Grandpa Joe's town has always been controlled by the enemy who walks openly among them. Yet Max has always felt safer there than anywhere else. Until now that is. A perfect killer is on the loose. One that not only destroys a person's body but steals their soul. Kacha the changeling has unlocked the secrets of the ancient magical book and is building a new hourglass and gateway. He discovers how to construct a powerful weapon called The Demon's Fork which allows him to capture the souls of everyone in the entire town all at once. Kacha uses this curse on Grandpa's town to distract Max and the others so he can complete his ultimate goal of capturing descendants of magical ancestry to fill his hourglass. The hunt for Kacha leads Max and his friends on a dangerous quest as they try to capture Kacha before he is able to complete his evil plans. Secrecy will be the key to avoid an even deadlier situation.

The Bells of San Carlos and Other Stories Max Brand, 2000-03-01

This volume of Max Brand's short fiction is chock full of the fast paced, deftly plotted stories that made Brand famous. Cayenne Charlie tells the story of Charlie Bird, a redheaded cowpoke so accustomed to trouble he treats jail like a hotel. The Bells of San Carlos introduces Fray Luis, a most formidable member of the clergy. The novella Between One and Three is part Western, part mystery, a story of counterfeiter who elude detection. The Gift features Happy Jack, one of Brand's most fascinating characters. Happy Jack is on the trail of Sandy Crisp whose crimes include shooting one of Jack's friends. The Bells of San Carlos and Other Stories offers stories and novellas long out of print or never printed in their entirety. At first publication the stories often suffered from editors' cuts to make them fit available page space. Editor Jon Tuska has returned to the original manuscripts to restore Brand's full texts.

The Flowers of the Tropics Denis Florence MacCarthy, 2024-02-27

In the soft sunny regions that circle the waist Of the globe with a girdle of topaz and gold Which heave with the throbbings of life where they're placed And glow with the fire of the heart they enfold
Where to live where to breathe seems a paradise dream A dream of some world more elysian than this Where if Death and if Sin were away it would seem Not the foretaste alone but the fulness of bliss Where all that can gladden the sense and the sight Fresh fruitage as cool and as crimson as even Where the richness and rankness of Nature unite To build the frail walls of the Sybarite s heaven But ah should the heart feel the desolate dearth Of some purer enjoyment to speed the bright hours In vain through the leafy luxuriance of earth Looks the languidlit eye for the freshness of flowers No its glance must be turned from the earth to the sky From the clayrooted grass to the heavenbranching trees And there oh enchantment for soul and for eye Hang blossoms so pure that an angel might seize Thus when pleasure begins from its sweetness to cloy And the warm heart grows rank like a soil over ripe We must turn from the earth for some promise of joy And look up to heaven for a holier type The Cosmopolitan ,1904
