The Long Lost Friends:

To the Land of Long Lost Friends Alexander McCall Smith, 2019-10-22 In the latest book in the widely beloved No 1 Ladies Detective Agency series Precious Ramotswe takes on a case for a childhood acquaintance and finds that family relationships are always a tricky proposition even for Botswana's premier female detective Mma Ramotswe has reconnected with an old friend who has been having problems with her daughter Though Precious feels compelled to lend a hand she discovers that getting involved in family affairs is always a delicate affair The young woman appears to be involved with a charismatic preacher But are his ministrations entirely of a godly nature Elsewhere Charlie is also struggling with a tricky matter of the heart He wishes to propose to his girlfriend Queenie Queenie but he's struggling to come up with a bride price that will impress her father When Queenie's brother offers to help by giving him a job the offer may not be quite what Charlie expected As always Mr J L B Matekoni will offer wise counsel Mma Makutsi will weigh in with her opinions and Mma Potokwane will be there with her welcome fruit cake But in the end it will be up to Mma Ramotswe to reflect on love family and the nature of men and women in order to resolve family dramas and remind everyone about all the good things they have in life so many in fact that it would take far too long to count them Artificial Intelligence and Literary Creativity

Selmer Bringsjord, David Ferrucci, 1999-09-01 Is human creativity a wall that AI can never scale Many people are happy to admit that experts in many domains can be matched by either knowledge based or sub symbolic systems but even some AI researchers harbor the hope that when it comes to feats of sheer brilliance mind over machine is an unalterable fact In this book the authors push AI toward a time when machines can autonomously write not just humdrum stories of the sort seen for years in AI but first rate fiction thought to be the province of human genius It reports on five years of effort devoted to building a story generator the BRUTUS 1 system This book was written for three general reasons The first theoretical reason for investing time money and talent in the quest for a truly creative machine is to work toward an answer to the question of whether we ourselves are machines The second theoretical reason is to silence those who believe that logic is forever closed off from the emotional world of creativity The practical rationale for this endeavor and the third reason is that machines able to work alongside humans in arenas calling for creativity will have incalculable worth Titan, 1847 Aberrant Beliefs and Reasoning Niall Galbraith, 2014-09-11 An aberrant belief is extreme or unusual in nature In the most serious cases these beliefs cause emotional distress in those who hold them and typify the core symptoms of psychological disorders Each of the chapters in this volume seeks to examine the role that biases in reasoning can play in the formation of aberrant beliefs The chapters consider several conjectures about the role of reasoning in aberrant belief including the role of the jumping to conclusion bias in delusional beliefs the probabilistic bias in paranormal beliefs the role of danger confirming reasoning in phobias and the controversial notion that people with schizophrenia do not succumb to specific forms of reasoning bias There are also chapters evaluating different theoretical perspectives and suggestions for future research Aberrant Beliefs and Reasoning is the first volume presenting an overview of contemporary research in this growing subject area. It will be essential reading for academics and students in the fields of human reasoning, cognitive psychology and philosophy and will also be of great interest to clinicians and psychiatrists. "But One Option." Bill MacWithey, 2000-06-30

As the war in Vietnam wound down in 1974, Colonel Charlie Donnegan was pissed that the US had lost the war. He was pissed at the government for their inefficiency in running the war. He was a battalion ranger commander and despite the rest of the military pulling out of Nam, he left a bunch of volunteers there to hurt the enemy as best they could wherever they could. While his men attacked targets of opportunity in and around Vietnam, Charlie advanced in rank then resigned with a job as assistant director of the CIA. After the Director was killed by a hit and run driver in DC, Charlie was elevated to director. But that wasn't the end of his plans. Eventually, he ran for president and, knowing a lot of secrets about a lot of people in and out of government, he won handily. Now he was in charge. Screw the rest of government. Screw the International Community. He was going to get rid of these fucking terrorists any way he could. Walter Herndon, the Director, Charlie Donnegan had hand-picked to succeed him, reluctantly went along with the president's plans even though it worried the hell out of him. Arnold Johnson, Arnie to his men, was a former company commander under Charlie Donnegan. Arnie was totally devoted to doing the colonel's bidding and had no compunctions about killing man, woman or child to carry out his orders from his former commander. Arnie and some thirty of the survivors from the rangers left in Vietnam at the end of the war by Charlie had lived for years in the mountains of New Mexico, waiting for whatever tasks the new president assigned them. His name had been Robert Daugherty in the army but now, as a plant at the CIA to keep an eye on things for the president, his name was Joseph Barger and would play an important role in keeping him informed of the goings on with the director, who Charlie really didn't feel he could trust completely. Joseph Barger was a former drug runner who joined the army to escape being killed by rival drug dealers. After Vietnam, Charlie had groomed him to a point where he could easily be mistaken for a Harvard graduate or a corporation executive. After successfully taking out a number of foreign targets, Arnie and his men began assassinating others; he disagreed with like Senators. He blamed the assassinations on foreign terrorists. Joseph Barger has been assigned to St. Louis as an employee of First Star Electronics, a CIA-owned company. Also, he has a woman agent acting as his wife. She has two children. They are posing as a typical upper middle class family living in St. Charles, a St. Louis suburb. But something doesn't go as planned. Joseph not only falls in love with her, he falls in love with her two young children. When Joseph and an old partner fly supplies and drop them to Arnie and his men in South America, they are supposed to die from the poison put in the coffee thermos aboard the plane. Arnie is unaware that Joseph doesn't drink coffee. But when his co-pilot friend dies, Joseph figures out he was murdered. He parachutes from the plane, allowing it to fly into the ocean off the coast of Mexico. Then it becomes a race to get Betty and her kids out of harm's way. Because Joseph doesn't die as he was supposed to, now he is Arnie's enemy and Arnie must kill him at any cost. Even Arnie, although he is about as insane a killer as one would find, doesn't realize the president is totally mad Also he doesnt realize the presidents ultimate plan is to take over the country as a virtual dictator When Walter Herndon CIA Director finally figures out Charlie is behind the domestic killings now he too is the enemy and must be eliminated An attempt on his life is unsuccessful but he doesnt know whom to trust After runn Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress.
