winning and surviving that harrowing conflict Both men came to power during World War II reached their professional peaks during the Cold War s most frightening moments and fought epic political battles that spanned decades Yet despite their very different views Paul Nitze and George Kennan dined together attended the weddings of each other s children and remained good friends all their lives In this masterly double biography Nicholas Thompson brings Nitze and Kennan to vivid life Nitze the hawk was a consummate insider who believed that the best way to avoid a nuclear clash was to prepare to win one More than any other American he was responsible for the arms race Kennan the dove was a diplomat turned academic whose famous X article persuasively argued that we should contain the Soviet Union while waiting for it to collapse from within For forty years he exercised more influence on foreign affairs than any other private citizen As he weaves a fascinating narrative that follows these two rivals and friends from the beginning of the Cold War to its end Thompson accomplishes something remarkable he tells the story of our nation during the most dangerous half century in history China'S Military Intervention in Korea: Dr. David Tsui,2015-03-12 This study examines how and why Chinas military intervention in the Korean War came into existence within the time span from May 1949 to July 1951 China was involved in the war preparations much earlier and deeper than was previously known Beijings preconditions to enter the war boiled down to three 1 its full control of China 2 foreign enemy forces invasion of North Korea and 3 Moscows logistic and air support Beijing had incorrectly calculated that Washington would dispatch only Japanese field forces to Korea which is the very reason underlying its inadequate though early preparations for the war while it had correctly calculated that Washington would not invade China proper via Korea before it entered the war Expecting an enemy troops landing at Inchon followed by their invasion of North Korea Beijing planned to ambush them in northern North Korea It therefore failed to dispatch a symbolic force into Korea to give credibility to diplomatic deterrence against Washingtons possible invasion of North Korea China developed ten prime interventionist goals as follows 1 to save North Korea 2 to dispel Stalins suspicions and to pay Maos political debt owed to Stalin in 1941 and 1942 3 to have the PLA experienced in modern warfare 4 to have the PLA modernized with Soviet weaponry 5 to have its economy revitalized with overall Soviet assistance 6 to enter the United Nations 7 to exchange South Korean territories for an American withdrawal from Taiwan 8 to have Nationalist forces in Taiwan 9 to defuse an American retaliatory or nuclear attack upon China proper and 10 to have North Korea and South Korea almost return to the status quo ante bellum It was Maos de facto dependence upon rather than his alleged independence from Stalin that had made him rise to power in 1949 This Soviet reign turned out to be considerably more decisive than the American threat in driving China into the war in 1950 Sea History ,2002 US diplomacy and the Good Friday Agreement in post-conflict Northern Ireland Richard Hargy,2025-06-03 Richard Haass and Mitchell Reiss as autonomous diplomats in the George W Bush State Department were able to alter US intervention in Northern Ireland and play critical roles in the post 1998 peace process Their contributions have not been fully appreciated or understood The restoration of Northern Ireland's power sharing government in 2007 was made possible by State Department led intervention in the peace process There are few references to Northern Ireland in work examining the foreign policy legacy of the George W Bush presidency Moreover the ability to control US foreign policy towards the region brought one of George W Bush's Northern Ireland special envoys into direct diplomatic conflict with the most senior actors inside the British government This book will uncover the extent of this fall out and provide original accounts on how diplomatic relations between these old allies became so fraught Air Force combat wings : lineage and honors histories 1947-1977 Charles A.
