Tents Of Jacob The Diaspora Yesterday And Today:

Tents of Jacob Raphael Patai, 1971 Contemporary Europe in the Historical Imagination Darcy Buerkle, Skye Doney, 2023-06-27 George L Mosse 1918-99 was one of the most influential cultural and intellectual historians of modern Europe. In Contemporary Europe in the Historical Imagination, an international assembly of leading scholars explore Mosse's enduring methodologies in German studies and modern European cultural history. Considering Mosse's life and work historically and critically, the book begins with his intellectual biography and goes on to reread his writings in light of historical developments since his death and to use, extend, and contend with Mosse's legacy in new contexts he may not have addressed or even foreseen. The volume wrestles with intertwined questions that continue to emerge from Mosse's pioneering research, including: What role do sexual and racial stereotypes play in European political culture before and after 1945? How are gender and Nazi violence bound together? Importantly, the contributors pose questions that are inspired by Mosse's work but that he did not directly examine. For example, to what extent were Nazism and Italian Fascism colonial projects? How have popular radical right parties reinforced and reimagined ethnonationalism and nativism? Much like Mosse's own work, the chapters in this book inspire new interventions into the history of gender and sexuality, Jewish identity during the rise of the Third Reich, and the many reincarnations of fascist pageantry and mass politics. Multiple Alterities Elie Podeh, Samira Alayan, 2017-12-18 This book highlights and examines the role of the textbook in legitimising established political and social orders. It analyses the way in which the 'other' is presented in school textbooks, focusing on a number of countries in the Middle East and North Africa (MENA) region and argues that the role of textbooks in developing and maintaining a national identity should be afforded greater critical attention. Textbooks can help form national identities by developing a society's collective memory; this might involve a historical narrative which may be self-contradictory or even fabricated to a certain extent, including myths, symbols, and collective memories that divide us from them and ultimately resulting in a dichotomy between the Self and the Other. As well as addressing a range of theoretical questions relating to the study of textbooks, generally, the volume also covers a broad spectrum of Middle Eastern states and societies, with contributions from Turkey, Iran, Egypt, Cyprus, Lebanon, Iraq, Kurdistan, Jordan, Morocco, Tunisia, Israel, and Palestine. It will be essential reading for researchers and students working in the fields of Education, Sociology, and History, particularly those with an interest in national identities in the MENA region. Risky Transactions Frank K. Salter, 2002-07 Trust is a central feature of relationships within the Mafia, oppressed minorities, kin groups everywhere, among dissidents, nationalist freedom fighters, ethnic tourists, ethnic middlemen, exchange networks of Kalahari Bushmen, and families subjected to Stalinist social control. Each of these types of trust is examined by a leading scholar and compared with the expectations of neo-Darwinian theory, in particular the theories of kin selection and ethnic nepotism. The result is a fascinating, theoretically focused yet empirically eclectic contribution to the overlapping fields of human ethnology, evolutionary psychology, and biopolitics. The common thread uniting these diverse phenomena is a trusting relationship predicated on altruism Chapters examine the strengths and limits of human trust under various stressers and temptations to defect By exploring the relationship between kin and ethnic altruism and showing its sensitivity to culture Risky Transactions recasts the evolutionary approach to ethnicity as a blend of primordial and instrumental factors Cultures in Motion Peter N. Stearns,2001-01-01 Kulturens vandring fra forhistorisk tid til nutiden Jews in the Early Modern World Dean Phillip Bell,2008 Jews in the Early Modern World argues that the years between 1400 and 1700 represented a discrete cohesive and important period in Jewish history Given the significant demographic shifts that began just before and ended just after this period remarkable changes occurred in the history and experiences of Jews around the world This volume begins with a broad context of Jewish experiences under medieval Christianity and Islam It then turns to the early modern period first providing an overview of Jewish demography and settlement Next the nature and structure of Jewish community and social structures in the early modern period are explored In the final two chapters this book presents a broad overview of Jewish religious and cultural life and Jewish relations with non Jews throughout the early modern period Publisher The Messiah Texts Raphael Patai,1988-12-01 patai investigates the false messiahs who have appeared throughout Jewish history the modern Messiah influenced movements such as reform Judaism and Zionism and the numerous reasons put forth by the various branches of Judaism as to why the Messiah has not yet appeared Cultural Anthropology of the Middle East, A Bibliography, Volume 1 Cultural Anthropology of the Middle East 1965-1987 Strijp,2021-12-06 During the last two decades the number of anthropologists conducting research in the Middle East has increased considerably Together they have produced an abundance of valuable studies often based on prolonged periods of ethnographic fieldwork This bibliography offers a comprehensive survey of their results published between 1965 and 1987 It refers to studies published in English French and German Geographically the bibliography covers the area from Mauritania in the West to Afghanistan in the East and from Turkey in the North to the Arab Peninsula and Northern Sudan in the South The majority of studies inserted has been written by anthropologists Besides a considerable number of studies related to anthropology but published by non anthropologists has been integrated as well The majority of the monographs and volumes has been annotated Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1974 The Myth of the Jewish Race Raphael Patai,Jennifer Patai,1989 In this carefully researched analysis Raphael and Jennifer Patai begin by defining race They then develop the idea of the existence of races through history In rich and fascinating detail the authors consider the effects of intermarriage interbreeding proselytism slavery and concubinage on the Jewish population from Biblical times to the present New material explores the psychological aspects of the Jewish race issue the Jewish psyche and the consequences of the 1975 United Nations resolution equating Zionism with racism A revised and updated scientific section on the measurable genetic morphological and behavioral differences between Jews and non Jews supports the conclusion that the idea of a Jewish race

is indeed a myth
