

Finally, Thomas and Henry arrived at the top of the mountain.
There it was—the big, big bridge! And it was high. It was wide up there, too—very windy.

"I won't go," Henry declared.

"But we have to cross!" Thomas said bravely. "Our passengers want to see the mountains on the other side."

"Hurry, hurry!" Annie and Clarabel cried. The coaches were so excited that Thomas had trouble keeping them in line.

Thomas searched the tracks ahead. Gordon was nowhere to be seen.
He had already crossed the bridge and rolled into the mountains beyond.
Thomas and Henry were alone.

"I'll go first," Thomas said at last. "Then you can follow me, Henry."

"If the wind blows, close your eyes," Henry said. "That way you won't see anything scary."
