The Lost And Found House:

The Lost and Found House Michael Cadnum, 1997 A young boy describes how he and his parents feel when they leave their old house and move to a new house in another town

Our Lady of the Lost and Found Diane Schoemperlen, 2002-07-30 One Monday morning in April a middle aged writer walks into her living room to water the plants and finds a woman standing beside her potted fig tree Dressed in a navy blue trench coat and white Nikes the woman introduces herself as Mary Mother of God You know Mary Instead of a golden robe or a crown she arrives bearing a practical wheeled suitcase Weary after two thousand years of adoration and petition Mary is looking for a little R R She is asked in for lunch and decides to stay a week As the story of their visit unfolds so does the story of Mary one of the most complex and powerful female figures of our time and her changing image in culture art history as well as the thousands of recorded sightings that have placed her everywhere from a privet hedge to the dented bumper of a Camaro As this Everywoman and Mary become friends their conversations both profound and intimate touch upon Mary's significance and enduring relevance Told with humor and grace Our Lady of the Lost and Found is an absorbing tour through Mary's history and a thoughtful meditation on spirituality our need for faith and our desire to believe in something larger than ourselves

At the Lost and Found Edward Curtin, 2025-03-01 At the Lost and Found is a dazzling exploration of the most important issues of our time written in a style that defies categorization Open it at any chapter and you will be hooked by themes and sentences that are a moveable feast for head heart and spirit Each chapter is like a river journey that will twist and turn your mind down unexpected tributaries that you never thought to follow And when you reach the end you will realize you have been traveling one mighty river and all your meandering thoughts and reveries have transported you past places called Lost and Found where you stopped briefly to satisfy your immense hunger for understanding and meaning in a world gone mad Reading Edward Curtin is a feast of many complementary dishes served human family style His writing is truly unique fusing the political with the personal art with astute objective analyses and the tragic with the comic From a detailed critique of the Internet and cell phones one passes effortlessly to the linked bewitchment of CIA propaganda and its assassinations of President Kennedy and the Reverend Martin Luther King Jr There are highlights on pot shops and lowlifes Donald Rumsfeld and Allen Dulles meditations on time remembering and forgetting the endless evil of U S wars waged around the world nuclear war and Trident submarines Leftist betrayals the U S war against Russia through Ukraine capitalism and consumerism the Israeli genocide of Palestinians the corruption of the U S political system the connection between bread rebellion and the search for happiness Bob Dylan music basketball and much more This feast of complementary dishes is moving and memorable Like the mighty river journey it will bring you to a place of gratitude Unlike straightforward political analyses At the Lost and Found weaves politics through the personal and every person's search for understanding happiness and hope in a world on the edge of an abyss Slyly laced within it one will find the author's personal story lightly limned to suggest that Thoreau was right to remind us that it is always the first person that is speaking not some disembodied purely objective abstraction Curtin s writing follows in the tradition of other essayists who saw life whole such as James Baldwin John Berger and Albert Camus Add a touch of sly wit whimsy and storytelling and you have the ingredients that make At the Lost and Found a tour de force
