- Theoretical perspectives
 - Functionalist perspective – emphasizes how parts of a society are structured to maintain its stability. This perspective focuses on how racism is functional for dominant groups and dysfunctional for subordinate groups.
 - Conflict perspective – assumes that the social structure is best understood in terms of conflict or tension between competing groups. The haves and the have-nots.
 - Labeling theory – attempts to explain why certain people are viewed as deviants and others engaging in the same behavior are not.
 - Stereotypes are unreliable, exaggerated generalizations about all members of a group that do not take individual differences into account.
 - Self-fulfilling prophecy – the tendency to respond to the act on the basis of stereotypes, a predisposition that can lead one to validate false definitions.

Sander L. Gilman, James Thomas

Sociology And The Race Problem:

Sociology and the Race Problem James B. McKee, 1993 Tracing developments in the sociology of race relations from the 1920s to the 1960s McKee maintains that sociologists assumed the United States would move unimpeded toward modernization and assimilation aided by industrialization and urbanization The fatal flaw in their perspective was the notion that blacks were culturally inferior backward and pre modern a people who had lost their own culture and couldn't grasp that of their new society Designed to detail a failure the author says is widely acknowledged but little examined this book will be of interest to both specialists and general readers Masterful McKee transports the reader back to the intellectual world in which the early sociologists worked and does not simply treat them as evil racists His approach is informed by the sociology of knowledge Lewis M Killian author of The Impossible Revolution Phase 2 Black Power and the American Dream The American Race Problem: A Study of the Negro Edward Byron Reuter, 1927 The American Race Problem Edward Byron Reuter, 1927 Conceptualizing Racism Noel A. Cazenave, 2015-11-19 Conceptualizing Racism is a provocative book that confronts the language we use to discuss and understand racism Author Noel A Cazenave argues that American social science has since its inception practiced linguistic racial accommodation that blurs our understanding of systemic racism and makes it difficult to effect meaningful change Conceptualizing Racism highlights how words matter in racism studies The author traces the history of linguistic racial accommodation through the development of sociology as a discipline and illustrates how it is at play today not only within the discipline but in public life From Power to Prejudice Leah N. Gordon, 2015-05-20 Americans believe strongly in the socially transformative power of education and the idea that we can challenge racial injustice by reducing white prejudice has long been a core component of this faith How did we get here In this first rate intellectual history Leah N Gordon jumps into this and other big questions about race power and social justice To answer these questions From Power to Prejudice examines American academia both black and white in the 1940s and 50s Gordon presents four competing visions of the race problem and documents how an individualistic paradigm which presented white attitudes as the source of racial injustice gained traction A number of factors Gordon shows explain racial individualism's postwar influence individuals were easier to measure than social forces psychology was well funded studying political economy was difficult amid McCarthyism and individualism was useful in legal attacks on segregation Highlighting vigorous midcentury debate over the meanings of racial justice and equality From Power to Prejudice reveals how one particular vision of social justice won out among many contenders Of One Blood, a Short Study of the Race Problem Robert Elliott Speer, 1924 The Condemnation of Blackness Khalil Gibran Muhammad, 2010-02-15 The Idea of Black Criminality was crucial to the making of modern urban America Khalil Gibran Muhammad chronicles how when and why modern notions of black people as an exceptionally dangerous race of criminals first emerged Well known are the lynch mobs and racist criminal justice practices in the South that stoked white fears of black crime and shaped the contours of the New South In this illuminating book Muhammad shifts our attention to the urban North as a crucial but overlooked site for the production and dissemination of those ideas and practices Following the 1890 census the first to measure the generation of African Americans born after slavery crime statistics new migration and immigration trends and symbolic references to America as the promised land were woven into a cautionary tale about the exceptional threat black people posed to modern urban society Excessive arrest rates and overrepresentation in northern prisons were seen by many whites liberals and conservatives northerners and southerners as indisputable proof of blacks inferiority What else but pathology could explain black failure in the land of opportunity Social scientists and reformers used crime statistics to mask and excuse anti black racism violence and discrimination across the nation especially in the urban North The Condemnation of Blackness is the most thorough historical account of the enduring link between blackness and criminality in the making of modern urban America It is a startling examination of why the echoes of America s Jim Crow past continue to resonate in color blind crime rhetoric today

BOOK JACKET Congress of Arts and Science Howard Jason Rogers,1906 Shades of Difference Richard Rees,2007-02-23 From its prehistory in the biological theories of racial difference formulated in the 1800s to its current position in academic debate Richard Rees investigates the diverse fields of scholarship from which the multifaceted understanding of the term ethnicity is derived At the same time Rees traces the broader historical forces that shaped the needs to which the concept of ethnicity responded and the social purposes to which it was applied Centrally he focuses upon the emergence of ethnicity in the early 1940s as a means of resolving contradictions and ambiguities in the racial status of European immigrants and its subsequent legacy and implications on race and caste Shades of Difference introduces new perspectives on the definition of whiteness in America and makes an original contribution to the larger discussion of race through a detailed account of ethnicity s original meaning and its revaluation when later appropriated by the discourse of Black Nationalism in the 1960s and 70s Rees has produced a powerful new analysis of the cultural and political history of ethnicity in America

The Ohio State University Bulletin Ohio State University,1925 Bulletin of the University Summer Session University of Florida,1929 Ohio State University Bulletin ,1926 Immigration and Race Attitudes Emory Stephen Bogardus,1928 Third World Studies Gary Y. Okihiro,2024-07-19 In this revised and expanded second edition of Third World Studies Gary Y Okihiro considers the methods and theories that might constitute the formation of Third World studies Proposed in 1968 at San Francisco State College by the Third World Liberation Front but replaced by faculty and administrators with ethnic studies Third World studies was over before it began As opposed to ethnic studies which Okihiro critiques for its liberalism and US centrism Third World studies begins with the colonized world and the anti imperial anticolonial and antiracist projects located therein as described by W E B Du Bois in 1900 Third World studies analyzes the locations and articulations of power around the axes of race gender sexuality disability class and nation In this new edition Okihiro emphasizes the work of Third World intellectuals such as M N Roy Jos Carlos Mari tegui and Oliver

Cromwell Cox foregrounds the importance of Bandung and the Tricontinental and adds discussions of eugenics feminist epistemologies and religion With this work Okihiro establishes Third World studies as a theoretical formation and a liberatory practice Handbook of Classical Sociological Theory Seth Abrutyn, Omar Lizardo, 2021-11-01 This is the first handbook focussing on classical social theory It offers extensive discussions of debates arguments and discussions in classical theory and how they have informed contemporary sociological theory The book pushes against the conventional classical theory pedagogy which often focused on single theorists and their contributions and looks at isolating themes capturing the essence of the interest of classical theorists that seem to have relevance to modern research questions and theoretical traditions This book presents new approaches to thinking about theory in relationship to sociological methods Forging a Laboring Race Paul R.D. Lawrie, 2018-04-03 How does it feel to be a problem asked W E B DuBois in The Souls of Black Folk 1903 For Progressive Era thinkers across the color line the Negro problem was inextricably linked to the concurrent labor problem occasioning debates regarding blacks role in the nation s industrial past present and future With blacks freed from what some believed to be the protective embrace of slavery many felt that the assumedly primitive Negro was doomed to expire in the face of unbridled industrial progress Yet efforts to address the so called Negro problem invariably led to questions regarding the relationship between race industry and labor In consequence a collection of thinkers across the natural and social sciences developed a new culture of racial management linking race and labor to color and the body Evolutionary theory and industrial management combined to link certain peoples to certain forms of work and reconfigured the story of races into one of development and decline efficiency and inefficiency and the thin line between civilization and savagery Forging a Laboring Race charts the history of an idea race management building on recent work in African American labor and disability history to analyze how ideas of race work and the fit or unfit body informed the political economy of early twentieth century industrial America Forging a Laboring Race foregrounds the working black body as both a category of analysis and lived experience It charts a corporeal map of African American proletarianization via the fields factories trenches hospital and universities of Progressive Era America University Record of the University of Florida University of Florida, 1914 Catalog University of Florida, 1914 Are Racists Crazy? Sander L. Gilman, James Thomas, 2018-09-04 The connection and science behind race racism and mental illness In 2012 an interdisciplinary team of scientists at the University of Oxford reported that based on their clinical experiment the beta blocker drug Propranolol could reduce implicit racial bias among its users Shortly after the experiment an article in Time Magazine cited the study posing the question Is racism becoming a mental illness In Are Racists Crazy Sander Gilman and James Thomas trace the idea of race and racism as psychopathological categories from mid 19th century Europe to contemporary America up to the aforementioned clinical experiment at the University of Oxford and ask a slightly different question than that posed by Time How did racism become a mental illness Using historical archival and content analysis the authors provide a rich account of how the 19th century Sciences of Man including anthropology medicine and biology used race as a means of defining psychopathology and how assertions about race and madness became embedded within disciplines that deal with mental health and illness An illuminating and riveting history of the discourse on racism antisemitism and psychopathology Are Racists Crazy connects past and present claims about race and racism showing the dangerous implications of this specious line of thought for today Announcement Ohio State University.
