Tennessee Williams's America Ahmed Honeini, 2025-09-11 Tennessee Williams's America is the first full length study of homes families and familial exile in the plays of Tennessee Williams The central argument of this book is that Williams's vision of American life in his plays is predicated upon challenging the traditional idea of the home and family Throughout his plays the patriarchal space of the American home and family is shown to victimize and oppress two of society's most marginalized groups women and queer people in Williams's plays the experiences of one group often mirror and intersect with those of the other From his earliest plays such as Candles to the Sun and Fugitive Kind to the masterpieces of his major phase including Battle of Angels Orpheus Descending The Rose Tattoo Cat on a Hot Tin Roof Period of Adjustment Suddenly Last Summer and Sweet Bird of Youth through to the much maligned but equally rich works of his late period such as Vieux Carr and Something Cloudy Something Clear Williams depicts the home as a place which restricts and suffocates those who fail to perform their expected gender role in the wider patriarchal framework of American life In its extended full length treatment of homes families and familial exiles in his theatrical output this book adds a new perspective to Williams scholarship by examining the desperate and at times futile search for love relationality and belonging that his marginalized and alienated characters frequently pursue in alternative avenues of existence

Abraham Lincoln: Speeches and Writings Vol. 1 1832-1858 (LOA #45) Abraham Lincoln, 1989-10-01 Abraham Lincoln measured the promise and cost of American freedom in lucid and extraordinarily moving prose famous for its native wit simple dignity of expressions and peculiarly American flavor This volume with its companion Abraham Lincoln Speeches and Writing 1859-1865 comprises the most comprehensive selection ever published over 240 speeches letters and drafts take Lincoln from rural law practice to national prominence and chart his emergence as an eloquent antislavery advocate and defender of the constitution included are the complete Lincoln Douglas debates perhaps the most famous confrontation in American political history The American Play Marc Robinson, 2009-01-01 In this brilliant study Marc Robinson explores more than two hundred years of plays styles and stagings of American theater Mapping the changing cultural landscape from the late eighteenth century to the start of the twenty first he explores how theater has and has not changed and offers close readings of plays by O'Neill Stein Wilder Miller and Albee as well as by important but perhaps lesser known dramatists such as Wallace Stevens Jean Toomer Djuna Barnes and many others Robinson reads each work in an ambitiously interdisciplinary context linking advances in theater to developments in American literature dance and visual art The author is particularly attentive to the continuities in American drama and expertly teases out recurring themes such as the significance of visuality He avoids neatly categorizing nineteenth and twentieth century plays and depicts a theater more restive and mercurial than has been recognized before Robinson proves both a fascinating and thought provoking critic and a spirited guide to the history of American drama Modern American Drama: Playwriting in the 1940s Felicia Hardison Londré, 2019-11-14 The Decades of Modern American Drama series provides a comprehensive survey and study of the theatre produced in each decade from the 1930s to 2009 in eight volumes Each volume equips readers with a detailed understanding of the context from which work emerged an introduction considers life in the decade with a focus on domestic life and conditions social changes culture media technology industry and political events while a chapter on the theatre of the decade offers a wide ranging and thorough survey of theatres companies dramatists new movements and developments in response to the economic and political conditions of the day The work of the four most prominent playwrights from the decade receives in depth analysis and re evaluation by a team of experts together with commentary on their subsequent work and legacy A final section brings together original documents such as interviews with the playwrights and with directors drafts of play scenes and other previously unpublished material The major playwrights and their works to receive in depth coverage in this volume include Eugene O'Neill The Iceman Cometh 1946 A Moon for the Misbegotten 1947 Long Day's Journey Into Night written 1941 produced 1956 and A Touch of the Poet written 1942 produced 1958 Tennessee Williams The Glass Menagerie 1944 A Streetcar Named Desire 1947 Summer and Smoke 1948 Arthur Miller All My Sons 1947 Death of a Salesman 1949 and The Crucible 1953 Thornton Wilder Our Town 1938 The Skin of Our Teeth 1942 Shadow of a Doubt 1943 and The Alcestiad written 1940s Henry James: Complete Stories Vol. 1 1864-1874 (LOA #111) Henry James, 1999-08-30 A dignified and impressive addition to your bookshelf that reveals James's virtuoso performance in a genre he helped to define refine and elevate The Commercial Appeal This Library of America volume the first of five of Henry James's short fiction brings together his first twenty four published stories thirteen never collected by James Encompassing a wide range of subjects settings and formal techniques they show the first explorations of some of James's most significant themes the force of social convention and the compromises it demands the complex and often ambiguous encounter between Europe and America the energies of passion measured against the rigors of artistic discipline By his mid twenties James was a regular contributor to the most prestigious and popular magazines of his era He is equally at ease writing historical tales such as Gabrielle de Bergerac a love story set in pre Revolutionary France as he is exploring contemporary events as in the three stories that treat the effects of the American Civil War on civilians James s psychological acuity is already evident in Master Eustace a study of the ruthlessness of a spoiled child and in Guest s Confession where the comic portrayal of an arrogant businessman hints at his cruelty and self absorption In The Romance of Certain Old Clothes and The Last of the Valerii James begins to work with the supernatural and fantastic motifs that would continue to surface in his work Early examples of James s lifelong fascination with art and artists include A Landscape Painter about a young painter s attraction to a seemingly simple family living in a desolate coastal town and The Madonna of the Future where an aging artist avoids the unveiling of his masterpiece

Adumbrating later triumphs and compelling in their own right these stories reveal and accomplished and cosmopolitan young talent mastering the art of the short story LIBRARY OF AMERICA is an independent nonprofit cultural organization founded in 1979 to preserve our nation s literary heritage by publishing and keeping permanently in print America s best and most significant writing The Library of America series includes more than 300 volumes to date authoritative editions that average 1 000 pages in length feature cloth covers sewn bindings and ribbon markers and are printed on premium acid free paper that will last for centuries

Abraham Lincoln: Speeches and Writings Vol. 2 1859-1865 (LOA #46) Abraham Lincoln, 1989-10-01 Abraham Lincoln was the greatest writer of the Civil War as well as its greatest political leader His clear beautiful and at times uncompromisingly severe language forever shaped the nation s understanding of its most terrible conflict This volume along with its companion Abraham Lincoln Speeches and Writings 1832 1858 comprises the most comprehensive selection ever published Over 550 speeches messages proclamations letters and other writings including the Inaugural and Gettysburg addresses and the moving condolence letter to Mrs Bixby record the words and deeds with which Lincoln defended preserved and redefined the Union
