The Logos and the Esoteric Basis of Christianity William Kingsland, 2005-12 This scarce antiquarian book is a facsimile reprint of the original Due to its age it may contain imperfections such as marks notations marginalia and flawed pages Because we believe this work is culturally important we have made it available as part of our commitment for protecting preserving and promoting the world s literature in affordable high quality modern editions that are true to the original work The Esoteric Basis of Christianity William Kingsland, 1895 The esoteric basis of Christianity; or, Theosophy and Christian doctrine William Kingsland, 1893 The Esoteric Basis of Christianity Or Theosophy and Christian Doctrine William Kingsland, 1996-09 The Inner Church is the Hope of the World Nicholas Laccetti, 2018-08-09 Throughout history Western esoteric movements have provided meaning and power for what the Rosicrucians of the early modern period called the quest for Universal Reformation the utopian restructuring of religion science the arts and human society Yet Western esotericism has been roundly ignored as a source of reflection in mainstream Christian theology including the radical theologies of liberation that might otherwise see in esotericism a kindred spirit to their commitment to radical social change In The Inner Church is the Hope of the World guided by his work in contemporary movements for social change Nicholas Laccetti puts Western esotericism in dialogue with liberation theology treating esotericism as a legitimate source of spiritual and theological insight If as Gustavo Gutierrez writes God is revealed in history then we will also encounter God within the particular history of human religious expression that is Western esotericism And from these theological reflections the Inner Church of the esotericists occultists and mystics is revealed to be the true ekklesia of all who have conformed themselves to God s vision of freedom and liberation and who struggle to enact that vision in human society The Inner Church is truly the hope of the world Light , 1895 The Esoteric Basis of Christianity, Or Theosophy and Christian Doctrine William Kingsland, 2018-03-23 Excerpt from The Esoteric Basis of Christianity or Theosophy and Christian Doctrine A Paper Read Before the Blavatsky Lodge of the Theosophical Society It is well known that the claim which has been made by the Church from its earliest traditions down to our present day on behalf of Christian doctrine has been that of a special divine revelation by a personal God Beginning with the first chapter of Genesis and ending with the last verse of Revelation we are asked to believe that the collection of ancient writings known as the Bible has been specially prepared and inspired by this personal God as a record of his dealings with and his will towards the creatures he originally created This I believe may be accepted as the fundamental basis of Christian doctrine the centre round which all the teachings of the Church whether Protestant or Catholic has revolved and from which they cannot get away without breaking up and destroying all that has ever been known historically as Christianity I say specifically that this is the claim made by the Church because it is a fact commonly overlooked and one indeed of which the majority of professing Christians are ignorant that what is known as Christianity in its doctrinal form in its traditions and in the selection and compilation Of the subject matter of the Bible is purely ecclesiastical The Bible in its present form the creeds and the rites and ceremonies which go to make up the sum total Of what is known historically as Christianity were compiled by the early Church authorities from miscellaneous sources This however is a matter of literary and historical data into which I cannot enter now but I wish it to be understood that in speaking of Christianity and Christian doctrine I am dealing at present with its ecclesiastical and historical forms and not with the personality or teachings of its supposed founder We have then this fundamental idea of Christianity as a revelation of the personal relationship between a creative God and the creatures he created and upon this basis is built up the doctrinal superstructure with which we are all familiar in its many variations and modifications About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works The Theosophical Review ,1904 The Metaphysical Magazine ,1895 Lucifer ,1895
