The Soul of the Salesman Guy Oakes,1990 The Soul of the Salesman Guy Oakes,Jack T Kvernland Professor of Philosophy and Social Policy Guy Oakes,1990-06 No Marketing Blurb The Art of the Sale Philip Delves Broughton,2013-03-26 From the author of Ahead of the Curve a revelatory look at successful selling and how it can impact everything we do The first book of its kind The Art of the Sale is the result of a pilgrimage to learn the secrets of the world's foremost sales gurus Bestselling author Philip Delves Broughton tracked down anyone who could help him understand what it took to achieve greatness in sales from technology billionaires to the most successful saleswoman in Japan to a cannily observant rug merchant in Morocco The wisdom and experience Broughton acquired revealed in this outstanding book demonstrates as never before the complex alchemy of effective selling and the power it has to overcome challenges we face every day Christian Mind in the Emerging World Peter Tze Ming Ng,Wing Tai Leung,Vaughan King Tong Mak,2018-10-31 In response to challenges from the emerging world this book brings together essays that discuss and exemplify various related approaches to academic faith integration and explore how Christian faith should underpin scaffold and frame our understanding of academic disciplines leading to practical implications for work or action in modern society and culture Written by Christian scholars and practitioners from diverse backgrounds including the USA the UK Australia China Hong Kong South Korea and the Philippines the contributions here all contribute a global perspective while addressing some specific issue or case in the context of Asia They represent ingenious endeavors that illustrate the workings of a faith integrated approach in domains as wide as higher education business science psychology and counseling politics environment media social services leadership research and technology This volume will inform and inspire the reader into cross cultural and inter disciplinary studies particularly of religion education culture society and worldview An Anthropology of Services Jeanette Blomberg,Chuck Darrah,2022-06-01 This book explores the possibility for an anthropology of services and outlines a practice approach to designing services The reader is taken on a journey that Blomberg and Darrah have been on for the better part of a decade from their respective positions helping to establish a services research group within a large global enterprise and an applied anthropology master's program at a Silicon Valley university They delve into the world of services to understand both how services are being conceptualized today and the possible benefits that might result from taking an anthropological view on services and their design The authors argue that the anthropological gaze can be useful precisely because it combines attention to details of everyday life with consideration of the larger milieu in which those details make sense Furthermore it asks us to reflect upon and assess our own perspectives on that which we hope to understand and change Central to their exploration is the question of how to conceptualize and engage with the world of services given their heterogeneity the increasing global importance of the service economy and the possibilities introduced for an engaged scholarship on service design While discourse on services and service design can imply something distinctively new the authors point to parallels with what is known about how humans have engaged with each other and the material world over millennia Establishing the ubiquity of services as a starting point the authors go on to consider the limits of design when the boundaries and connections between what can be designed and what can only be performed are complex and deeply mediated In this regard the authors outline a practice approach to designing that acknowledges that designing involves participating in a social context that design and use occur in concert that people populate a world that has been largely built by and with others and that formal models of services are impoverished representations of human performance An Anthropology of Services draws attention to the conceptual and methodological messiness of service worlds while providing the reader with strategies for intervening in these worlds for human betterment as complex and challenging as that may be Table of Contents Preface Acknowledgments Getting Started From Services to Service Worlds The Human Condition Service Concepts Design and its Limits Service Design An anthropology of Services References Author Biographies

A Psychological Typology of Successful Entrepreneurs John Miner, 1997-11-20 Can psychological factors effectively predict entrepreneurial performance Drawing upon studies of over 700 entrepreneurial subjects in 10 different samples Miner settles the issue yes they can He identifies four kinds of people who are capable of achieving entrepreneurial success but notes that to actually achieve success they must follow a career route that fits their personalities Miner's new book is thus a detailed scholarly report on an extensive 20 year research program that focuses on psychological predictors of entrepreneurial activity and success and a carefully devised solidly grounded theory to explain why his observations are true He also discusses the implications for personal career development entrepreneur selection entrepreneurship development programs the assessment of entrepreneurial talent and related topics crucial not only to entrepreneurs and would be entrepreneurs themselves but to their various stakeholders including those with investments in them Part I of the book reviews the typologies used in the entrepreneurship literature and the various opinions on the value of psychological factors in predicting entrepreneurial success It then sets forth the four way psychological typology underpinning Miner's research and the various theoretical extensions of that typology This section of the book closes with a chapter presenting case examples of the various types and the ways they can achieve or fail to achieve success Part II deals with measurement and design considerations and with the two primary research tests of the theory a seven year predictive study of established entrepreneurs and a six year predictive study of graduate business students enrolled in entrepreneurship classes Part III reports on three studies dealing with women entrepreneurs in contrast to men It also describes an extensive six year predictive study of high technology entrepreneurs and international research dealing with entrepreneurs in Italy Israel Sweden and post communist Poland Part IV considers ways the typology may be used to create entrepreneurship development programs and describes a comprehensive regional development effort extending over seven years Particular attention is given to methods of assessing entrepreneurial talent in existing as well as in prospective entrepreneurs not only

Churchill, Gerald Levy, 2011-06-15 The Enigmatic Academy is a provocative look at the purpose and practice of education in America Authors Christian Churchill and Gerald Levy use three case studies a liberal arts college a boarding school and a Job Corps center to illustrate how class bureaucratic and secular religious dimensions of education prepare youth for participation in American foreign and domestic policy at all levels The authors describe how schools contribute to the formation of a bureaucratic character how middle and upper class students are trained for leadership positions in corporations government and the military and how the education of lower class students often serves more powerful classes and institutions Exploring how youth and their educators encounter the complexities of ideology and bureaucracy in school The Enigmatic Academy deepens our understanding of the flawed redemptive relationship between education and society in the United States Paradoxically these three studied schools all prepare students to participate in a society whose values they oppose Pension fund governance Michael Orszag, John Evans, John Piggott, 2008 This collection of essays on a rapidly developing topic is a valuable addition to the field and the editors must be congratulated on beginning to bring the area to the attention of thinkers and government not necessarily the same thing who are charged with dealing with the challenge of controlling private pension provision Robin Ellison Pensions The Channeling Zone Michael Fobes Brown, 1997 Neither a debunker nor an advocate Michael Brown examines why so many intelligent Americans have turned to channeling as a source of spiritual guidance and how this links with older and more esoteric native religions A Companion to Business Ethics Robert E. Frederick, 2008-04-15 In a series of articles specifically commissioned for this volume some of today's most distinguished business ethicists survey the main areas of interest and concern in the field of business ethics Sections of the book cover topics such as the often easy relation between business ethics and capitalism the link between business ethics and ethical theory how ethics applies to specific problems in the business world the connection between business ethics and related academic disciplines and the practice of business ethics in modern corporations Includes extensive accessible discussion of all of the main areas of interest and debate in business ethics Features all original contributions by distinguished authors in business ethics Includes an annotated table of contents bibliographies of the relevant literature and a list of internet sources of material on business ethics Perfect comprehensive book for use in business ethics courses As One with Authority Jackson W. Carroll, 1991-01-01 Teachers of theology seminary students and pastors will benefit from an encounter with this book with respect to what it does say and with respect to the challenge it poses for further imaginative theological reflection leadership Selling Hope, Selling Risk Donald C. Langevoort, 2016-05-06 We have doubts today about how well that task of investor protection is being performed This book represents the first sustained effort to link the key initiatives of securities regulation with our burgeoning awareness in the social sciences of how people and organizations really behave in a financial world that is at once increasingly sophisticated yet deeply human and incurably flawed Max Weber Alan Sica, 2017-09-08 The most profound and enduring social theorist of sociology's classical period Max Weber speaks as cogently to concerns of the new century as he did to those of the past In Max Weber and the New Century Alan Sica demonstrated Weber's preeminent position and lasting vitality within social theory by applying his ideas to a broad range of topics of contemporary concern Max Weber A Comprehensive Bibliography is a companion volume that offers some 4 600 bibliographic listings of work on Weber making it the most complete guide to the literature in English and a testament to the continued vitality of Weber's thought Sica's work supersedes all previous bibliographical efforts covering the Weber literature both in the quantity and accuracy of its references and the clarity and convenience of its format In order to demonstrate the enormous variety of Weberiana in English Sica has adopted a liberal criterion for inclusion rather than a critical one choosing to mix the best with what may be more routine work Following a preface in which previous bibliographies and bibliographic problems are discussed the volume opens with a series of five specialized bibliographies The first lists Weber's works in English translation The second lists reviews of Weber's major works including those translated into English while the third covers reviews of recent books and other work on Weber The fourth section contains a selection of dissertations and theses relating to Weber or his ideas The fifth includes primary and secondary sources treating Weber on rationality and rationalization processes The last and largest section offers a comprehensive Weber bibliography of works in English This large scale endeavor attempts to identify with accuracy and completeness the entire universe of Weber scholarship in English It will be an essential scholarly tool for sociologists historians economists and students of cultural and intellectual history Marketing Death Cheris Shun-ching Chan, 2012-03-22 How do companies sell life insurance in a country where death is a taboo subject In Marketing Death Cheris S C Chan explores both how and why the life insurance industry has managed to emerge in China a country with an entrenched cultural stigma against the very topic of death Drawing on extensive ethnographic fieldwork and engaging with current scholarship Chan explores the processes and micro politics by which foreign and domestic companies have negotiated local cultural resistance and created a market in spite of it In doing so she asks larger questions about how different societies view and value life and death what is meant by cultural values how they interact with a set of fragmented cultural tools to compellingly organize individuals' practical daily lives and how the market is influenced by them Chan tells a story not just of the emergence of the Chinese life insurance industry but of the dynamic relationships between culture and markets local norms and foreign influences in one of the world's fastest growing economies Marketing Death is the first book to offer a sociological analysis of the emergence of a life insurance market outside of a European or American context Through in depth study of the expansion of an industry whose unique product gambling on one's own sudden death has always met with a measure of resistance but never more so than in China Chan provides a new lens for understanding how modern capitalist enterprises are diffused to regions with disparate cultural
