Bower, 2017-07-19 This is a collection of short stories by American author B M Bower Bertha Muzzy Sinclair or Sinclair Cowan 1871 1940 more commonly known as B M Bower was an American author famous for her novels short stories and screenplays set in the American Old West Other notable works by this author include Casey Ryan 1921 The Long Loop 1931 and Chip of the Flying U 1906 Contents include A History of Western Fiction B M Bower The Lonesome Trail First Aid to Cupid When the Cook Fell Ill The Lamb The Spirit of the Range The Reveler and The Unheavenly Twins This volume is highly recommended for all lovers of Western literature and constitutes a must have for fans of Bower s wonderful work Many vintage books such as this are becoming increasingly scarce and expensive We are republishing this volume now in an affordable modern high quality edition complete with a specially commissioned new introduction and biography of the author John William Corrington Mills, William, 1994

Bohemian New Orleans Jeff Weddle, 2010-01-06 Winner of the 2007 Welty Prize In 1960 Jon Edgar and Louise Gypsy Lou Webb founded Loujon Press on Royal Street in New Orleans s French Quarter The small publishing house quickly became a giant Heralded by the Village Voice and the New York Times as one of the best of its day the Outsider the press s literary review featured among others Charles Bukowski Allen Ginsberg Lawrence Ferlinghetti Robert Creeley Denise Levertov and Walter Lowenfels Loujon published books by Henry Miller and two early poetry collections by Bukowski Bohemian New Orleans traces the development of this courageous imprint and examines its place within the small press revolution of the 1960s Drawing on correspondence from many who were published in the Outsider back issues of the Outsider contemporary reviews promotional materials and interviews Jeff Weddle shows how the press s mandarin insistence on production quality and its eclectic editorial taste made its work nonpareil among peers in the underground Throughout Bohemian New Orleans reveals the messy complex and vagabond spirit of a lost literary age Learn about Director Wayne Ewing s documentary film The Outsiders of New Orleans Loujon Press and watch a trailer at <http://www.loujonpress.com> The Collected Stories of John William Corrington John William Corrington, 1989 The author of three novels four collections of poetry and numerous screenplays for television and film John William Corrington was perhaps at his finest with the short story Compiled from three volumes of short fiction and one previously uncollected story The Collected Stories of John William Corrington brings together the work of a craftsman whose stories tell of the violence and mercy of the human spirit of the fine line between law and justice and of times gone by that Short Story Index , 1969 Chicorel Index to Short Stories in Anthologies and Collections , 1975 The World Will Never See the Like John L. Hopkins, 2023-11-06 In this groundbreaking study author John L Hopkins deftly examines the reunion through the lens of the veterans within the context of society politics and the national mood at the time Scott L Mingus Sr author of Flames Beyond Gettysburg and co author of If We Are Striking for Pennsylvania Vols 1 and 2 The largest gathering of Union and Confederate veterans ever held was front page news

throughout the country It will be talked about and written about as long as the American people boast of the dauntless courage of Gettysburg declared a woman who accompanied her father to the reunion But as the years passed the memorable event was all but forgotten John Hopkins s The World Will Never See the Like The Gettysburg Reunion of 1913 goes a long way toward making sure the world will remember The 1913 Gettysburg reunion is a story of 53 000 old comrades and former foes reunited and of the tension even half a century later between competing narratives of reconciliation and remembrance For seven days the old soldiers lived under canvas in stifling heat on a 280 acre encampment run by the U S Army They swapped stories debated still simmering controversies about the battle and fed tall tales to gullible reporters On July 3 the aging survivors of Pickett s Division and the Philadelphia Brigade shook hands across the wall on Cemetery Ridge in the reunion s climactic photo op Some of the battle s leading personalities attended including Union III Corps commander Dan Sickles who at 92 was still eager to explain to anyone who would listen the indispensable role he claimed to have played in the Union victory Also present was Helen Dortch Longstreet the widow of Confederate Lt Gen James Longstreet who devoted her life and considerable energies to defending the reputation of her general Both wrote articles from the reunion that were syndicated in newspapers across the country There was even a cameo appearance by a young and as yet unknown cavalry officer named George S Patton Jr Hopkins fills his marvelous account with detail from the letters diaries and published accounts of Union and Confederate veterans the extensive archival records of the reunion s organizers and the daily stories filed by the scores of reporters who covered it The World Will Never See the Like offers the first full story of this extraordinary event s genesis and planning the obstacles overcome on the way to making it a reality its place in the larger narrative of sectional reunion and reconciliation and the individual stories of the veterans who attended Every reader interested in Gettysburg will find this a welcome addition to their library

The Girl Who Raced Mules & Other Stories

Becky Mushko,2003 The Cambridge Guide to Literature in English Dominic Head,2006-01-26 This illustrated and fully updated Third Edition of The Cambridge Guide to Literature in English is the most authoritative and international survey of world literature in English available The Guide covers everything from Old English to contemporary writing from all over the English speaking world There are entries on writers from Britain and Ireland the USA Canada India Africa South Africa New Zealand the South Pacific and Australia as well as on many important poems novels literary journals and plays This new edition has been brought completely up to date with more than 280 new author entries most of them for living authors The general reader will find it fascinating to browse and to discover many new writers and works while students will find it an invaluable resource for daily use This is a unique work of reference for the twenty first century that no reader or library should be without Wobblies, Pile Butts, and Other Heroes Archie Green,1993 In this culmination of his half century of involvement with American workers and their traditions Archie Green explores occupational expression stories songs customs beliefs artifacts on the job and in institutions such as trade unions Combining ethnographic description with analysis drawn from folklore history literary criticism art history linguistics and philosophy Green presents ten case studies in which he reflects on single words as social texts Wobbly fink and clustered words within anecdotes tales and ballads John Henry Homestead s strike songs job yarns about cuckoldry and sexual impotence and pile driving traditions for example Drawing on Green s own experience as a shipwright and carpenter the book will appeal both to workers curious about their history and traditions and to academicians who study the workforce and labor process
