The Lord Of The Meeting Rivers Devotional Poems Of Basavanna:

The Lord of the Meeting Rivers Basava,1984 Jaina Culture in Medieval Karnataka Julia A.B. Hegewald,2025-04-21

Why did the Jainas in Karnataka plunge from a position of supremacy into one of severe dependency After a steep and steady rise throughout the region from about the fifth century CE Jaina influence waned dramatically from the late eleventh or early twelfth centuries onwards In this publication specialists in Indian history religious studies and anthropology as well as historians of art and architecture discuss various expressions of this sudden and detrimental decline and explore the reasons for it focusing in particular on the relations of the Jainas with V ra aivas and Muslims The evidence provided by the five international scholars who offer insights from different disciplinal backgrounds indicates that the reasons for the Jainas loss of authority in the region were manifold Certain internal triggers such as changes in Jaina social structure and religious practices adversely affected their position over time In particular however the withdrawal of royal patronage the success of the V ra aivas as traders and the emergence in the area at this time of a number of competing religious groups caused the Jainas to slip into a position of strong asymmetrical dependency

Space, Utopia and Indian Decolonization

Sandeep Banerjee,2019-03-21 The book illuminates the spatial utopianism of South Asian anti colonial texts by showing how they refuse colonial spatial imaginaries to re imagine the British Indian colony as the postcolony in diverse and contested ways Focusing on the literary field of South Asia between largely the 1860s and 1920s it underlines the centrality of literary imagination and representation in the cultural politics of decolonization This book spatializes our understanding of decolonization while decoupling and complicating the easy equation between decolonization and anti colonial nationalism The author utilises a global comparative framework and reads across the English vernacular divide to understand space as a site of contested representation and ideological contestation He interrogates the spatial desire of anti colonial and colonial texts across a range of genres namely historical romances novels travelogues memoirs poems and patriotic lyrics The book is the first full length literary geographical study of South Asian literary texts and will be of interest to an interdisciplinary audience in the fields of Postcolonial and World Literature Asian Literature Victorian Literature Modern South Asian Historiography Literature and Utopia Literature and Decolonization Literature and Nationalism Cultural Geography and South Asian Studies

The Range of the River Iftekhar Iqbal,2025-12-02 Spanning nearly 4 million square kilometers the Tibetan river system including the Brahmaputra Irrawaddy Salween Mekong Red and Yangzi forms the largest contiguous network of rivers on the planet stretching across eastern South Asia mainland Southeast Asia and southern China The Range of the River uncovers the entwined histories of these vast waterways and the empires human actors and other than human forces that have shaped Asia since the 1850s Both ethnodiverse and biodiverse these rivers were more than contested imperial spaces they were also channels of communal and material exchange linking near and distant contact zones They fostered connections across Asia driving commerce mobility and cultural encounters that transformed them into shared living commons bridging societies political powers and economic interests Tracing six major rivers across eight countries Iftexhar Iqbal argues that these river systems formed the core of a discursive space where empires regional political forces ethnic groups boaters peddlers explorers merchants and mules encountered each other in layered meanings and movements This groundbreaking book reimagines the river not as merely a tool of empire but as a dynamic force in itself shaping a truly transregional Asia By weaving together diverse riverine life worlds The Range of the River invites us to rethink Asia's spatial history
