Sociology An Introductory Course:

Sociology P. L. Selfe, 1975      Sociology Paul Cooper, 1988      First Contact Nancy A. Greenwood, Jay R.

Howard, 2011-08-16 The Introduction to Sociology course is usually the first contact that students have with the discipline of sociology. This course can determine whether students take other sociology courses or learn to use sociology in their lives as adults and citizens. First Contact identifies important issues facing instructors in introducing students to the sociological imagination. Drawing on the literature of teaching and learning in sociology and higher education more broadly, First Contact provides an overview of the scholarship of teaching and learning, best practices, and other essential information to create a successful first course in sociology. It walks the instructor through the course design process from learning about whom your students are determining appropriate course goals and learning objectives and using these ideas to design, execute, and assess your course. It examines the core content of a first course. It discusses how to design a syllabus, select textbooks and readings, as well as how to design and deliver effective lectures, facilitate good discussions, and other course delivery options. An invaluable resource for anyone teaching the introductory sociology course, including grad students, new professors, and seasoned instructors who seek renewal in their approach to teaching this critical course in the sociology curriculum. A

Textbook for an Introductory Course in Sociology Jose A. Fadul, Ronan S. Estoque, 2010-10-11 A textbook for an introductory course in sociology that is experiential, participative, image-driven, and connected. EPIC Emphasis is given to history, sociological methodology, and applications in related fields. Timeline is especially image-rich and illustrative of the development of sociology through interactions. Theoretical considerations are each accompanied by diagrams and illustrations from actual experience with suggested participative activities. Problems and Projects in Sociology Samuel Burkhard, 1936

Teaching Durkheim Terry F. Godlove, 2005 Emile Durkheim's work on religion occupies a central place in religious studies classrooms today. This volume is designed as a resource for teachers offering practical advice about productive ways to approach central texts and difficult pedagogical issues. A Textbook for an Introductory Course in Sociology 2nd

Improving Quality in American Higher Education Richard Arum, Josipa Roksa, Amanda Cook, 2016-05-02 An ambitious comprehensive reimagining of 21st-century higher education. Improving Quality in American Higher Education outlines the fundamental concepts and competencies society demands from today's college graduates and provides a vision of the future for students, faculty, and administrators. Based on a national multidisciplinary effort to define and measure learning outcomes, the Measuring College Learning project, this book identifies essential concepts and competencies for six disciplines. These essential concepts and competencies represent efforts towards articulating a consensus among faculty in biology, business, communication, economics, history, and sociology disciplines that account for nearly 40 percent of undergraduate majors in the United States Contributions from thought leaders in higher education including Ira Katznelson George Kuh and Carol Geary Schneider offer expert perspectives and persuasive arguments for the need for greater clarity intentionality and quality in U S higher education College faculty are our best resource for improving the quality of undergraduate education This book offers a path forward based on faculty perspectives nationwide Clarify program structure and aims Articulate high quality learning goals Rigorously measure student progress Prioritize higher order competencies and disciplinarily grounded conceptual understandings A culmination of over two years of efforts by faculty and association leaders from six disciplines this book distills the national conversation into a delineated set of fundamental ideas and practices and advocates for the development and use of rigorous assessment tools that are valued by faculty students and society Improving Quality in American Higher Education brings faculty voices to the fore of the conversation and offers an insightful look at the state of higher education and a realistic strategy for better serving our students      Undergraduate Announcement University of Michigan--Dearborn,1983

A Disciplinary Blueprint for the Assessment of Information Literacy Dorothy Anne Warner,2008-06-30 Have you ever worried that literature on library instruction deals more with methods of assessing student attitude than student learning If so you ll be glad to know someone is doing something about it Eight unique disciplinary modules are presented each identifying a series of information literacy objectives developed in accordance with Bloom s Taxonomy of Cognitive Objectives A substantive curriculum map embedded within each module lists the sequence of courses required for the disciplinary major and the level at which the course is taught sophomore junior etc notes whether information literacy instruction is currently taught by the library for that particular course and delineates the specific information literacy learning objectives the students must master in order to fulfill the course assignments Collaborative responsibility for teaching the information literacy skills is also outlined with specific recommendations for ways the library can strengthen its support for the specific discipline In addition assessment methodologies are identified including scoring rubrics designed specifically for the disciplinary information literacy objectives An indispensable resource for academic librarians ready to take the leap from episodic reactive response to programmatic sequenced integration into the curriculum
