Socialism Politics And Equality Hierarchy And Change In Eastern Europe And The Ussr:

Socialism, Politics, and Equality Walter D. Connor, 1979-03-02 Eastern Europe Since 1970 Bulent Gokay, 2015-12-22 From the hardening grip of Soviet domination under Brezhnev to the collapse of communism and its aftermath Bulent Gokay provides the essential introduction to Eastern Europe in the last quarter of the twentieth century The Soviet invasion of Czechoslovakia in 1968 spelt the end of reformist communism and the tightening of Soviet control throughout Eastern Europe In spite of this several countries within the Soviet Bloc managed to retain varying degrees of independence over the next two decades Focusing on the struggle towards economic and social modernisation in the region and the competing influences of East and West in a dangerous Cold War Bulent Gokay shows how individual circumstances and diverse national characteristics made a uniform application of the Soviet model impossible and charts the growing resistance to domination and the momentous events which finally toppled Soviet power in the region Free to Lose John E. ROEMER, John E Roemer, 2009-06-30 John Roemer challenges the morality of an economic system based on the private ownership of the means of production Unless you start with a certain amount of wealth in such a society you are only free to lose This book addresses crucial questions of political philosophy and normative economics in terms understandable by readers with a minimal knowledge of economics Historians as Nation Builders Dennis Deletant, Harry Hanak, 1988-06-18 A selection of papers from a conference held in honour of Professor Hugh Seton Watson on the occasion of his retirement in 1983 The aim of the contributors is to illustrate the role of the historian in the political life of Central and East European nations Problems of Communism , 1982 Soviet Union to Commonwealth Kalipada Deb, 1996 This studies makes an in depth analysis of the nature of transformation that came over the decades It also looks into the prospect of the Commonwealth and the capitalist reforms going on in different countries Central and Eastern Europe, 1944-1993 Tibor Iván Berend, 1996 An ambitious comparative analysis of Eastern Bloc economies during a period of revolutionary change Power and Privilege Gerhard E. Lenski, 2013-04-01 Power and Privilege seeks to answer the central question of the field of social stratification Who gets what and why Using a dialectical view of the development of thought in the discipline Gerhard Lenski describes the outlines of an emerging synthesis of theories He shows that perspectives as diverse and contradictory as those of Marx Spencer Sumner Veblen Mosca Pareto Sorokin Parsons and Dahrendorf are parts of an evolving and systematic body of theory Politics, Paradigms, and Intelligence Failures Ofira Seliktar, 2015-05-20 Washington s failure to foresee the collapse of its superpower rival ranks high in the pantheon of predictive failures The question of who got what right or wrong has been intertwined with the deeper issue of who won the Cold War Like the disputes over who lost China and Iran this debate has been fought out along ideological and partisan lines with conservatives claiming credit for the Evil Empire s demise and liberals arguing that the causes were internal to the Soviet Union The intelligence community has come in for harsh criticism for overestimating Soviet strength and overlooking the symptoms of crisis the discipline of Sovietology has dissolved into acrimonious irrelevance Drawing on declassified documents interviews and careful analysis of contemporaneous literature this book offers the first systematic analysis of this predictive failure at the paradigmatic foreign policy and intelligence levels Although it is focused on the Soviet case it offers lessons that are both timely and necessary Security Implications Of Nationalism In Eastern Europe Jeffrey Simon, Trond Gilberg, 2019-06-26 Suggesting that events in Poland during 1980 1981 represent the tip of an iceberg the contributors examine the rise of nationalism in Eastern Europe and its potential consequences for European security They analyze developing problems and trends in the region including the cooling of relations between the USSR and individual countries in Eastern Europe the continuing economic crisis changing social structures the influence of the intelligentsia and the eroding importance of ideology as a key part of Eastern Europe's political culture The second half of the book focuses on the impact of these shifts on political and military relations between the USSR and Eastern European countries and on the efficient functioning of the Warsaw Pact

Captive University John Connelly, 2014-12-01 This comparative history of the higher education systems in Poland East Germany and the Czech lands reveals an unexpected diversity within East European stalinism With information gleaned from archives in each of these places John Connelly offers a valuable case study showing how totalitarian states adapt their policies to the contours of the societies they rule The Communist dictum that universities be purged of bourgeois elements was accomplished most fully in East Germany where more and more students came from worker and peasant backgrounds But the Polish Party kept potentially disloyal professors on the job in the futile hope that they would train a new intelligentsia and Czech stalinists failed to make worker and peasant students a majority at Czech universities Connelly accounts for these differences by exploring the prestalinist heritage of these countries and particularly their experiences in World War II The failure of Polish and Czech leaders to transform their universities became particularly evident during the crises of 1968 and 1989 when university students spearheaded reform movements In East Germany by contrast universities remained true to the state to the end and students were notably absent from the revolution of 1989 Where the World Ended Daphne Berdahl,1999-05-10 Focusing on the reunification of Germany this text asks what happens when a political and economic system collapses overnight It concentrates especially on how these changes have affected certain border zones of daily life including social organization gender and religion
