The Literary Mind Leo Schneiderman, 1988 Studies of nine outstanding modern writers William Faulkner Lillian Hellman Vladimir Nabokov Flannery O'Connor Tennessee Williams John Cheever Jose Luis Borges Samuel Beckett and Harold Pinter The book aims to show that suffering can play a central role in creating great literature The Literary Mind

Leo Schneiderman, 1988 Studies of nine outstanding modern writers William Faulkner Lillian Hellman Vladimir Nabokov Flannery O'Connor Tennessee Williams John Cheever Jose Luis Borges Samuel Beckett and Harold Pinter The book aims to show that suffering can play a central role in creating great literature Psyche and the Literary Muses Martin S. Lindauer, 2009 Psyche and the Literary Muses focuses on the psychology of literature from an empirical point of view rather than the more typical psychoanalytic position and concentrates on literary content rather than readers or writers The book centers on the author's quantitative studies of brief literary and quasi literary forms ranging from titles of short stories and names of literary characters to clichés and quotations from literary sources in demonstrating their contribution to the topics of learning perception thinking emotions creativity and especially person perception and aging More broadly Psyche bears on literary studies art and psychology in general as well as interdisciplinarity This book deepens the understanding and appreciation of literature for scholars academics and the general reader Dionysus in Literature Branimir M. Rieger, 2011-06-01 In this anthology outstanding authorities present their assessments of literary madness in a variety of topics and approaches The entire collection of essays presents intriguing aspects of the Dionysian element in literature

The Psychology of Creative Writing Scott Barry Kaufman, James C. Kaufman, 2009-06-29 The Psychology of Creative Writing takes a scholarly psychological look at multiple aspects of creative writing including the creative writer as a person the text itself the creative process the writer's development the link between creative writing and mental illness the personality traits of comedy and screen writers and how to teach creative writing This book will appeal to psychologists interested in creativity writers who want to understand more about the magic behind their talents and educated laypeople who enjoy reading writing or both From scholars to bloggers to artists The Psychology of Creative Writing has something for everyone The Dramatic Works of Samuel Beckett Charles A. Carpenter, 2011-10-13 A selectively comprehensive bibliography of the vast literature about Samuel Beckett's dramatic works arranged for the efficient and convenient use of scholars on all levels The Centrality of Crime Fiction in American Literary Culture Alfred Bendixen, Olivia Carr Edenfield, 2017-06-26 This collection of essays by leading scholars insists on a larger recognition of the importance and diversity of crime fiction in U.S. literary traditions Instead of presenting the genre as the property of Dashiell Hammett and Raymond Chandler this book maps a larger territory which includes the domains of Mark Twain F. Scott Fitzgerald William Faulkner Richard Wright Flannery O'Connor Cormac McCarthy and other masters of fiction The essays in this collection pay detailed attention to both the genuine artistry and the cultural significance of crime fiction in the United States It emphasizes

American crime fiction's inquiry into the nature of democratic society and its exploration of injustices based on race class and or gender that are specifically located in the details of American experience Each of these essays exists on its own terms as a significant contribution to scholarship but when brought together the collection becomes larger than the sum of its pieces in detailing the centrality of crime fiction to American literature This is a crucial book for all students of American fiction as well as for those interested in the literary treatment of crime and detection and also has broad appeal for classes in American popular culture and American modernism

Getting the Picture Margaret Helen Persin, 1997 This book takes a probing look at how Spanish poets of the twentieth century read objects of visual art write poems that utilize the discursive strategy known as ekphrasis and how in turn they are read by those texts As a result of their reading practices the artistic works read by the poets are inscribed in the poets own texts and in a variety of ways This analysis sheds light on the poets own distinctive stance toward many primary issues such as textuality representation language power ideology literature and art

Psychotherapy and the Self-contained Patient E. Mark Stern, 1989 Leading psychotherapists present a broad range of theoretical philosophical and clinical perspectives on the self contained person who seeks therapy With numerous enlightening case studies they explore the characteristics of the self contained patient often a bright dedicated hardworking and successful person who has decided to be self reliant and to achieve without needing or acknowledging help The experts also examine the provocations leading self contained persons to seek therapy This authoritative volume addresses the intricacies of working with the self contained person who is often competitive and ill at ease with experts and proposes successful interventions for treating the ever challenging and provocative self contained patient

Psychotherapy and the Remorseful Patient E. Mark Stern, 1989 Illustrates the necessity and value of remorse as a psychological experience With case studies and explanations psychotherapists provide clinical approaches to treating remorse an ever present challenge and a potent instrument for all emotional social recovery No index Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR
