The Song of Songs and the Eros of God Edmée Kingsmill, 2009-11-26 Modern biblical scholarship interprets the Song as a collection of love lyrics For Edmée Kingsmill on the contrary the essence of the Song is mystical A principal concern of this study however is to uncover the relationship between the 117 verses of the Song and those biblical books to which they point Beneath the metaphors a network of allusions is being woven conveying a picture opposite to that we find in the prophets who confronted with the continual adultery of Israel poured forth their condemnations with unwearying passion In dramatic contrast the Song presents a paradisaical picture For lo the winter is past the rain is over and gone The flowers appear in the land and the time of singing is come Song 2 11 12 Thus in presenting the ideal the intention of the Song's author is shown to be encouragement The inclusion of this poem in the biblical canon is understood therefore to be central to the purpose of the biblical literature to bring all people to love the God of love The book is in two parts The first and longer part is concerned with themes including the relationship of the Song to the early Jewish mystical literature The second part is a short commentary intended for the reader interested in the text as much as in the related questions to which the text gives rise

Known by God Brian S. Rosner, 2017-09-12 What does the Bible say about your sense of self In the past an individual's identity was more predictable than it is now Today personal identity is a do it yourself project Constructing a stable and satisfying sense of self is hard amidst relationship breakdowns the pace and rhetoric of modern life the rise of social media social mobility and so on Ours is a day of identity angst Who are you What defines you What makes you you In Known by God Rosner argues that rather than knowing ourselves being known by God is the key to personal identity He explores three biblical angles on the question of personal identity Being made in the image of God Being known by God Being in Christ At the center of a biblical understanding of personal identity is sonship God gives us our identity as a parent who knows his child Being known by him as his child gives our fleeting lives significance provokes in us needed humility supplies cheering comfort when things go wrong and offers clear moral direction for living

Part of the Biblical Theology for Life series this practical and insightful book will help you ground your longing to be known and the security of your identity on the solid foundation of biblical understanding

Carr,2005-02-24 Historically the Bible has been used to drive a wedge between the spirit and the body In this book David Carr argues that it can and should do just the opposite Sexuality and spirituality Carr contends are intricately interwoven when one is impoverished the other is warped Gather God's People Brian Croft,Jason Adkins,2015-01-06 God is spirit and his worshippers must worship in spirit and in truth John 4 24 The Bible tells us that we are to worship the Lord that we were created for this purpose But what is true worship What does the Bible teach about the right and the wrong ways to worship God In this book pastors Brian Croft and Jason Adkins unpack a biblical theology of worship discuss the practical matters of planning a worship service and offer suggestions and insights on the best way to lead a worship service that honors the Lord The Practical Shepherding series of guides provides pastors and ministry leaders with practical help to do the work of pastoral ministry in a local church In Gather God s People you will learn how to apply biblical doctrine and spirituality to the practice of Christian worship Sing Loud, Die Happy Jim Thompson,2022-08-11 Singing is one of the most repeated commands in Holy Scripture It s right up there with believe and do not fear But commands like these can feel vaguely spiritual intangible or esoteric You might not know if you re doing them right Not so with singing You just open your mouth and make it happen And when we do we often get the sense that God is up to something that he has designed singing to change us But how How does singing do its transformative work Why has God hard wired singing with such power What does Scripture teach us about the gift of song What did the songs of Scripture feel like and sound like Why does singing awaken something so visceral and emotional within us And what are the results of being changed by the power of song Behind all of these questions lies a creative songful God He delights in singing He extends to us a melodic mission He invites us into intimacy with himself and with his people and singing is more essential to the journey than we have yet to believe
