Reckoning Magda Szubanski, 2015-09-23 Winner Book of the Year and Biography of the Year Australian Book Industry Awards 2016 Heartbreaking joyous traumatic intimate and revelatory Reckoning is the book where Magda Szubanski one of Australia's most beloved performers tells her story In this extraordinary memoir Magda describes her journey of self discovery from a suburban childhood haunted by the demons of her father's espionage activities in wartime Poland and by her secret awareness of her sexuality to the complex dramas of adulthood and her need to find out the truth about herself and her family With courage and compassion she addresses her own frailties and fears and asks the big questions about life about the shadows we inherit and the gifts we pass on Honest poignant utterly captivating Reckoning announces the arrival of a fearless writer and natural storyteller It will touch the lives of its readers Magda Szubanski is one of Australia's best known and most loved performers. She began her career in university revues then appeared in a number of sketch comedy shows before creating the iconic character of Sharon Strzelecki in ABC TV's Kath and Kim. She has also acted in films Babe, Babe Pig in the City, Happy Feet, The Golden Compass and stage shows. Reckoning is her first book. A brave and tender book about everything that matters most in life. Cate Blanchett. This is a remarkable memoir that weaves the tragedy of twentieth century history into a personal narrative of coming to terms with family and self and manages to honour both stories. The writing is assured and controlled, the storytelling expert and thoughtful, the language eloquent and moving. The writing, the story, the voice, all of it is beautiful. Christos Tsiolkas. A memoir that will dazzle every kind of reader. Reckoning is a riveting, overwhelmingly poignant autobiography by a woman of genius. It is a book about how someone might live with the idea of killing the thing they love. It is a story of love and death and redemption and a daughter's love for her father. It is an extraordinary hymn to the tragic heroism at the heart of ordinary life and the soaring moral scrutiny of womankind. Every library should have it, every school should teach it. Weekend Australian. This is documentary writing of the highest order and Szubanski has given life to an incredible war story. This tale of war and suburbia, sexuality and comedy is likely to be the most popular Australian book of the year. Age. Reckoning is a beautiful and moving story of a serious, thoughtful and complex person. ABC Radio National. Books and Arts Best Books 2015. Magda Szubanski's brave, compassionate and hilarious Reckoning may be some sort of masterpiece of the form. Australian Best Books 2015. This memoir uncovers long held secrets with disarming candour. Not a celebrity exposé as much as a family history. Reckoning is moving and compassionate. That Szubanski can act is a given fact, that she can also write is revelatory. Best Books of 2016. Sydney Morning Herald. Magda Szubanski's memoir Reckoning appealed to the genre loving reader in me. It felt as if I was watching hundreds of movies: wartime espionage, the migrant's journey, the coming of age, school saga, the uni student's journey at the height of 1970s feminism and more. It was epic but so uniquely Australian and despite our different upbringings it felt personal. As if it was written specifically for that younger me who took forever to feel comfortable in her own skin so she could take on the world. Melina Marchetta. Best Books of 2016. Guardian. From the Gutter to the Grave. G.C. Deuce, 2010-10-11. From the Gutter to the Grave is an action filled urban tale that will for sure keep readers' minds in suspense and fingers anxiously ready to flip the next page. With realistic street dialogue such as that used in favorite successful urban novels like The Coldest Winter Ever by Sister Souljah and Be More Careful by Shannon Holmes, this awesome tale takes one on a wild and vivid journey to a place that other authors seldom lead readers through: the real ghetto. Written with specificity of ethnic characterization, the general readers of this type of novel would in all probability be that of an African American or Latino audience but with a plot so alluring and dramatized the heading multicultural could in fact be used when categorizing FTGTG. The author G.C. Deuce establishes and introduces the main character as Terrance Brown, whom throughout the narrative is referred to by the moniker Trech, a 19 year old man.

of African American and Puerto Rican descent who like many his age finds himself encountering several controversial and combative disputes attributed from living within an impoverished violent drug infested community and dysfunctional household Being raised up in an unbalanced home life consisting of prostitution drug abuse imprisonment and other immoral standards Trech not only learned to survive but also took heed while facing day to day grueling situations beginning at his residence Considering all the disadvantages he coped well and harnessed the skill of maintaining and compensating for any given circumstance that would arise and with astute planning when necessary to continue surviving and protecting his loved ones With one brother in the grave and another incarcerated Trech finds himself trapped within the same environment which played a major part in the destruction of his family He gradually takes on the roll of savior as he links up with three of his closest blood cousins whom all just like him sadly suffer from the same plights associated with slum living Showing great leadership potential Trech devises a plan to save his family as well as himself from the struggles suffocating grip With help from his faithful girlfriend and cousins except the betrayer they clad up in police swat gear with ammunitions and attempt to pull off the lick of a lifetime only to in the end have their big dreams turn into a horrific nightmare After the loss of one of his cousins Trech along with his remaining family succeed in locking down their citys drug game thats until the jealousy of a long forgotten relative causes him to fall deeper into the violent side of the game Trech finds himself once again playing the role of redeemer but this time its his beloved girlfriend he must rescue from the envious haters dwelling in the streets of the hood The climax of the story illustrates Trech and close acquaintances rescuing his girl from a murderous back stabbing cousin bringing the encounter to what they assumed was definitely the end After which boarding a peaceful one way flight to California with his girl and her young sister Trech finally believes he has truly been set free from the game but little does he know that the next five years of his life would be closely monitored by a man that hed watched die from a fatal gunshot California soon becomes introduced to a new breed of gangsters when Trechs cousin resurfaces and takes command of one of Calis most infamous gangs while keeping a close eye on his detested relative Trech soon finds himself being blindly haunted by visions of the past From the Gutter to the Grave fits perfectly in the category of other favorite writings like Dutch by Terry Woods and A Hustlers Wife by Nikki Turner This intriguing story consists of three different parts each exposing the reader to a more diverse setting of events with a variety of character
