Entrepreneurship Training in Rural Parts of Bihar/India Tobias Aberle, 2020-05-11 Tobias Aberle examines how an entrepreneurship training helps disadvantaged youths in rural parts of Bihar India to cope with structural conditions that enable or constrain them The present research reveals that young entrepreneurs can be divided into two groups those who developed personal initiative and thus coped with limiting structural conditions very proactively and those who solely behaved in a reactive way For many entrepreneurs the self employed activity was only a Plan B as in reality they sought for high prestige career jobs IFor entrepreneurship training to become a tool of empowerment the range of training must be significantly adjusted in accordance with young trainees social and educational backgrounds In addition a functioning ecosystem for entrepreneurship education must be in place which ensures support for individual entrepreneurs through mentorship and networks Family and Human Development Across Cultures Cigdem Kagitibasi, 2014-03-05 The culmination of 15 years of research by a Turkish psychologist who was educated in the West this volume examines both the theoretical and practical aspects of cross cultural psychology It takes a contextual developmental functional approach linking the child family and society as they are embedded in culture A refreshingly different view the author presents a portrait of human development from the other side from the perspective of the majority world In a world seemingly dominated by American psychology she proposes the cross cultural orientation as a corrective to the culture boundedness of much of Euro American psychology Analyzing human development in context while avoiding the pitfalls of extreme relativism this work studies development with an inclusive holistic and ecological perspective focusing on the development of the self and of competence In so doing it also attempts to combine cultural contextualism with universalistic standards and psychological processes It proposes a theory of family change which challenges some commonly held modernization assumptions and links theory and application while examining the role of psychology in inducing social change Family, Self, and Human Development Across Cultures Cigdem Kagitcibasi, 2007-03-09 Reflecting author gdem Kagitasi s influential work over the last two decades this new edition examines human development the self and the family in a cultural context It challenges the existing assumptions in mainstream western psychology about the nature of individuals The author proposes a new model the Autonomous Related Self which Lithuanian Society in Transition Laima Zilinskiene, Sigita Kraniauskiene, Melanie Ilic, 2024-12-31 Lithuanian Society in Transition examines the life experiences formed during the process of post socialist transformation in Lithuania by analysing the peculiarities of the life course of the cohort of young people born between 1980 and 2000 This book considers how various different components of post Soviet system transformation and more recent events such as the COVID 19 pandemic determine youth experiences and how these experiences are reflected in the generations born between 1980 and 2000 It explores how far these generations see themselves as distinct generations with distinctive identities how far any sense of a distinctive identity is based on political criteria or on technological changes demography and lifestyle and how far recent geopolitical events have had an impact on the identities of these younger generations Drawing on detailed evidence from a corpus of specially commissioned life history interviews the individual chapters uncover self reflexive generational identities and set these in the broader context of both specific local generational identities and more global generation identifiers Offering a rich analysis on social change in a key post Soviet country following the collapse of communism this book will be useful for researchers in sociology and social policy history Russia and Former Soviet Union European studies and ethnic studies In Pursuit of the Quality of Life Avner Offer, 1996 Is wealth the same as happiness How is the quality of life to be evaluated measured and most importantly achieved The authors provide provocative and engaging answers to these questions in this new multidisciplinary and pragmatic approach to an important area of social research Taking the individual as the point of departure the authors consider both objective circumstances and their subjective impact on people s lives Prominent authors from an array of different academic disciplines discuss the quality of life as viewed from their distinctive perspectives these include the psychology of subjective well being destitution and basic needs the environment women and the family illness and health employment and work and the role of the state

Sight, Out Of Mind Yvonne Vissing, 2021-03-17 Because they're small they're easy to overlook Because their voices don't carry far it's hard to hear them We'd rather not look too closely or listen too carefully And if we don't see them maybe they'll just go away But the invisible homeless cannot simply fly away to never-never land or pull themselves up by their bootstraps or make a wish upon a star These homeless people are children and they are not always in the inner cities as Yvonne Vissing shows in this poignant study of families housing and poverty As many as a third of our nation's homeless are found in rural and small town America They are all too commonly out of sight and out of mind Homelessness in small towns and rural areas is on the rise Drawing on interviews with and case studies of three hundred children and their families with supporting statistics from federal state and private agencies Vissing illustrates the impact this social problem has upon education health and the economy Families vividly describe the ways they have fallen through cracks in the social structure from home ownership into homelessness Looking toward the future Vissing asks if homeless children are destined to become dysfunctional adults and provides a sixteen year old girl's moving testimony of the vagabond life her homeless family led While the economy and the very nature of the family have changed over past decades housing education and human service industries have failed to adapt Vissing provides a planning model for improving support networks within communities and challenges Americans with a fundamental philosophical question Do homeless children merit fullscale social intervention Ultimately Out of Sight Out of Mind compels us not merely to voice concerns for family and community values but also to assert this commitment consciously through improved essential services
