The Cultural Revolution Frank Dikötter, 2017-06-06 The concluding volume following Mao's Great Famine and The Tragedy of Liberation in Frank Dikötter's award winning trilogy chronicling the Communist revolution in China After the economic disaster of the Great Leap Forward that claimed tens of millions of lives from 1958-1962 an aging Mao Zedong launched an ambitious scheme to shore up his reputation and eliminate those he viewed as a threat to his legacy The Cultural Revolution's goal was to purge the country of bourgeois capitalistic elements he claimed were threatening genuine communist ideology Young students formed the Red Guards vowing to defend the Chairman to the death but soon rival factions started fighting each other in the streets with semiautomatic weapons in the name of revolutionary purity As the country descended into chaos the military intervened turning China into a garrison state marked by bloody purges that crushed as many as one in fifty people The Cultural Revolution A People's History 1962-1976 draws for the first time on hundreds of previously classified party documents from secret police reports to unexpurgated versions of leadership speeches After the army itself fell victim to the Cultural Revolution ordinary people used the political chaos to resurrect the market and hollow out the party's ideology By showing how economic reform from below was an unintended consequence of a decade of violent purges and entrenched fear The Cultural Revolution casts China's most tumultuous era in a wholly new light China's Sent-Down Generation Helena K. Rene, 2013-03-29 During China's Cultural Revolution Chairman Mao Zedong's rustication program resettled 17 million urban youths known as sent downs to the countryside for manual labor and socialist reeducation This book the most comprehensive study of the program to be published in either English or Chinese to date examines the mechanisms and dynamics of statecraft in China from the rustication program's inception in 1968 to its official termination in 1980 and actual completion in the 1990s Rustication in the ideology of Mao's peasant based revolution formed a critical component of the Cultural Revolution's larger attack on bureaucrats capitalists the intelligentsia and degenerative urban life This book assesses the program's origins development organization implementation performance and public administrative consequences It was the defining experience for many Chinese born between 1949 and 1962 and many of China's contemporary leaders went through the rustication program The author explains the lasting impact of the rustication program on China's contemporary administrative culture for example showing how and why bureaucracy persisted and even grew stronger during the wrenching chaos of the Cultural Revolution She also focuses on the special difficulties female sent downs faced in terms of work pressures to marry local peasants and sexual harassment predation and violence The author's parents were both sent downs and she was able to interview over fifty former sent downs from around the country something never previously accomplished China's Sent Down Generation demonstrates the rustication program's profound long term consequences for China's bureaucracy for the spread of corruption and for the families traumatized by this authoritarian social experiment The book will appeal to academics graduate and undergraduate students in public administration and China studies programs and individuals who are interested in China's Cultural Revolution era Building New China, Colonizing Kokonor

Gregory Rohlf, 2016-03-04 Building New China Colonizing Kokonor Resettlement to Amdo and Qinghai in the 1950s examines rural resettlement to the Sino Tibetan cultural borderlands in the 1950s More than 100 000 eastern Han and Hui Chinese were sent to Qinghai province known in Mongolian as Kokonor and Amdo to Tibetans to plow up new fields in areas that were being incorporated into the Chinese state for the first time The settlers were to bring their skilled labor literacy and modern thinking to backward Qinghai to fully exploit its natural resources of oil natural gas gold and empty lands for the benefit of the industrializing nation The book is a social and political history of resettlement focusing on the people who were moved and the overall impact the program had on the province It is a frontier history but it also narrates a story of state building in modern China that spans the twentieth century and the opening years of the twenty first Encyclopedia of Chinese History Michael Dillon, 2016-12-01 China has become accessible to the west in the last twenty years in a way that was not possible in the previous thirty The number of westerners travelling to China to study for business or for tourism has increased dramatically and there has been a corresponding increase in interest in Chinese culture society and economy and increasing coverage of contemporary China in the media Our understanding of China's history has also been evolving The study of history in the People's Republic of China during the Mao Zedong period was strictly regulated and primary sources were rarely available to westerners or even to most Chinese historians Now that the Chinese archives are open to researchers there is a growing body of academic expertise on history in China that is open to western analysis and historical methods This has in many ways changed the way that Chinese history particularly the modern period is viewed The Encyclopedia of Chinese History covers the entire span of Chinese history from the period known primarily through archaeology to the present day Treating Chinese history in the broadest sense the Encyclopedia includes coverage of the frontier regions of Manchuria Mongolia Xinjiang and Tibet that have played such an important role in the history of China Proper and will also include material on Taiwan and on the Chinese diaspora In A Z format with entries written by experts in the field of Chinese Studies the Encyclopedia will be an invaluable resource for students of Chinese history politics and culture

Aspirational Chinese in Competitive Social Repositionings Jia Gao, 2023-08-08 In the past four or so decades a significant amount of research efforts has been made to examine the rapid and constant social changes in China However most of the literature has focused on either macro or micro level issues and what has not been adequately analysed is how the majority of ordinary people has reacted to and influenced the changes This inadequacy has affected our understanding of Chinese society its dynamics and the changing trends Drawing upon a new perspective of competitive social repositioning and the evidence recorded in numerous recent publications and interview data this book seeks to re examine the ever changing but under researched societal dynamics driving social transformations in China from 1964 when the communist heir narrative was rebranded and utilised to 2000 when Jiang Zemin formulated the Three Represents theory to modify the ideological political thinking of China's ruling elites This analysis focuses on how a high proportion of aspirational citizens have kept repositioning themselves in China's changing distributions of social resources and social structure how their attitudes and behaviours have been shaped over time what characteristics of their choices are at different stages and how their preferences have resulted in the zig zag patterns of China's recent social change
