Sound Of Blue:

What's That Sound, Blue? Susan Hood, 2002 Young readers can lift the big flaps in this jumbo board book to help Blue find out what's making sounds. Readers can press the duck to make it squeak, turn the wheel to make it click and more in this oversized interactive board book that is sure to keep little hands busy. Full color illustrations. Blue Ecocriticism and the Oceanic Imperative Sidney I. Dobrin, 2021-03-28 This book initiates a conversation about blue ecocriticism, critical ethical, cultural, and political positions that emerge from oceanic or aquatic frames of mind rather than traditional land-based approaches. Ecocriticism has rapidly become not only a disciplinary legitimate critical form but also one of the most dynamic active criticisms to emerge in recent times. However, even in its institutional success, ecocriticism has exemplified an ocean deficit. That is, ecocriticism has thus far primarily been a land-based criticism stranded on a liquid planet. Blue Ecocriticism and the Oceanic Imperative contributes to efforts to overcome ecocriticism's ocean deficit. The chapters explore a vast archive of oceanic literature, visual art, television, and film, games, theory, and criticism. By examining the relationships between these representations of ocean and cultural imaginaries, Blue Ecocriticism works to unmoor ecocriticism from its land-based anchors. This book aims to simultaneously advance blue ecocriticism as an intellectual pursuit within the environmental humanities and to advocate for ocean conservation as derivative of that pursuit. Ex-Cinema Akira Lippit, 2012-09-30 What does it mean for film and video to be experimental? In this collection of essays framed by the concept ex meaning from outside and no longer. Akira Mizuta Lippit explores the aesthetic, technical, and theoretical reverberations of avant-garde film and video. Ex-Cinema is a sustained reflection on the ways in which experimental media artists move outside the conventions of mainstream cinema and initiate a dialogue on the meaning of cinema itself. Out of the Blue Brian Bisesi, 2024-03-11 Out of the Blue Life on the Road with Muddy Waters begins with a moment lifted from a young musician's dreams. Brian Bisesi, a guitarist barely out of his teens, is invited on stage to fill in for a missing member of the band backing blues legend Muddy Waters. This life-changing quirk of fate opens the door into a world of challenges and opportunities that Bisesi, an Italian American reared in the comforts of a New York City suburb, can barely imagine. Despite their differences, Bisesi and Waters hit it off, and what might have been a one-night stand turns into a career. From 1978 to 1980, Bisesi works for Waters as his road manager, bean counter, and at times his confidant while often sitting in with the band. Bisesi's years with the band take him to Europe, Japan, Canada, and across the United States as Waters tours and parties with rock gods like Eric Clapton, the Rolling Stones, a Beatle, and the gamut of musicians who came of age with Waters and introduced a younger generation to the blues. In Out of the Blue, Bisesi captures it all: from the pranks and tensions among bluesmen enduring a hard life on the road to observations about Waters's technique, his love of champagne and reefer, his eye for women, and his sometimes acrid views of contemporary music. Bisesi has sharp insights into the ill-conceived management decisions that led to the dissolution of Waters's longest-serving band in June of 1980. This book will rivet, amuse, and occasionally infuriate blues aficionados. It is a raucous and intimate portrait of the blues scene at a pivotal moment in time that fascinates music historians and blues fans alike

Blue Ravens Gerald

Vizenor, 2016-05-10. Two Native American brothers serve as soldiers in World War I in this emotionally wrought, finely crafted historical novel. Karl Helicher. Foreword. Blue Ravens is set at the start of the twentieth century in the days leading up to the Great War in France. It moves from the White Earth Reservation in Minnesota into the bitter and bloody fighting at Chateau Thierry Montbréhain and Bois de Fay. Through this journey, author and poet Gerald Vizenor returns to the cultural themes central to his writing: the power and irony of trickster stories, the privilege of survivance over victimhood, natural reason and resistance After serving in the American Expeditionary Forces two brothers from the Anishinaabe culture return home They eventually leave for a second time to live in Paris where they lead successful and creative lives With a spirited sense of chance totemic connections and the tricky stories of our natural transience in the world Vizenor creates an expression of presence commonly denied Native Americans Blue Ravens is a story of courage in poverty and war a human story of art and literature from a recognized master of the postwar American novel and one of the most original and outspoken Native voices writing today included Music and Modernism, c. 1849-1950 Charlotte de Mille, 2011-01-18 Music and Modernism is a collection of essays which re-evaluates the significant connections between the disciplines of music, fine art and architecture in the period covering the emergence and flowering of modernism c. 1849-1950. Combining established scholars in the field with those at the start of their careers, this book presents an exceptional cross-section of European and American modernism through a series of detailed case studies. Avoiding a simplistic engagement with cross or inter-disciplinarity, the focus of attention centres on themes that became key to modernist artists and critics: association, perception, representation, subjectivity, writing and language. Accordingly, this book re-thinks modernism itself in the light of both the fine arts and music to advocate a multiplicity of modernisms from which it is necessary for scholars to construct their own narratives.

Blue Note Records Richard Cook, 2003 Blue Note Records is arguably the single most recognizable record label in the history of recorded music. To millions of jazz fans around the world, Blue Note is more than a business; more than a back catalogue of extraordinary music; even more than an exciting sound and a distinctive look. It is the heart of jazz. It is Miles Davis, Thelonious Monk, Bud Powell, Sonny Rollins, Horace Silver, Kenny Burrell and the ubiquitous Art Blakey's Jazz Messengers, all making their most significant early recordings under the auspices of the Blue Note genius. Blue Note Records: The Biography chronicles the life of the most famous and influential jazz label of them all. Here is the detailed history of the label from the beginning days in 1939 when two German immigrants, Alfred Lion and Francis Wolff, began recording and releasing the hot jazz that they loved. It's all here from the development to the rise, fall and rebirth. From Sidney Bechet to Norah Jones, Richard Cook examines life behind the scenes and a parallel analysis of all the major records released throughout Blue Note's history.

The pioneering label of jazz's golden age Blue Note Records is still a conspicuous arbiter of style that continues to have influence Richard Cook captures the subtle art of Rudy van Gelder's distinctive oft imitated recording techniques Francis Wolff's invaluable jazz photography and Reid Miles' cool trend setting album designs which together set the standard that became and continues to be the classic symbol of the best in jazz
