Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible and are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions The work of the Russian theorist Mikhail Bakhtin particularly his notions of dialogics and genre has had a substantial impact on contemporary critical practices Until now however little attention has been paid to the possibilities and challenges Bakhtin presents to feminist theory the task taken up in A Dialogue of Voices The original essays in this book combine feminism and Bakhtin in unique ways and by interpreting texts through these two lenses arrive at new theoretical approaches Together these essays point to a new direction for feminist theory that originates in Bakhtin one that would lead to a feminine tre rather than a feminine criture Focusing on feminist theorists such as Hélène Cixous Teresa de Lauretis Julia Kristeva and Monique Wittig in conjunction with Bakhtin's concepts of dialogism heteroglossia and chronotope the authors offer close readings of texts from a wide range of multicultural genres including nature writing sermon composition nineteenth century British women's fiction the contemporary romance novel Irish and French lyric poetry and Latin American film The result is a unique dialogue in which authors of both sexes from several countries and different eras speak against for and with one another in ways that reveal their works anew as well as the critical matrices surrounding them Karen Hohne is an independent scholar and artist living in Moorhead Minnesota Helen Wussow is an assistant professor of English at Memphis State University Harlequin
