Laws,2022-05-04 This book focuses on the emotional experience of imprisonment In no uncertain terms prisons seethe with emotions and feelings Based on two empirically rigorous studies this book analyses how prisoners attempt to adapt and control their emotions It begins with an account of male and female prisoners held in medium security prisons and then moves to the particular case of emotions in solitary confinement There has been a turn towards emotions in criminology but this is the first book to centralize the subject of prisoner emotions in a detailed manner The ethnographic study of feelings has much to contribute to broader debates about survival in prison and pathways to desistance Most importantly it emphasizes that full blooded depictions of prisoners belong at the heart of academic inquiry Adult Crying Ad J.J.M. Vingerhoets,Randolph R. Cornelius,2012-12-06 Crying is a typical human expression of emotion Surprisingly until now little scientific attention has been devoted to this phenomenon Many textbooks on emotion fail to pay attention to it and in scientific journals there are hardly any contributions focusing on this behavior In contrast there is much interest from the lay public allowing pseudo scientists to formulate theories that have little or no scientific basis Is there any evidence in support of statements that crying is healthy or that not crying may result in toxification How do people react to the crying of others Is crying important for the diagnosis of depression and if so how This book aims to fill this gap in scientific literature Crying is discussed from several perspectives and specific attention is given to methodological issues and assessment Each chapter provides a review and a summary of the relevant scientific literature Socio-emotional Skills in Relation to
