international team of leading scholars in the field this History expands the range of theological discourse by introducing new topics and spokespersons as well as global and ecumenical perspectives It will remain the definitive place to begin any further study of theology during this period for years to come Humanistica Lovaniensia - Volume XLIII, Corona customary mix of learned articles and book reviews on the topic of the history of higher education Chapters cover topics such as professionalisation of the theology curriculum at the University of Louvain 1432 1600 Thomas Hobbes at the University of Oxford intellectual culture in a seventeenth century Parisian convent and Anglican moral theology and the reception of John Locke's essay Concerning Human Understanding Further topics covered include David Gregory's and John Keil's Newtonian pedagogy and the fate of the soul in mid eighteenth century Oxford The book finishes with two review chapters Biblical

Scholarship in Louvain in the 'Golden' Sixteenth Century Antonio Gerace, 2019-07-15 Antonio Gerace dealt with the development of biblical scholarship in Louvain by analysing with seven authors who worked in the first part of the Sixteenth century and who are strictly linked to the Louvain milieu In chronological order they include Nicholas Tacitus Zegers c 1495 1559 John Henten 1499 1566 Cornelius Jansenius of Ghent Adam Sasbout John Hessels 1522 1566 Thomas Stapleton and Francis Lucas of Bruges Each author offered key contributions that can effectively show the development of Catholic biblical scholarship in that period This can be divided into three main thematic areas 1 Text criticism of the Latin Vulgate 2 Exegesis of the Scriptures and 3 Preaching of the Bible Somehow these three areas represent the study flow of the Scriptures the emendation of the Vulgate aimed at restoring the text to a hypothetical original and the philological approach to the Greek and Hebrew sources allowing for a better comprehension of the Bible Such comprehension becomes the basis of commentaries made with the intention of explaining the meaning of the Scriptures to the faithful in the light of the Tradition Furthermore the Church needed to preach the Scriptures and their contents to the Catholic flock in order to safeguard them from any heretical influence Therefore several homiletic works appeared so that priests could prepare their sermons appropriately Therefore Gerace divided his work into three parts each devoted to one of the three research areas following the study flow of the Scriptures
