ÑE'ÊRYRU OÎVA PO ÑE'ÊME PETER TASE,2011-01-03 At first glance one might say Wow what a disparate collection of languages of what value could this dictionary be Well of course the answer is it is of value to all those who speak any of those languages individually or any group of them In addition it represents for the reader or student or professional or any lover of language and culture the opportunity to see each of the cultures represented here through prism of that fundamental element upon which they rely and survive language As such Peter Tase has taken another step in furthering the communication and mutual understanding so desperately needed in the world today for which I am grateful and pleased to be able to support Michael Eschleman

Ways of Structure Building Myriam Uribe-Etxebarria,Vidal Valmala,2012-06-07 This volume addresses some of the most important approaches to the following key questions in contemporary generative syntactic theory What are the operations available for syntactic structure building in natural languages What are the triggers behind them and Which constraints are involved in the operations Internationally recognised scholars and young researchers propose new answers on the basis of detailed discussions of a wide range of phenomena Gapping Right Node Raising Comparative Deletion Across The Board movement Tough constructions Nominalizations Scope interactions Wh movement A movement Case and Agreement relations among others Their discussions draw on evidence from a rich variety of languages including Brazilian Portuguese Bulgarian Croatian English German Icelandic Japanese Spanish Vata and Vietnamese The proposals presented illustrate the shift in the locus of the explanation of linguistic phenomena that characterizes contemporary linguistic theory a shift in many cases from a model which relies on properties of systems external to narrow syntax such as the Lexicon or the Phonetic Form component to one which relies on properties of the structure building mechanisms themselves The volume will interest researchers and students of theoretical linguistics from advanced undergraduate and above

Madera, Arthur Natella, 2006-03 Law Enforcement Policing Security Watching the Cops Marcus K. Harmes, Barbara Harmes, Meredith A. Harmes, 2023-10-10 Globally police officers are the object of unprecedented visual scrutiny The use of mobile phones CCTV and personal body cams means that police are not only being filmed on the job but are also filming themselves In popular culture police have featured heavily on the big screen since the era of silent shorts and on television since the 1930s Their fictional portrayals today take on added significance in light of social unrest surrounding cases of police brutality and discrimination These essays explore 21st century portrayals of police on film and television Chapters often emphasize the Black Lives Matter movement and consider the tone quality appropriateness and intention of film and television featuring police activity Extensively covered works include Mindhunter Brooklyn Nine Nine Cops Criminal Minds and RoboCop and among the major topics addressed are policing communities hunting serial killers police animals and police in historic settings ranging from the 19th century through the present day and into science fiction futures

The Supernatural Sublime Raúl Rodríguez-Hernández, Claudia Schaefer, 2019-07-01 The Supernatural Sublime explores the long neglected element of the supernatural in films from Spain and Mexico by focusing on the social and cultural contexts of their production and reception their adaptations of codes and conventions for characters and plot and their use of cinematic techniques to create the experience of emotion without explanation Deploying the overarching concepts of the supernatural and the sublime Raúl Rodríguez Hernández and Claudia Schaefer detail the dovetailing of the unnatural and the experience of limitlessness associated with the sublime The Supernatural Sublime embeds the films in the social histories of twentieth and twenty first century Mexico and Spain both of which made a forced leap into modernity after historical periods founded on official ideologies and circumscribed visions of the nation Evoking Kant's definition of the experience of the sublime Rodríguez Hernández and Schaefer concentrate on the unrepresentable and the contradictory that oppose purported universal truths and instead offer up illusion deception and imagination through cinema itself a type of illusion writing with light

Experimental Approaches to the Acquisition of Information Structure Tania L. Leal, Bradley Hoot, Stavros Skopeteas, Joseph V. Casillas, Oksana Laleko, 2025-08-19 Human languages constrain the form utterances can take with constraints on grammaticality being but one example Beyond grammaticality utterances can vary in terms of their infelicity depending on how constituents relate to the surrounding discourse context speakers communicative needs and speakers assessment of the hearers beliefs The study of information structure explores how speakers package their utterances into blocks with varying informational values formalizing these units with notions like focus background or topic These categories among others have been the subject of substantial interest and debate in linguistics generating both theoretical models and experimental studies bearing on how information structure is represented and interpreted in the minds of speakers and how particular information structural categories are encoded in the grammar However the study of how information structure is acquired is still fledgling with uneven coverage across populations and languages Similarly the wide cross linguistic variation in the use of syntactic prosodic and morphological means of its expression has been a major stumbling block in the development of a solid methodological foundation for experimental investigations As things stand the field is ripe for contributions from more varied approaches and drawing on linguistic data from under represented languages and populations
