A Handbook of Leisure Studies C. Rojek, S. Shaw, A. Veal, 2006-06-20 A unique international resource for Leisure Studies in one volume the history organization and central debates in the field of Leisure Studies are defined providing a one stop shop for students and an agenda for future debate and research academics 21st Century Sociology: A Reference Handbook Clifton D. Bryant, Dennis L. Peck, 2007 Publisher Description The Good Mother Susan Goodwin, Kate Huppatz, 2010 The Good Mother brings together essays on the contemporary relevance of the good mother in Australia Although the ideals of the good mother change with time fashion and context they persist in public policy the media popular culture and workplaces They place pressure on women to conform to particular standards against which they are judged and judge themselves This book captures the diversity of contemporary women's experiences Chapters address the experiences of executive mothers mothers working in manual trades yummy mummies and slummy mummies low income mothers single mothers Indigenous mothers lesbian parents adoptive mothers and mothers negotiating schools and school choice The essays demonstrate that while the good mother is no longer exclusively white heterosexual economically dependent and child focused prevailing ideas about mothers and motherhood continue to influence the way types of women are represented and the way that all mothers think act and present themselves Farewell to Shulamit Carsten Wilke, 2017-04-10 The Song of Songs a lyric cycle of love scenes without a narrative plot has often been considered as the Bible's most beautiful and enigmatic book The present study questions the still dominant exegetical convention that merges all of the Song's voices into the dialogue of a single couple its composite heroine Shulamit being a projection screen for norms of womanhood An alternative socio spatial reading starting with the Hebrew text's strophic patterns and its references to historical realia explores the poem's artful alternation between courtly urban rural and pastoral scenes with their distinct characters The literary construction of social difference juxtaposes class specific patterns of consumption mobility emotion power structures and gender relations This new image of the cycle as a detailed poetic frieze of ancient society eventually leads to a precise hypothesis concerning its literary and religious context in the Hellenistic age as well as its geographical origins in the multiethnic borderland east of the Jordan In a Jewish echo of anthropological skepticism the poem emphasizes the plurality and relativity of the human condition while praising the communicative powers of pleasure fantasy and multifarious Eros Engaging with Carol Bacchi Angelique Bletsas, Chris Beasley, 2012 Carol Bacchi's scholarship is both substantial and wide ranging Beginning her academic career as a historian in the field of English Canadian women's suffrage Bacchi has made innovative and insightful contributions to the fields of feminist theory critical policy studies and post structuralist theory One of the characteristic traits of her scholarship is her interest in revising and revisiting analytic problems from a range of perspectives This resolute analytical rigour is undoubtedly evident in Bacchi's What's the Problem Represented to be WPR approach which is perhaps her most crucial contribution to intellectual inquiry and certainly one of the most innovative analytical frameworks developed in recent times This book illuminates commemorates and builds upon Bacchi's WPR approach It outlines the trajectory of the development of the WPR approach from Bacchi's early engagements with feminist thinking as an academic in scholarly environments which were often the preserve of men towards the theoretical sophistication of an approach which requires an ongoing critical assessment of assumptions about the social world social problems policy agendas deemed to respond to those problems and the researcher's positioning This book arose out of a conference organised by the Fay Gale Centre for Research on Gender at The University of Adelaide honouring Carol Bacchi's work and is intended to make that work accessible to a range of audiences from the Introduction by Angeliques Bletsas and Chris Beasley

Parents Killing Children Janice Sim, 2018-10-04 Parents Killing Children Crossing the Invisible Line explores hidden forms of violence within the family This socio legal study addresses the interactions between the family and the state focusing on six parent perpetrators and the ways in which child endangerment is concealed within society Drawing on symbolic interactionism mythology and a modelling of case study data this book puts forward a unique conceptualisation of representation and risk both on familial and state levels The failure of the state to intervene and neutralise volatile perpetrators also sheds light on the socio legal status of children society's most vulnerable and the book concludes by discussing means by which the underlying social conditions and maladies symptomatic of child abuse and killing should be addressed

"No Fit Place for Women"? Deborah Brennan, Louise A. Chappell, 2006 Focusing on women in NSW politics this includes an analysis of women's role in NSW Parliament political parties and the public sector

Sport, Culture & Media Rowe, David, 2003-12-01 Examining the ways in which media sport has insinuated itself into contemporary everyday life this book traces the rise of the sports media and the economic and political influences on and implications of the media sports cultural complex
