Thinking with Things Esther Pasztor, 2005-08-01 At its heart Pasztor's thesis is simple and yet profound She asserts that humans create things some of which modern Western society chooses to call art in order to work out our ideas that is we literally think with things Pasztor draws on examples from many societies to argue that the art making impulse is primarily cognitive and only secondarily aesthetic She demonstrates that art always reflects the specific social context in which it is created and that as societies become more complex their art becomes more rarefied Jacket

Minh-Ha, Cornel West, 1992-02-11 Out There addresses the theme of cultural marginalization the process whereby various groups are excluded from access to and participation in the dominant culture It engages fundamental issues raised by attempts to define such concepts as mainstream minority and other and opens up new ways of thinking about culture and representation All of the texts deal with questions of representation in the broadest sense encompassing not just the visual but also the social and psychological aspects of cultural identity Included are important theoretical writings by Homi Bhabha Helene Cixous Gilles Deleuze and Felix Guattari and Monique Wittig Their work is juxtaposed with essays on more overtly personal themes often autobiographical by Gloria Anzaldua Bell Hooks and Richard Rodriguez among others This rich anthology brings together voices from many different marginalized groups groups that are often isolated from each other as well as from the dominant culture It joins issues of gender race sexual preference and class in one forum but without imposing a false unity on the diverse cultures represented Each piece in the book subtly changes the way every other piece is read While several essays focus on specific issues in art such as John Yau's piece on Wilfredo Lam in the Museum of Modern Art or James Clifford's on collecting art others draw from debates in literature film and critical theory to provide a much broader context than is usually found in work aimed at an art audience Topics range from the functions of language to the role of public art in the city from gay pornography to the meanings of black hair styles Out There also includes essays by Rosalyn Deutsche Richard Dyer Kobena Mercer Edward Said Gayatri Spivak Gerald Vizenor and Simon Watney as well as by the editors Copublished with the New Museum of Contemporary Art New York Distributed by The MIT Press Aspects of India's International Relations, 1700 to 2000 Jayanta Kumar Ray, 2007 This Volume Is A Modernist Study Of India S International Relations Which Traverses Pre Colonial Colonial And Postcolonial Perspectives Its Fourteen Chapters Discuss Varied Subjects Related To South Asia S Regional And International Relations Like I The Institutionalization Of British Paramountcy In India And Its Effect On The Region S External Relations As Well As Indigenous Responses To Colonial Rule Ii The Influence Of Domestic Variables Upon India S International Relations Iii The Interspersing Of Ethnic Economic And Religious Factors In The Making Of The British Indian Empire And Later Of The Indian State Iv The Paradigms Of Nature Culture State Making On The One Hand And Political Ecology And Cultural Politics Of Natural Resources On The Other V The Changing Character Of Foreign Corporate Involvement In India Vi The Development Of Science And Technology In India And The Activities Of The Armed Forces In India Vii The Fostering Of Formal Arrangements Such As Saarc Or Safta In South Asia And Informal Challenges To India S Security From Non State Actors Viii The Economic Political And Cultural Consequences Of Globalization For India During The Imperial Colonial Phases Ix The Evolution In Creative Writing Of A Discourse On The World Outside India And On India S Relationship With It This Volume Will Be Of Interest To Scholars And Students Of South Asian Studies History Political Science And International Relations And Defence Studies Advances in Human Factors and Ergonomics 2012- 14 Volume Set Gavriel Salvendy, Waldemar Karwowski, 2012-08-06 With contributions from an international group of authors with diverse backgrounds this set comprises all fourteen volumes of the proceedings of the 4th AHFE Conference 21 25 July 2012 The set presents the latest research on current issues in Human Factors and Ergonomics It draws from an international panel that examines cross cultural differences design issues usability road and rail transportation aviation modeling and simulation and healthcare *History of Science, Philosophy and Culture in Indian Civilization: pt. 1. law realists face the problem of justifying the natural law Against both views S Zinaich Jr defends a middle position Analytical Legal Naturalism ALN It represents an analytic norm both necessarily true and known a posteriori Against the legal positivists it supplies an objective legal standard by removing at least for hard cases the necessity of the will of a sovereign authority Against the natural law realists ALN provides a nonmoral standard which because of its analyticity and necessity avoids the need for metaethical speculation Finally ALN provides a standard that not only supplies the universalizable punch to avoid political subjectivism but does so in a conventional manner Thus ALN does not require a moral or modal reality as truth making characteristics Rather it makes what is legally valuable or disvaluable dependent upon empirically verifiable facts that are legally relevant Resources in Education ,1998-10 The Athenaeum ,1907 The United States Catalog Mary Burnham,Carol Hurd,1928 Ethnomusicology Jennifer Post,2004-03-01 Ethnomusicology A Research and Information Guide is an annotated bibliography of books recordings videos and websites in the field of ethnomusicology The book is divided into two parts Part One is organised by resource type in catagories of greatest concern to students and scholars This includes handbooks and guides encyclopedias and dictionaries indexes and bibliographies journals media sources and archives It also offers annotated entries on the basic literature of ethnomusicological history and research Part Two provides a list of current publications in the field that are widely used by ethnomusicologists Multiply indexed this book serves as an excellent tool for librarians researchers and scholars in sorting through the massive amount of new material that has appeared in the field over the past decades
