Tengleq Kui Serok A Study Of The Temiar:

Tengleq Kui Serok Iskandar Carey ,1961 The Languages and Linguistics of Mainland Southeast Asia Paul Sidwell, Mathias Jenny, 2021-08-23 The handbook will offer a survey of the field of linguistics in the early 21st century for the Southeast Asian Linguistic Area The last half century has seen a great increase in work on language contact work in genetic theoretical and descriptive linguistics and since the 1990s especially documentation of endangered languages The book will provide an account of work in these areas focusing on the achievements of SEAsian linguistics as well as the challenges and unresolved issues and provide a survey of the relevant major publications and other available resources We will address Survey of the languages of the area organized along genetic lines with discussion of relevant political and cultural background issues Theoretical descriptive and typological issues Genetic classification and historical linguistics Areal and contact linguistics Other areas of interest such as sociolinguistics semantics writing systems etc Resources major monographs and monograph series dictionaries journals electronic data bases etc Grammar sketches of languages representative of the genetic and structural diversity of the region From Equality to Inequality Csilla Dallos, 2011-04-09 The egalitarian society once enjoyed by the Lanoh hunter gatherers of Peninsular Malaysia is quickly changing Throughout a year of ethnographic fieldwork among the Lanoh Csilla Dallos studied and interpreted social change in order to better understand the processes leading to inequality and the concurrent development of social complexity within a community From Equality to Inequality provides rich empirical data on the factors within a community that significantly affect the development of inequality including the effects of sedentism integration leadership competition self aggrandizement marginalization and feuding kinship groups In this case study Dallos argues that in order to understand emerging inequality anthropologists and social scientists need to revisit current conceptions of politics in small scale egalitarian societies Offering a new model of developing social inequality that is congruent with the principles of complexity theory From Equality to Inequality is a sterling example of how anthropological practice can further our general understanding of human behaviour

Deixis, Grammar, and Culture Revere Dale Perkins, 1992-01-01 Many linguists have believed that there is no connection between culture and language structures This study reviews some of the literature supporting vocabulary connections hypotheses for other connections and critical views of this type of hypothesis Precisely such a connection is developed employing a functional view of language and grammaticization principles Using a world wide probability sample of forty nine languages an association between culture and the grammatical coding of deictics is tested and statistically found to be corroborated to a very significant extent Suggestions are included on how some of the concepts used and developed in this study might be extended Linguistics in Oceania J. D. Bowen, 2019-05-20 No detailed description available for Linguistics in Oceania Process and Structure in Temiar Social Organization Geoffrey Benjamin, 1987 The Munda Verb Gregory D. S. Anderson, 2011-05-12 The Munda Verb is a unique book on the typology of the verb in the Munda language family and the first of its kind on any language family of the Indian subcontinent The author painstakingly works out nearly all the details of the morphology of the verb in each modern Munda language and offers a description of the typology of the Munda verbal systems both individually and collectively The author uses a large amount of data from modern Munda languages as well as an extensive cross linguistic corpus offering comparisons from genetically unrelated languages such as Fox Amele Kinyarwanda Luyia Takelma Tonkawa Burushaski or Tangut where relevant Points of note include the unusual incorporation system of South Munda Sora and the elaborate and complex system of verb agreement attested in the Kherwarian Munda languages Further the author discusses models for a Proto Munda verbal system and problems in its reconstruction at various points throughout This book is of great interest to specialists working on the Munda languages South Asian linguistics language typology historical linguistics and to scholars of both morphology as well as syntax
