Little Catechism of the Cure of Ars Saint John Vianney, Brother Hermenegild, Brother Hermenegild Tosf, 2014-02 The holy Cure of Ars Saint John Vianney 36 basic Catholic subjects in a simple manner for the average layman to easily understand this holy points He discusses the seven deadly sins and their remedies Let us consider this from the catechism on the Love of God Our body is a vessel of corruption it is meant for death and for the worms nothing more And yet we devote ourselves to satisfying it rather than to enriching our soul which is so great that we can conceive nothing greater no nothing nothing For we see that God urged by the ardor of His love would not create us like the animals He has created us in His own image and likeness do you see Oh how great is man Man being created by love cannot live without love either he loves God or he loves himself and he loves the world See my children it is faith that we want When we have not faith we are blind He who does not see does not know he who does not know does not love he who does not love God loves himself and at the same time loves his pleasures He fixes his heart on things which pass away like smoke He cannot know the truth nor any good thing he can know nothing but falsehood because he has no light he is in a mist If he had light he would see plainly that all that he loves can give him nothing but eternal death it is a foretaste of Hell

All This, and Heaven Too Caitlin Smith Gilson, 2024-12-27 This book offers an intelligent but accessible recovery of the Christian hope for heaven and the resurrected life Our ideas of heaven often need rescuing from the well meaning but often empty sense of a better place It is more fruitful the author argues to orientate ourselves by St Paul s words For this world is not our permanent home we are looking forward to a home yet to come Each of us desires Eden while struggling to make good out of evil The things we cherish have their goodness diluted and drained of life Through it all we cannot quite picture heaven and our eternal happiness It feels remote and unreal Yet the recovery of paradise in our hearts and minds is the crucial act of our lives Through it we can understand the meaning behind the greatest commandment Love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind
