The Lotus Sūtra Donald S. Lopez, Jr., 2016-09-12 A concise and accessible introduction to the classic Buddhist text The Lotus Sutra is arguably the most famous of all Buddhist scriptures Composed in India in the first centuries of the Common Era it is renowned for its inspiring message that all beings are destined for supreme enlightenment Here Donald Lopez provides an engaging and accessible biography of this enduring classic Lopez traces the many roles the Lotus Sutra has played in its travels through Asia Europe and across the seas to America The story begins in India where it was one of the early Mahayana sutras which sought to redefine the Buddhist path In the centuries that followed the text would have a profound influence in China and Japan and would go on to play a central role in the European discovery of Buddhism It was the first Buddhist sutra to be translated from Sanskrit into a Western language into French in 1844 by the eminent scholar Eugène Burnouf That same year portions of the Lotus Sutra appeared in English in The Dial the journal of New England's Transcendentalists Lopez provides a balanced account of the many controversies surrounding the text and its teachings and describes how the book has helped to shape the popular image of the Buddha today He explores how it was read by major literary figures such as Henry David Thoreau and Gustave Flaubert and how it was used to justify self immolation in China and political extremism in Japan Concise and authoritative this is the essential introduction to the life and afterlife of a timeless masterpiece

A Bird in Flight Leaves No Trace Seon Master Subul, Subul, 2019-04-30 Penetrate the nature of mind with this contemporary Korean take on a classic of Zen literature The message of the Tang dynasty Zen text in this volume seems simple to gain enlightenment stop thinking there is something you need to practice For the Chinese master Huangbo Xiyun d 850 the mind is enlightenment itself if we can only let go of our normal way of thinking The celebrated translation of this work by John Blofeld The Zen Teaching of Huang Po introduced countless readers to Zen over the last sixty years Huangbo's work is also a favorite of contemporary Zen Korean Seon Master Subul who has revolutionized the strict monastic practice of koans and adapted it for lay meditators in Korea and around the world to make swift progress in intense but informal retreats Devoting themselves to enigmatic questions with their whole bodies retreatants are frustrated in their search for answers and arrive thereby at a breakthrough experience of their own buddha nature A Bird in Flight Leaves No Trace is a bracing call for the practitioner to let go and thinking and unlock the buddha within Countless Sands Jeffrey Moser, Jason Protass, 2024-12-31

Countless Sands presents engaging analyses of the diverse relationships between Buddhism and the environment that existed in medieval Asia Recent years have witnessed a surge in publications across the humanities that advance powerful ethical and political arguments to account for the human failure to respond effectively to global climate change While the contributors to this volume are attuned to this challenge rather than present explicit political arguments they pursue a subtler effort to historicize the environment as a site and subject of Buddhist practice while providing research grounded in rigorous analysis of complex and fragmentary sources The volume thereby mitigates against the Orientalist East West binaries that have long informed the invocation of Buddhism in Euro American environmental discourses As the chapters collectively demonstrate there was no singular consistently Buddhist understanding of the natural world but innumerable varied engagements preserved in discrete texts images and artifacts Through specific case studies the authors consider such questions as How did premodern Buddhists understand what we today call the environment How did they think about their earth How when and where did the various processes of the earth actually impinge on the practices of historical Buddhists What kinds of environmental imaginations informed specific Buddhist practices In so doing the authors explore the connections between the ways in which historical Buddhist communities interacted with their environments and how they understood those environments In the broader field of Buddhist studies Countless Sands contributes to ongoing efforts to expand the locus of inquiry from textually based investigations of Buddhist doctrine to a broader examination of the complex and varied place of Buddhism in the lives of historical communities The book furthers this broader process by casting it in environmental terms and will engage readers looking for models of thought provoking historical analysis on environmental themes Early Buddhist Transmission and Trade Networks Jason Neelis, 2010-11-19 This exploration of early paths for Buddhist transmission within and beyond South Asia retraces the footsteps of monks merchants and other agents of cross cultural exchange A reassessment of literary epigraphic and archaeological sources reveals historical contexts for the growth of the Buddhist sa gha from approximately the 5th century BCE to the end of the first millennium CE Patterns of dynamic Buddhist mobility were closely linked to transregional trade networks extending to the northwestern borderlands and joined to Central Asian silk routes by capillary routes through transit zones in the upper Indus and Tarim Basin By examining material conditions for Buddhist establishments at nodes along these routes this book challenges models of gradual diffusion and develops alternative explanations for successful Buddhist movement Tiantai Lotus Texts , 2013 This volume contains four important texts in the Tiantai Lotus tradition The Infinite Meanings Sutra composed as an introduction to the Lotus Sutra and The Sutra Expounded by the Buddha on the Practice of the Way through Contemplation of Bodhisattva All embracing Goodness are part of the so called Threefold Lotus Sutra The Commentary on the Lotus Sutra is a translation of the Saddharmapitakakosaśāstra upadeśa Jpān Myōhōrengekyō upadeśa a commentary on the Lotus Sutra attributed to the eminent Buddhist philosopher Vasubandhu A Guide to the Tiantai Fourfold Teachings is a translation of a tenth century text by the Korean monk Chegwon that presents an introduction to the teachings of Zhiyi 538-597 founder of the Tiantai tradition

Old Society, New Belief Lisa Raphals, 2017-05-01 For the first time scholars in the study of early Christianity and early Chinese Buddhism put their efforts together and compare what had happened when a new belief entered into an old society What were the reactions rejections adjustments or adaptations both societies experienced What can we learn from this comparison
