Soul Of Nowhere:

Soul of Nowhere Craig Childs, 2002 In Soul of Nowhere Craig Childs answers the call of fierce places the more desolate the landscape the more passionately he is drawn to it Childs tracks a broad territory the Sierra Madre Mountains the canyons of Utah the White Mountain Apache Reservation a deserted island in the Sea of Cortez In his extraordinary nomadic treks the author finds the land animated and himself enlivened Childs's obvious love for seemingly inhospitable places redeems them for armchair travelers and outdoor adventurers alike Black and white photographs and pen and ink drawings by the author are included Childs is a poet at heart San Francisco Chronicle

Just around Midnight Jack Hamilton, 2016-09-26 When Jimi Hendrix died the idea of a black man playing lead guitar in a rock band seemed exotic Yet ten years earlier Chuck Berry had stood among the most influential rock and roll performers Why did rock and roll become white Jack Hamilton challenges the racial categories that distort standard histories of rock music and the 60s revolution

Of God and Man M. C. Steenberg, 2009-01-01 Scholarship in early Christianity has long focused on themes of theological doctrine on the one hand and anthropology on the other Doctrinal study has generally concentrated on the rise of Trinitarian language and Christological questions while anthropological studies explore early perceptions of human nature sin and redemption This has produced standard chronologies of doctrine dividing early Christian history into distinct if interrelated periods of history in the development of these views Building on current scholarship this volume reassesses such an approach to early patristic study through a sustained investigation of anthropology and theology as a single project in the fathers Taking Irenaeus of Lyons Tertullian of Carthage Cyril of Jerusalem and Athanasius of Alexandria as chief examples of the period it explores how concentration on the human provides the context and lens through which doctrinal questions are articulated Assessing theology as anthropology as the approach to doctrines of God through understandings of the human creative insight is gleaned into refined developments of trinitarian thought far earlier than Nicaea and advanced reflections on the divinity of the Holy Spirit long before Constantinople The nature of humanity as in the image of God takes on a fresh potency when it is approached not only as a window on the human but the means by which the human reveals the nature of God , Bodies of Thought Ann Thomson, 2008-07-03 Examining the development of a secular purely material conception of human beings in the early Enlightenment Bodies of Thought provides a fresh perspective on the intellectual culture of this period and challenges certain influential interpretations of irreligious thought and the Radical Enlightenment Beginning with the debate on the soul in England in which political and religious concerns were intertwined and ending with the eruption of materialism onto the public stage in mid eighteenth century France Ann Thomson looks at attempts to explain how the material brain thinks without the need for an immaterial and immortal soul She shows how this current of thinking fed into the later eighteenth century Natural History of Man the earlier roots of which have been overlooked by many scholars Although much attention has been paid to the atheistic French materialists their link to the preceding period has been studied only partially and the current interest in what is called the Radical Enlightenment has served to obscure rather than enlighten this history By bringing out the importance of both Protestant theological debates and medical thinking in England and by following the different debates on the soul in Holland and France this book shows that attempts to find a single coherent strand of radical irreligious thought running through the early Enlightenment coming to fruition in the second half of the eighteenth century ignore the multiple channels which composed Enlightenment thinking Hell No S. L. Miller,2021-08-24 If we believe the Bible is the inerrant divinely inspired word of God from Genesis to Revelation what is said within its pages about God and his unchangeable character must be consistent and never contradictory Furthermore in order to love God with all our heart believing him to be a just merciful and loving God what we believe from the Scriptures must adhere to the three Cs Context Consistency and Character For centuries people have formulated doctrine by taking passages out of context They have made conclusions about God s character in an inconsistent fashion and often in ways that malign our righteous and holy Creator When Jesus came to earth he did not form a new religion he was a Jew and knew that God had given the sacred pronouncements of truth to the nation of Israel What he taught about hell death resurrection and judgment is entirely consistent with what God taught his people through the Mosaic Law the prophets and the psalms In Hell No The Surprising Truths the Bible Teaches about Death Resurrection and Judgment you will see that the Bible is clear humans never have and never will go to heaven they are not inherently immortal God will never torture souls in a hellfire and all those who died and have paid the price for their sin death will be resurrected on earth during the judgment period with a clean slate and an opportunity to truly know God as they learn war no more under Christ s millennial reign Hell No is a serious deep dive into Scripture but also a conversational foray into truth written by a layperson for laypeople serious about searching the deep things of God to uncover the Bible s truths in order to better know and love their Creator Psychology's Challenge to Christianity Cecil Van Meter Crabb,1923 The Beatles , Lucretius on the Nature of Things Charles Frederick Johnson,2023-05-12 Reprint of the original first published in 1872 The publishing house Anatiposi publishes historical books as reprints Due to their age these books may have missing pages or inferior quality Our aim is to preserve these books and make them available to the public so that they do not get lost A Common Sense View of King David and His Times H. H. Mason,1873 Dreaming, Healing and Imaginative Arts Practice Kathleen Connellan,2019-03-27 In Dreaming Healing and Imaginative Arts Practice Kathleen Anne Connellan brings dream theory together with art practice and art psychotherapy to demonstrate how releasing the imagination can open up processes of healing In this interdisciplinary and richly innovative book Connellan focuses on nocturnal dreams day dreams memory and reverie and she explores how to access depict and use these dream images to discover personal healing Unlike other dream journals Connellan encourages visual recording and personal experimentation with a variety of materials and modalities regardless of artistic ability Each chapter is divided into a theoretical and practical half where the theoretical section addresses the foundations of dream theory and philosophy and the practical section offers step by step exercises that lead you to the creation of something restorative Connellan covers a theme in each chapter which helps merge the unconscious with the conscious the nature of dreaming and the constitution of the psyche the archetype and our shadow selves belonging moving pain and pleasure and all the senses in remembering Dreaming Healing and Imaginative Arts Practice is a unique blend of scholarly research beautiful illustration and hands on practicality that allows the reader to interpret their dreams for self expression and self knowledge This work will be of great interest to those studying post graduate psychology social work art and arts therapy and an essential resource for art therapists creative therapists alternative psychotherapists and social workers in practice and in training
