Temper Democratic:

Introducing Prophetic Pragmatism Jacob L. Goodson, Brad Elliott Stone, 2019-08-01 Prophetic pragmatism is a gritty philosophical framework that undergirds the intellectual and political work done by those who seek to overcome despair dogmatism and oppression It seeks to unite one's intellectual vocation and one's duty to fight for justice Cognizant of the ways in which political forces affect thought while also requiring political action to not be so sure of itself that it simply replaces one oppressive structure with another prophetic pragmatism requires a critical temper through the mode of Socratic questioning Introducing Prophetic Pragmatism argues that hope lies between critical temper and democratic faith Socratic questioning prophetic witness and tragicomic hope open a space for democratic energies to flourish against the forces of nihilism and poverty Critical temper keeps democratic faith from becoming too idealistic and Pollyannaish and democratic faith keeps critical temper from being pessimistic about the ability to change current realities These twin pillars provide the best and most helpful framework for understanding the nature and purpose of prophetic pragmatism Through their dialogue Jacob L Goodson and Brad Elliott demonstrate why prophetic pragmatism is in the words of Cornel West pragmatism at its best Freemen's Manual, 1853 Mateship and Moneymaking Rory O'Malley, 2013-04-30 Mateship and Money Making Summary of Book A ferocious war erupted in remote outback Australia in 1983 Shearers were on strike Scab shearers had to be protected against invading mobs of unionists In scattered and isolated woolsheds the question was should sheep shearers be allowed to use wide combs Australian merinos had always been shorn with narrow combs Until a recent ruling industrial award expressly forbade wide combs Initiated by the graziers way back in 1926 the rule had become shearers folklore Wide combs were not just wrong but positively evil This was the 1980s but the roots of the problem went back to the 1890s Shearers got paid per hundred sheep not by the hour or the day so the opportunity to get a bigger tally with the wide comb was something to be welcomed one would think Indeed that was certainly the case But fanatical opposing opinion could not easily be overcome It was un-Australian to even think about it But equally it was un-Australian NOT to be allowed a free choice to use whatever equipment did the job best Diametrically opposed points of view were quite irreconcilable The oldest and most powerful trade union in the nation's history stood behind the strike The Australian Workers Union known wide and far by its acronym the AWU had risen in the 1890s Ruthlessly efficient at grass roots organiser God help any shearer trying to occupy a stand without an AWU ticket And God help any greedy upstart questioning AWU wisdom on industrial matters The shearing workforce had always been a rambunctious contrary lot The work was punishingly strenuous as well as highly skilled Infectious group camaraderie governed its cult of mateship This was also prone to impenetrable insider outsider idiosyncrasies There was money to be made for those who could stand the pace but strong tribal loyalties to the union dictated customs and rules in the woolshed Many different types gravitated into shearing At one end were staunch unionists preaching mateship and class solidarity At the other end self-improving moneymakers accumulated funds get started as farmers For the most part the two groups got on or at least tolerated one another Hard core class warriors enjoyed the competitive camaraderie and were not themselves against making money Money makers were not averse to a bit of class solidarity if it bolstered shearing rates of pay They were less tolerant of rules which slowed them down In its foundation years the AWU had been pugnacious and militant Violent strikes in the 1890s did not go well for it Too many members were farmers who scabbed during strikes The arrival of contract shearing further diluted the link between mateship and union solidarity In 1902 moneymaking professional shearers were so exasperated by AWU belligerence towards woolgrowers they formed a rival Machine Shearers Union more friendly to the graziers AWU leaders had to use all their guile and cunning to outwit the upstart MSU The AWU moderated its militancy adopted a policy of opposing strikes and put its faith in the newly established Arbitration Court to fix wages and settle disputes Unfortunately for the AWU factions within its rank and file remained attracted to the mythology of class war against the graziers During World War I the Arbitration Court was very laggard in updating the shearing award and militants had their chance In defiance of the AWU a very successful strike was organised in Queensland This opened the door for a militant faction with communist connections in the interwar period The AWU's firm policy of arbitration not direct action was ridiculed The AWU denigrated them as bogus disrupters and excoriated their point of view but at the same time adopted militant sounding rhetoric The union could not afford to be accused of being on the side of the boss
