Tempest Sunshine The Lamplighter:

Tempest and sunshine Mary J. Holmes, Donald A. Koch, 1968      A Mirror for History Marc Egnal, 2024-04-19 In A Mirror for History author Marc Egnal uses novels and art to provide a new understanding of American society. The book argues that the arc of middle class culture reflects the evolution of the American economy from the near subsistence agriculture of the 1750s to the extraordinarily unequal society of the twenty first century. Fiction offers a rich source for this analysis. By delving deep into the souls of characters and their complex worlds, novels shed light on the dreams, hopes, and goals of individuals and reveal the structures that shape character's lives. Additionally, paintings of the time periods expand upon these insights drawn from literature. Egnal's lively exploration of the changing economy, fiction, art, and American values is organized into four expansive periods: the Sentimental Era, Genteel America, Modern Society, and Post Modern America. Within that framework, A Mirror for History looks at topics such as masculinity, childhood, the status of women, the outlook of African Americans, the role of religion, and varying views of capitalism. Readers will be enthralled to find discussions of overlooked novels and paintings as well as discover new approaches to familiar pieces. A Mirror for History examines over one hundred authors and dozens of artists and their works presented here in full color.      The Bookman, 1913

Womanhood in Anglophone Literary Culture Robin Hammerman, 2009-03-26 Taken together, the fourteen essays in this collection contribute to the discourse of social conditions for literary women. The essays examine relevant social, intellectual, and professional questions about the ways in which women writers contributed to conceptions of womanhood in nineteenth and twentieth century Anglophone literary culture. Contributors to this collection describe and examine several nineteenth and twentieth century women writers' responses to patriarchal assumptions about literary merit in genres including poetry and fiction. Womanhood in Anglophone Literary Culture: Nineteenth and Twentieth Century Perspectives will be of special interest to students and faculty of women's studies and literature written in the English language.      To Kiss the Chastening Rod Geoffrey M. Goshgarian, 2019-04-15 Examining ideas about masturbation, female sexuality, the family, and post-Calvinist religion that shaped the readership of popular women's fiction, To Kiss the Chastening Rod shows that passionlessness was the privileged theme of a pervasive discourse which sought to exert social control through the rigorous repression, minute supervision, and covert cultivation of sexuality.      Henry James and the 'Woman Business' Alfred Habegger, 2004-08-26 This is a historical critique of Henry James in relation to nineteenth century feminism and women's fiction. Habegger has brought to light extensive new documentation on James's tangled connections with what was thought and written about women in his time. The emphasis is equally on his life and on his fictions. This is the first book to investigate his father's bizarre lifelong struggle with free love and feminism, a struggle that played a major role in shaping James. The book also shows how seriously he distorted the truth about the cousin Minnie Temple, whose self-assertive image inspired him and how indebted he was to certain American women writers whom he attacked in reviews but whose plots and heroines he appropriated in his own fiction      The Commodity Culture of Victorian England Thomas Richards,1990 This provocative and theoretically sophisticated book reveals how capitalism produced and sustained a culture of its own in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Richards provides a valuable account of the interaction between cultural and business development in Victorian England by focusing on the evolution of advertising Through an examination of five case studies ranging from how advertisers employed images of the Crystal Palace Exhibition of 1851 to their use of images of women just before WWI he argues that the British developed a new type of culture in the mid and late 19th century a new way of thinking and living increasingly based upon the possession of material goods commodities Revising the findings of some earlier scholars Richards shows that cultural forms of consumerism came into being well before the consumer economy did The 50 well reproduced advertising images greatly enhance the value of this study M Blackford Choice      American Women's Fiction, 1790-1870 Barbara A. White,2013-05-07 An annotated bibliography on women who wrote fiction in the US during the period 1790 1870 The first part is an annotated list of sources that discuss women s fiction in the period and women authors born before 1840 who published before 1870 The second part is an alphabetical list of the approximately 325 19th century writers who meet those criteria There are indexes by pseudonym editor and subject The sources provide information not only about the individual authors but also about the history of criticism and literary politics especially women s place in the American literary canon      The Publishers Weekly ,1894      The Vineyard of Liberty, 1787-1863 James MacGregor Burns,2012-04-10 A Pulitzer Prize winner looks at the course of American history from the birth of the Constitution to the dawn of the Civil War The years between 1787 and 1863 witnessed the development of the American Nation its society politics customs culture and most important the development of liberty Burns explores the key events in the republic s early decades as well as the roles of heroes from Washington to Lincoln and of lesser known figures Captivating and insightful Burns s history combines the color and texture of early American life with meticulous scholarship Focusing on the tensions leading up to the Civil War Burns brilliantly shows how Americans became divided over the meaning of Liberty Vineyard of Liberty is a sweeping and engrossing narrative of America s formative years
