls for a reimagining of our past and current understandings of addiction and its role as a social rather than a medical problem Addiction Reimagined provides a macro level i e sociological approach to the examination of the processes and treatment modalities of addiction This book will be valuable to those who are interested in addiction and the mental health system people who have addiction problems or policy makers for instance as well as to practitioners in the field and people concerned about a failing system and who would like to make it more functional It will also be useful to university students undertaking courses such as The Sociology of Addiction or Sociology of Substance Abuse Reframing Global Social Policy Paul Smyth, Christopher Deeming, 2019-01-11 Christopher Deeming and Paul Smyth together with internationally renowned contributors propose that the merging of the social investment and inclusive growth and development agendas is forging an unprecedented global social policy framework The book shows how these key ideas together with the environmental imperative of sustainability are shaping a new global development agenda This framework opens the way to a truly global social policy discipline making it essential reading for those working in social and public policy politics economics and development as well geographical and environmental sciences In the spirit of the UN's Sustainability Goals the book will assist all those seeking to forge a new policy consensus for the 21st century based on Social Investment for Inclusive Growth and Sustainable Development Contributors include Giuliano Bonoli Marius Busemeyer Sarah Cook Guillem L pez Casasnovas Anton Hemerijck Stephan Klasen Huck ju Kwon Tim Jackson Jane Jenson Jon Kvist James Midgley and G nther Schmid The SAGE Handbook of Political Science Dirk Berg-Schlosser, Bertrand

Badie, Leonardo Morlino, 2020-02-11 The SAGE Handbook of Political Science presents a major retrospective and prospective overview of the discipline. Comprising three volumes of contributions from expert authors from around the world, the handbook aims to frame, assess, and synthesize research in the field, helping to define and identify its current and future developments. It does so from a truly global and cross-area perspective. Chapters cover a broad range of aspects from providing a general introduction to exploring important subfields within the discipline. Each chapter is designed to provide a state-of-the-art and comprehensive overview of the topic by incorporating cross-cutting global interdisciplinary and where this applies, gender perspectives. The Handbook is arranged over seven core thematic sections: Part 1 Political Theory; Part 2 Methods; Part 3 Political Sociology; Part 4 Comparative Politics; Part 5 Public Policies and Administration; Part 6 International Relations; Part 7 Major Challenges for Politics and Political Science in the 21st Century. Political and Legal

Perspectives of the EU Eastern Partnership Policy Tanel Kerikmäe, Archil Chocia, 2016-01-23 This book examines EU Eastern Partnership, taking into account geopolitical challenges of EU integration. It highlights reasons for limited success, such as systematic conflict of EU External Action. In addition, the book analyses country-specific issues and discusses EaP influence on them, investigating political, economic, and social factors while seeking for potential solutions to existing problems. The reluctance of the Eastern countries to the European reforms should not reduce political proactiveness of the EU. The authors suggest that EaP strategies should be reviewed to be more reciprocal and not based solely on the EU-led agenda. This book is one of the good examples of cooperation between scholars not only from EaP and EU countries but also from different disciplines, bringing diversity to the discussion process. Social Policy for Effective Practice Rosemary Chapin, 2014-03-05

For use as a text in foundations/generalist social policy courses, either at the baccalaureate or master's level, this book examines the process of defining need, analyzing social policy, and developing new policy. A clear philosophical base and a common theoretical framework underlie the discussion of each component of the policy process. Four themes are interwoven throughout the book: the importance of thinking critically about social policy; the benefits of using the strengths perspective in policy analysis and development; the critical role social policy plays in all areas of practice; and the absolute responsibility of every social worker to engage in policy practice. RoutledgeSw.com now contains 6 cases: the Sanchez Case has been revised to include much more policy content. Instructor materials include extra readings, PowerPoints, test questions, annotated links, syllabi, and EPAS guidelines. The book is also customizable on Routledge Custom Gateway.
