Terminal Compromise Winn Schwartau, 1991 Multi-Criteria Decision Analysis via Ratio and Difference Judgement
Freerk A. Lootsma, 2007-08-23 The point of departure in the present book is that the decision makers involved in the evaluation of alternatives under conflicting criteria express their preferential judgement by estimating ratios of subjective values or differences of the corresponding logarithms the so called grades Three MCDA methods are studied in detail the Simple Multi Attribute Rating Technique SMART as well as the Additive and the Multiplicative AHP both pairwise comparison methods which do not suffer from the well known shortcomings of the original Analytic Hierarchy Process Context related preference modelling on the basis of psycho physical research in visual perception and motor skills is extensively discussed in the introductory chapters Thereafter many extensions of the ideas are presented via case studies in university administration health care environmental assessment budget allocation and energy planning at the national and the European level The issues under consideration are group decision making with inhomogeneous power distributions the search for a compromise solution resource allocation and fair distributions scenario analysis in long term planning conflict analysis via the pairwise comparison of concessions and multi objective optimization The final chapters are devoted to the fortunes of MCDA in the hands of its designers The research started in the late seventies when I got involved in three different problems the nomination procedures in a university the evaluation of alternative energy research proposals and the evaluation of non linear programming software Terminal Compromise: Computer Terrorism: when Privacy and Freedom are the Victims: a Novel Winn Schwartau, 1993 International Banking and Information Security Conference, 1997
