Method and Revolutionary Subjectivity Guido Starosta develops a materialist inquiry into the social and historical determinations of revolutionary subjectivity Through a methodologically minded critical reconstruction of the Marxian critique of political economy from the early writings up to the Grundrisse and Capital this study shows that the outcome of the historical movement of the objectified form of social mediation which has turned into the very alienated subject of social life i e capital is to develop as its own immanent determination the constitution of the self abolishing working class as a revolutionary subject A crucial element in this intellectual endeavour is the focus on the intrinsic connection between the specifically dialectical form of social science and its radical transformative content      Historical Dictionary of Socialism Peter Lamb, 2015-12-17 Socialism has been an influential force for social change for almost two centuries Its philosophy and ideology have inspired millions while simultaneously arousing fear and revulsion in its enemies Having emerged after the French Revolution in the effort to build upon and develop the egalitarian ideas of the Enlightenment socialism has taken many forms It has furthermore sometimes been manipulated and reformulated by opportunists who have built authoritarianism and totalitarian dictatorships in its name Opponents seize on such examples to frighten away people who

Beyond Ujamaa in Tanzania Goran Hyden, 2023-11-10 Beyond Ujamaa in Tanzania Underdevelopment and an

Uncaptured Peasantry explores the challenges of development and underdevelopment in Africa with a focus on Tanzania's experience during its early socialist years. The book critiques the dominant ideologies of development, whether capitalist or socialist, as being rooted in Western industrial paradigms that often fail to address the realities of pre-capitalist African societies. It argues that the underdevelopment in Africa is not solely due to excessive penetration by global capitalism but also to capitalism's inability to dismantle the resilient pre-capitalist structures in many rural societies. The author highlights the role of the Tanzanian peasantry whose economic and social autonomy often resists the centralizing tendencies of modern development, presenting them not as mere appendages to the global economy but as key players with their own modes of production and unique societal structures. The book is grounded in over a decade of fieldwork and engagement with rural Tanzanian communities, enriched by the author's fluency in Swahili and deep involvement in local life. It argues for a more nuanced approach to studying African societies, one that goes beyond Western assumptions and models. By placing the peasant mode of production at the center of analysis, the study challenges conventional wisdom and suggests that the primary development challenge in Africa lies not with multinational corporations but with understanding and working within the dynamics of the smallholder peasant economy. The author also reflects on the limitations of conventional social science research and calls for greater involvement in the lived realities of the communities studied, emphasizing the need for research methods that are sensitive to local contexts and values. The book combines academic critique, field observations, and a focus on the epistemological biases of Western scholarship to present a compelling argument for rethinking development in Africa. This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program, which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice, reach, and impact. Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893, Voices Revived makes high-quality peer-reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print-on-demand technology. This title was originally published in 1980.

Latin American Peasants Tom Brass, 2004-08-02 The essays in this collection examine agrarian transformation in Latin America and the role of peasants, with particular reference to Bolivia, Peru, Chile, Brazil, and Central America. Among the issues covered are the impact of globalization and neo-liberal economic policies.

A Radical Green Political Theory Alan B. Carter, 1999 This volume is the first systematic, comprehensive, and cogent environmental political philosophy. It will be of enormous value to all those with an interest in the environment, political theory, and moral and political philosophy.

Economic Democracy (Routledge Revivals) Martin Carnoy, Derek Shearer, 2016-02-12 This book is a discussion of and an argument for alternatives to the present structure of production in the United States, alternatives that would change the control of capital and how it is used. First published 1980, Carnoy and Shearer discuss the economic problems facing the 1980s and argue for a strategy to transform capital from corporations to the public. A book that remains relevant in today's political economic climate, this title is ideal for students of economics and politics, as well as general readers interested in past and present economic problems and potential solutions.

Sochor, 2018-09-05 Zenovia A Sochor here assesses one of the most important debates within the Bolshevik leadership during the early years of Soviet power that between A A Bogdanov and V I Lenin Once comrades in arms Bogdanov and Lenin became political rivals prior to the October Revolution Their disagreements over political and cultural issues led to a split in the Bolshevik Party with Bogdanov spearheading the party's left wing faction and attracting a following of notable intellectuals Before Lenin died in 1924 however he had succeeded in shaping Soviet society according to his own vision and today Bolshevism is commonly identified with Leninism while Bogdanovism is little known Sochor provides the first full exposition in English of Bogdanov's views which she asserts must be understood to appreciate the choices available and the paths not taken during the formative years of the Soviet regime
