Education Institutions are included As such a variety of perspectives emerge including the consensual where the aim of critical citizenship education is viewed as promoting social justice shared values and critical thinking to the conflicting where critiques are levelled against conceptions of critical citizenship education Contentious contesting and contradictory views are inevitable and necessary given the South African context as it is only in open debate that the one point of agreement among the authors the need for social change can be worked towards Prof Deirdre Pretorius Univeristy of Johannesburg

Contested Masculinities Robert Stegmann,2020-10-27 In Contested Masculinities the author argues for the importance of critical consciousness and attentiveness to the interplay of the biblical text context and the long complex histories of interpretation that play out in the construction of masculinities Locating his reading of 1 Thessalonians within the thickly textured setting of a postcolonial post apartheid South Africa the author seeks to recontextualize Paul providing a nuanced understanding of how Paul s letters exercise authority over both the church and the academy The author maintains that attempts to frame either the biblical text or notions of masculinity as singular and universal perpetuate and reinforce binary formulations church academy global north global south colonizer colonized male female and entrench hierarchies of power The author re reads 1 Thessalonians exploring the fissures that come into view when training a postcolonial and gender critical lens on the biblical text and delivers a refreshing account that is playful and open and porous especially as a conversational piece for masculinity ancient and contemporary IAAP Handbook of Applied Psychology Paul R.

Oluwafemi Adeagbo,2018-12-12 This book provides an in depth account of a qualitative study on the familial arrangements and domestic settings shaping interracial gay partnerships in the South African context and it offers both empirical and theoretical insights on the topic While heterosexual intimate relationships particularly mixed race couples have attracted societal and scholarly attention in South Africa due to the country s past history of racial segregation it is however striking how little emphasis is placed on understanding same sex unions in a transforming South Africa This book is timely and important because it explores the vignettes complexities and dynamics of interracial gay intimate relationships an area that hardly gets the scholarly attention it deserves The book addresses the intersectionality and the question of how sexuality gender racial identity and personal resources influence the relationship as well as the way resilience strategies are drawn upon to sustain the partnership

Fanon, Psychoanalysis, and Critical Decolonial Psychology Derek Hook, 2025-04-08

This groundbreaking book examines the psychological dimension of decolonial thought in reference to foundational texts. Previously published as A Critical Psychology of the Postcolonial, this new edition foregrounds the central role of Fanon's psychology. Highlighting the contributions of anti-colonial authors to the theorization of racism and oppression, the book demonstrates the pertinence of postcolonial and decolonial thought for critical social psychology and psychoanalysis via an investigation of a series of key topics. It explores the psychology of embodiment and racialization, resistance strategies to oppression, extra-discursive facets of racism, the phobic and sexual dimensions of anti-Blackness, and the roles of desire, fantasy, and unconscious in ideologies of racism. The book makes a distinctive contribution through discussing the work of authors drawn from anti-apartheid, psychoanalytic, and critical social theory traditions, including Steve Biko, J. M. Coetzee, Frantz Fanon, Julia Kristeva, Chabani Manganyi, and Slavoj Žižek. This second edition continues to showcase a crucial set of critical resources for an anti-racist decolonial agenda and is fully updated with new discussion, references, and images, with a new chapter on desire, fantasy, and apartheid ideology to strengthen the book's engagement with apartheid racism. This is an invaluable text not only for students of critical social psychology, psychoanalysis, and sociology, but for students enrolled in courses on race, racism, or decolonial studies. It will also appeal to postgraduates, academics, and anyone interested in psychoanalysis in relation to societal and political issues.
