

The teachings of spiritualism

In his comprehensive study of nineteenth-century theological controversies concerning eternal punishment and the future life Geoffrey Rowell offers a brief word concerning spiritualism:

No discussion of nineteenth-century ideas concerning the future life would be complete without a mention of the spiritualist movement, even though this had little direct influence on the doctrine of more orthodox thinkers. Where it was valued, it was so largely because it appeared to offer empirical evidence for a future life, and where it was ignored, it was frequently on the grounds that the reported psychic phenomena were the result of satanic agency. In any case it cannot be pretended that the picture of the future life generally presented by spiritualism was other than banal.¹

In spite of Rowell's scathing comments, this chapter explores precisely 'the picture of the future life' presented by spiritualism, offering a systematic account of the ideas and imagery used to imagine the afterlife by both alleged spirits and spiritualists. Such an account is necessary because, as has been said, historians of spiritualism have shown little concern for these ideas and images until now.

The previous chapter demonstrated how spiritualism became a part of people's lives, regardless of their class, gender or geographical location. The different expressions of spiritualism, the quiet home experiments, theatrical séances, earnest accounts in spiritualist journals, along with the lectures, books and newspaper articles, brought people of all types into contact with its discourse. As a consequence, the ideas of spiritualism – its claims and beliefs – and the images of spiritualism – the rich pictorial language it employed –

The Lost Teachings of Jesus, Book 2 Mark L. Prophet, Elizabeth Clare Prophet, 2020-11-19 In Book 1 of their Lost Teachings of Jesus series Mark L Prophet and Elizabeth Clare Prophet demonstrate that many of Jesus original teachings were lost In Book 2 they go one step further They show how early churchmen aided and abetted by the Roman emperors Constantine and Justinian distorted Jesus true teachings And robbed you of what he wanted you to know about the power of your own inner Christ In modern vernacular parable and story the Prophets provide the missing links They explain the difference between Jesus and the Christ They show how the Church's doctrines on sin and the only begotten Son of God have obscured what Jesus really taught about salvation And they explore how Eastern concepts like karma reincarnation and chakras can be found wrapped in the mysteries he gave the disciples Most importantly they recapture the heart of his message that you like Jesus can reconnect with your Divine Source to realize your full potential Spiritualism and
