Tejani,2021-01-05 Many of the central issues in modern Indian politics have long been understood in terms of an opposition between ideologies of secularism and communalism Observers have argued that recent Hindu nationalism is the symptom of a crisis of Indian secularism and have blamed this on a resurgence of religion or communalism Shabnum Tejani unpacks prevailing assumptions about the meaning of secularism in contemporary politics focusing on India but with many points of comparison elsewhere in the world She questions the simple dichotomy between secularism and communalism that has been used in scholarly study and political discourse Tracing the social political and intellectual genealogies of the concepts of secularism and communalism from the late nineteenth century until the ratification of the Indian constitution in 1950 she shows how secularism came to be bound up with ideas about nationalism and national identity Agrarian Development in Colonial India Peter Robb,2021-07-08 This book looks at agriculture development poverty and British rule in India especially in the Patna Division in Bihar between c 1870 1920 It traces the economic influence of British policies and maps the impact of legal administrative and scientific interventions to rural conditions and norms in the state The book discusses British theories and policies of improvement comparing them with Bihar s agricultural practice and socio economic conditions to draw conclusions about rural impoverishment Following on from his earlier book Ancient Rights and Future Comfort on the Bengal Tenancy Act of 1885 the author also presents case studies on famines debts canal and village irrigation flood protection and the cultivation and production of indigo opium and sugar He analyses extensive archival material to reflect on property law scientific interventions cropping patterns trade and intermediaries He examines the economic role of governments Eurocentric development theories and the complex impact of development policy on agriculture and society in Bihar The book will be of interest to academics and students of colonial history modern Indian history agrarian studies economic history sociology and development studies It will also be useful to development practitioners and researchers working on the history of agrarian conditions and public policy Hindu Law Werner Menski,2008-09-10 This book presents a study on a postmodernist analysis of classical Hindu law which has become neglected due to the modernist assumptions about the increasing irrelevance of religious legal systems The book is split into three parts The first part focuses on the historical and conceptual background of Hindu law while the second part concentrates on five facets of Hindu law that go beyond tradition and modernity namely the Hindu marriage law child marriage polygamy divorce and the maintenance law Finally the third part presents a concluding analysis to the preceding chapters where it presents the postmodern condition of Hindu law

Christians and Public Life in Colonial South India, 1863-1937 Chandra Mallampalli, 2004-07-31. This book tells the story of how Catholic and Protestant Indians have attempted to locate themselves within the evolving Indian nation. Ironically, British rule in India did not privilege Christians but pushed them to the margins of a predominantly Hindu society. Drawing upon wide-ranging sources, the book first explains how the Indian judiciary's official knowledge isolated Christians from Indian notions of family, caste and nation. It then describes how different varieties and classes of Christians adopted, resisted and reshaped both imperial and nationalist perceptions of their identity. Within a climate of rising communal tension in India, this study finds immediate relevance.

Memory, Identity and the Colonial Encounter in India Ezra Rashkow, Sanjukta Ghosh, Upal Chakrabarti, 2017-08-18. This book sheds new light on the dynamics of the colonial encounter between Britain and India. It highlights how various analytical approaches to this encounter can be creatively mobilised to rethink entanglements of memory and identity emerging from British rule in the subcontinent. This volume reevaluates central long-standing debates about the historical impact of the British Raj by deviating from hegemonic and top-down civilizational perspectives. It focuses on interactions, relations and underlying meanings of the colonial experience. The narratives of memory, identity and the legacy of the colonial encounter are woven together in a diverse range of essays on subjects such as colonial and nationalist memorials, British Eurasian, Dalit and Adivasi identities, regional political configurations and state initiatives and patterns of control. By drawing on empirically rich regional and chronological historical studies, this book will be essential reading for students and researchers of history, political science, colonial studies.

Plague Image and Imagination from Medieval to Modern Times Christos Lynteris, 2021-07-29 This edited collection brings together new research by world leading historians and anthropologists to examine the interaction between images of plague in different temporal and spatial contexts and the imagination of the disease from the Middle Ages to today The chapters in this book illuminate to what extent the image of plague has not simply reflected but also impacted the way in which the disease is experienced in different historical periods The book asks what is the contribution of the entanglement between epidemic image and imagination to the persistence of plague as a category of human suffering across so many centuries in spite of profound shifts in our medical understanding of the disease What is it that makes plague such a visually charismatic subject And why is the medical religious and lay imagination of plague so consistently determined by the visual register In answering these questions this volume takes the study of plague images beyond its usual art historical framework so as to examine them and their relation to the imagination of plague from medical historical visual anthropological and postcolonial perspectives
