Tensions and Transitions in the Muslim World Lu'ayy Şāfi, 2003 Tensions and Transitions in the Muslim World provides an alternative reading of Middle Eastern politics and political culture by focusing on the dynamics of change and examining the role of Islam in the emerging modern Middle East Louay Safi contends that by focusing on radical and traditionalist Islam Middle East specialists often overlook the liberal manifestations of Islam which though marginalized constitute the driving force in the sociopolitical development of the Middle East To capture the dynamics of progress in the Middle East Safi examines the impact of the ideological struggle and intellectual debate between the forces of modernism and Islamic traditionalism on the transformation of mainstream society and delineates the emerging sociopolitical outlooks and orientations locked in a fierce struggle for the heart and soul of the Middle East

Islam and the Trajectory of Globalization Louay M. Safi, 2021-10-18 The book examines the growing tension between social movements that embrace egalitarian and inclusivist views of national and global politics most notably classical liberalism and those that advance social hierarchy and national exclusivism such as neoliberalism neoconservatism and national populism In exploring issues relating to tensions and conflicts around globalization the book identifies historical patterns of convergence and divergence rooted in the monotheistic traditions beginning with the ancient Israelites that dominated the Near East during the Axial age through Islamic civilization and finally by considering the idealism realism tensions in modern times One thing remained constant throughout the various historical stages that preceded our current moment of global convergence a recurring tension between transcendental idealism and various forms of realism Transcendental idealism which prioritize egalitarian and universal values pushed periodically against the forces of realism that privilege established law and power structure Equipped with the idealism realism framework the book examines the consequences of European realism that justified the imperialistic venture into Africa the Middle East and Latin America in the name of liberation and liberalization The ill conceived strategy has ironically engendered the very dysfunctional societies that produce the waves of immigrants in constant motion from the South to the North simultaneously as it fostered the social hierarchy that transfer external tensions into identity politics within the countries of the North The book focuses particularly on the role played historically by Islamic rationalism in translating the monotheistic egalitarian outlook into the institutions of religious pluralism legislative and legal autonomy and scientific enterprise at the foundation of modern society It concludes by shedding light on the significance of the Muslim presence in Western cultures as humanity draws slowly but consistently towards what we may come to recognize as the Global Age The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com/books/e/9781003203360> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license Islam and Warfare Onder

Bakircioglu, 2014-10-30 The question of how Islamic law regulates the notions of just recourse to and just conduct in war has long been the topic of heated controversy and is often subject to oversimplification in scholarship and journalism This book traces the rationale for aggression within the Islamic tradition and assesses the meaning and evolution of the contentious concept of jihad The book reveals that there has never been a unified position on what Islamic warfare tangibly entails due to the complexity of relevant sources and discordant historical dynamics that have shaped the contours of jihad Onder Bakircioglu advocates a dynamic reading of Islamic law and military tradition one which prioritises the demands of contemporary international relations and considers the meaning and application of jihad as contingent on the socio political forces of each historical epoch This book will be of great interest to scholars and students of international law Islamic law war and security studies and the law of armed conflict Culture, Conflict, and Mediation in the Asian Pacific Bruce E.

Barnes, 2007-08-09 The countries of China Taiwan Singapore Japan Korea Malaysia Philippines Indonesia and Thailand are brought together for the first time in an integrated and systematic work outlining each country's cultural themes cultural practices and preferred conflict resolution mechanisms The new ADR processes and centuries old mediation and conciliation systems used in these countries are compared with the evolving mediation and ADR systems including facilitation in North America and the West This comprehensive study analyzes the cultural themes commonly found in these countries religious conflicts and presents over 30 different stories case studies and conflict resolution scenarios from the region Culture Conflict and Mediation in the Asian Pacific looks beyond traditional regional boundaries to group Hawai'i with the nine Asian countries as an example of mediation systems and cultural influence on the most Asian of the U.S. states over 2/3 of the population of Hawai'i is Asian American The Liberal Conscience Lucas Swaine, 2006 This bold work offers solutions to the seemingly irreconcilable divide between liberal society and theocracy by reasserting the importance of the liberty of conscience and principles of religious toleration Conflict, Identity, and Reform in the Muslim World Daniel Brumberg, Dina Shehata, 2009 Conflict Identity and Reform in the Muslim World highlights the challenges that escalating identity conflicts within Muslim majority states pose for both the Muslim world and for the West an issue that has received scant attention in policy and academic circles Islam and the Drive to Global Justice Louay M. Safi, 2023-12-15 Islam and the Drive to Global Justice Principles of Justice Beyond Dominant Ethnic and Religious Communities contributes to the current debate over Islam in a globalizing world by drawing on the contemporary and historical justice discourse within the Islamic traditions and by examining policies and practices of global powers towards Muslim populations in the Global South. The discussions aim at bringing insights from Islamic authoritative sources and scholarly literature and to enrich the current deliberation on the universality of modern values and the relevance of the Islamic traditions to advancing more inclusive notion of global justice. The book examines in particular several models rooted in the monotheistic traditions crucial for overcoming three interrelated challenges facing the dispensation of justice in contemporary society: inclusivity, disparity and selectivity. The book uses the normative framework it outlines to analyze the connection between European powers and the autocratic regimes in the MENA region. Several chapters in the book illustrate how supporting Arab autocracy contributes to the rise of religious extremism and has already produced failed states in Syria, Lebanon, Iraq and Yemen that undermine both national and global peace and stability.

Globalization and Geopolitics in the Middle East Anoushiravan

Ehteshami, 2007-03-14. Examining globalization in the Middle East: this book provides a much needed assessment of the impact of globalization in the greater Middle East including North Africa in the context of the powerful geopolitical forces at work in shaping the region today. Written by a well known authority in this area, this book demonstrates that unlike in other regions such as East Asia, geopolitics has been a critical factor in driving globalization in the Middle East. The author argues that whereas elsewhere globalisation has opened up the economy, society, culture and attitudes to the environment, in the Middle East it has had the opposite effect with poor state formation, little interregional trade, foreign and interregional investment and reassertion of traditional identities. This book explores the impact of globalization on the politics, economies and social environment of the greater Middle East in the context of the region's position as the central site of global geopolitical competition at the start of the twenty first century.
