Memoirs stands as a monumental achievement in Victorian literature showcasing the author's prolific output and unique narrative style. This comprehensive compilation includes renowned novels such as The Barchester Towers and The Way We Live Now, characterized by intricate character studies and social commentary. Trollope's writing is distinguished by its precise realism and deft humor, providing profound insights into the complexities of human relationships and societal structure in 19th-century England. Through his varied forms ranging from poignant essays to vivid travel sketches, Trollope invites readers to engage with the world he meticulously observed and critiqued. Trollope, born in 1815, had a background steeped in both finance and literature that informed his literary career. His experiences as a postal surveyor offered him a keen perspective on the intricacies of bureaucracy and human nature, themes that resonate throughout his works. Additionally, his writing was often propelled by a commitment to social reform, reflecting his desire to illuminate the moral dilemmas of his time. This blend of personal experience and societal observation deeply shaped his narrative approach. For those seeking a richer understanding of Victorian society and a masterful exploration of human nature, Trollope's complete works are indispensable. This collection not only showcases his literary versatility but also serves as a testament to his enduring influence on literature. Readers will find themselves immersed in the captivating worlds he created, making this anthology a valuable addition to any literary library.

The Children's Hour, Volume 5. Stories from Seven Old Favourites Eva March Tappan, 2015-04-24. This early work by Eva March Tappan was originally published in 1900 and we are now republishing it with a brand new introductory biography. The Children's Hour Volume 5: Stories from Seven Old Favourites is a collection of classic tales from John Bunyan, Daniel Defoe, Jonathan Swift, and several other notable authors. Eva March Tappan was born on 26th December 1854 in Blackstone, Massachusetts, United States. Tappan began her literary career writing about famous characters from history in works such as In the Days of William the Conqueror (1901) and In the Days of Queen Elizabeth (1902). She then developed an interest in children's books, writing her own and publishing collections of classic tales.
