The A to Z of African American Theater Anthony D. Hill, Douglas Q. Barnett, 2009-09-02 African American Theater is a vibrant and unique entity, enriched by ancient Egyptian rituals, West African folklore, and European theatrical practices. A continuum of African folk traditions, it combines storytelling, mythology, rituals, music, song, and dance with ancestor worship from ancient times to the present. It afforded black artists a cultural gold mine to celebrate what it was like to be an African American in The New World. The A to Z of African American Theater celebrates nearly 200 years of black theater in the United States, identifying representative African American theater-producing organizations and chronicling their contributions to the field from its birth in 1816 to the present. This is done through a chronology, an introductory essay, a bibliography, and over 500 cross-referenced dictionary entries on actors, directors, playwrights, plays, theater-producing organizations, themes, locations, and theater movements and awards. God Bless America Kathleen E.R. After Pearl Harbor Tin Pan Alley songwriters rushed to write the Great American War Song an Over There for World War II The most popular songs however continued to be romantic ballads escapist tunes or novelty songs To remedy the situation the federal government created the National Wartime Music Committee an advisory group of the Office of War Information OWI which outlined proper war songs along with tips on how and what to write The music business also formed its own Music War Committee to promote war songs Neither group succeeded The OWI hoped that Tin Pan Alley could be converted from manufacturing love songs to manufacturing war songs just as automobile plants had retooled to assemble planes and tanks But the OWI failed to comprehend the large extent by which the war effort would be defined by advertisers and merchandisers Selling merchandise was the first priority of Tin Pan Alley and the OWI never swayed them from this course Kathleen E R Smith concludes the government s fears of faltering morale did not materialize Americans did not need such war songs as Goodbye Mama I m Off To Yokohama There Are No Wings On a Foxhole or even The Sun Will Soon Be Setting On The Land Of The Rising Sun to convince them to support the war The crusade for a proper war song was misguided from the beginning and the music business then and now continues to make huge profits selling love not war songs

Ben Hecht's Theatre of Jewish Protest Garrett Eisler, 2025-01-14 Ben Hecht is most remembered as a famous Hollywood screenwriter and Broadway playwright but only recently has his extensive Jewish activism during the Holocaust and its aftermath received scholarly attention Unlike other more expansive Hecht biographies this book focuses in depth on his Jewish political theatre drawing on extensive archival research of four dramas We Will Never Die 1943 A Jewish Fairy Tale 1944 A Flag Is Born 1946 and The Terrorist 1947 Garrett Eisler's readings of these little known and out of print texts reclaim them as pivotal to the history of Jewish American drama being among the first works of U S theatre to address the Holocaust The full texts of all four works are republished here for the first time along with production details and full performance histories Hecht introduced a new heroic Jewish identity to the American stage one that challenged popular stereotypes of villainy or weakness This powerful and still controversial body of work stands as a striking testament to the power of theatre to rise to the moment The book also features a supporting cast of famous collaborators on these projects including Paul Muni Edward G Robinson John Garfield Moss Hart Kurt Weill and a young Marlon Brando In their use of the stage to aggressively engage with history as it was happening the story of Hecht and his colleagues is a compelling case of artists who made a difference
