Smarter Home Business Tina Johnstone, Catherine Whitaker-Hynd, 2004-06-01. The new essential guide for home business owners. It will provide you with tried and tested solutions to business problems, unique to home businesses, inspirational stories to give you confidence, techniques to avoid possible isolation and help with establishing networks, advice on business planning, goal setting and time management skills, financial planning and funding and useful exercises to help you achieve your goals. It is estimated that more than 200 000 home based businesses are currently operating in New Zealand and with rapid developments in technology and the desire of many New Zealanders to create a more flexible lifestyle, the number is increasing. We wrote the book to inspire and encourage those who work from home. We wanted to recognise and support one of the fastest growth areas in today's business environment. It seems there are becoming more and more good reasons to work from home each year. Finally we wanted to share the knowledge and experience we have been honoured to gain in the hope that others may benefit from it.

The Concise Guide to Sounding Smart at Parties David Matalon, Chris Woolsey, 2006-10-10. Banish awkward silences, boring weather talk or worst of all the embarrassing conversation gaff with this pithy, hilarious guide to effortless party banter. We've all been there. You're at a party surrounded by the most important people in your life. You're cool. You're casual. You're witty and urbane. Until suddenly quite unexpectedly things take a turn for the worse when a subject thought to be common knowledge is lobbed your way. A hush falls over the room and every head seems to swivel expectantly in your direction. ART SET THESE OFF IN A DIFFERENT COLOR. Rasputin. Sure. Rasputin. The Russian guy, right? Who who whooooo was Russian. Che Guevara. You mean the dancer. Oh my God. Mao Tse tung. They have the best chicken with cashews. The Concise Guide to Sounding Smart at Parties was written with just this moment in mind. In fourteen pain free, laughter filled chapters, authors David Matalon and Chris Woolsey brush away years of cobwebs on subjects as wide ranging as the typical round of Jeopardy, war, science, politics, philosophy, the arts, business, literature, music, religion and more. Armed with The Concise Guide to Sounding Smart at Parties, you'll know that Chicago Seven wasn't a boy band, Martin Luther never fought for civil rights and Franz Kafka isn't German for I have a bad cold. You'll be the smart one.
