Viking Poems on War and Peace Russell Gilbert Poole, 1991-01-01 The Old Norse and Icelandic poets have left us vivid accounts of conflict and peace making in the Viking Age Russell G Poole's editorial and critical analysis reveals much about the texts themselves the events that they describe and the culture from which they come Poole attempts to put right many misunderstandings about the integrity of the texts and their narrative techniques From a historical perspective he weighs the poems authenticity as contemporary documents which provide evidence bearing upon the reconstruction of Viking Age battles peace negotiations and other events He traces the social roles played by violence in medieval Scandinavian society and explores the many functions of the poet within that society Arguing that these texts exhibit a mind style so vastly different from our own present individualism Poole suggests that the mind set of the medieval Scandinavian could be termed non individualist The poems discussed are the Darradarlj d where the speakers are Valkyries Lidsmannaflokkur a rank and file warrior's description of Canute the Great's siege of London in 1016 Torf Einarr's Revenge Egil's Duel with Ljotr five verses from the classic Egils saga Skallagrimssonar A Battle on the Heath marking the culmination of a famous feud described in a very early Icelandic saga the Heidarviga saga and two extracts from the poem Sexstefia one describing Haraldr of Norway's great fleet and victory over Sveinn of Denmark and the other the
