Smoke Encrypted Whispers:

Smoke Encrypted Whispers Samuel Wagan Watson, 2004 Exhilarating road poems urban songlines and ancestral ties are the hallmarks of this popular young poet This collection contains poems from all of Watson's publications as well as his unpublished new work Smoke encrypted whispers Performance CD, Ecocritical Concerns and the Australian Continent Beate Neumeier, Helen Tiffin, 2019-11-08 Ecocritical Concerns and the Australian Continent investigates literary historical anthropological and linguistic perspectives in connection with activist engagements The necessary cross fertilization between these different perspectives throughout this volume emerges in the resonances between essays exploring recurring concerns ranging from biodiversity and preservation policies to the devastating effects of the mining industries to present concerns and futuristic visions of the effects of climate change Of central concern in all of these contexts is the impact of settler colonialism and an increasing turn to indigenous knowledge systems A number of chapters engage with questions of ecological imperialism in relation to specific sociohistorical moments and effects probing early colonial encounters between settlers and indigenous people or rereading specific forms of colonial literature Other essays take issue with past and present constructions of indigeneity in different contexts as well as with indigenous resistance against such ascriptions while the importance of an understanding of indigenous notions of care for country is taken up from a variety of different disciplinary angles in terms of interconnectedness anchoredness living country and living heritage

Offshoot Donna Lee Brien, Quinn Eades, 2018 Offshoot includes essays in life writing methodologies and approaches as well as a series of creative work poetry and prose that engages with current life writing This collection highlights the development and influence of the genre in the twenty first century Starting from the premise that life writing is a significant component of both contemporary artistic practice and scholarship Offshoot provides a necessary re evaluation of the mode its contemporary sub generic incarnations as well as methodological and practical approaches The book presents research on a wide range of approaches including both traditional areas such as literature and creative writing and areas that have not previously been associated with life writing scholarship With its multifaceted readings Offshoot signals a shift in life writing research tending towards an expansive hybrid experimental and rhizomic approach Subject Life Writing Education Literature

Ecopoetics and the Global Landscape Isabel Sobral Campos, 2018-12-27 Ecopoetics and the Global Landscape Critical Essays surveys ecopoetry from a global perspective across different historical epochs Its comparative approach foregrounds the importance of ecopoetics within the context of distinct national literatures and cultures to reveal the ubiquitous intersection of poetry with ecocriticism The collection analyzes environmental problems resulting from the legacies of colonialism and focuses on issues of environmental justice and indigenous issues as well as on the intersection of genocide studies and environmentalism It also examines ecologically informed modes of relating to the world In particular it engages with interactions between the human and nonhuman as well as mind and matter Finally it broadens the scope of place to include both the absent land of exiled peoples and the urban built environment Paper Empires Craig Munro, Robyn Sheahan-Bright, 2010-07 This new volume in UQP's History of the Book in Australia series explores Australian book production and consumption from 1946 to the present day In the immediate postwar era most books were imported into a colonial market dominated by British publishers Paper Empires traces this fascinating and volatile half century using wide ranging research Australian Wetland Cultures John Charles Ryan, Li Chen, 2019-10-31 Among the most productive ecosystems on earth wetlands are also some of the most vulnerable Australian Wetland Cultures argues for the cultural value of wetlands Through a focus on swamps and their conservation the volume makes a unique contribution to the growing interdisciplinary field of the environmental humanities The authors investigate the crucial role of swamps in Australian society through the idea of wetland cultures The broad historical and cultural range of the book spans pre settlement indigenous Australian cultures nineteenth century European colonization and contemporary Australian engagements with wetland habitats The contributors situate the Australian emphasis in international cultural and ecological contexts Case studies from Perth Western Australia provide practical examples of the conservation of wetlands as sites of interlinked natural and cultural heritage The volume will appeal to readers with interests in anthropology Australian studies cultural studies ecological science environmental studies and heritage protection The Stars Like Sand Tim Jones, Penelope Susan Cottier, 2014 Following up on our award winning Voyagers Science Fiction Poetry from New Zealand IP has released an anthology of even wider scope showcasing the best in Australian speculative poetry from early times to the present Co edited by renowned editors Tim Jones and P S Cottier it features a virtual Who's Who of Australian poets including Judith Beveridge Les Murray Paul Hetherington John Tranter Diane Fahey Joanne Burns Caroline Caddy David P Reiter Peter Boyle Alan Gould Luke Davies S K Kelen Peter Minter Jan Owen Dorothy Porter Philip Salom Samuel Wagan Watson Rod Usher Jo Mills and many more Travel to the stars and beyond in this anthology by Australia's leading poets Witness the end of the world time travel to the future near or far or teleport with a fairy or witch Ghosts dreams and strange creatures breed and mingle in these pages Poetry has never been so mind bending or so entertaining Roads, Tourism and Cultural History Rosemary Kerr, 2018-12-20 Roads and road tourism loom large in the Australian imagination as distance and mobility have shaped the nation's history and culture but roads are more than simply transport routes they embody multiple layers of history mythology and symbolism Drawing on Australian travel writing diaries and manuscripts tourism literature fiction poetry and feature films this book explores how Australians have experienced and imagined roads and road touring beyond urban settings from Aboriginal songlines to modern day road trips It also tells the stories of iconic roads including the Birdsville Track Stuart Highway and Great Ocean Road and suggests alternative approaches to heritage and tourism interpretation of these important routes The ongoing impact of the colonial past on Indigenous peoples and contemporary Australian society and culture including representations of the road and road travel is explored throughout the book The volume offers a new way of thinking about roads and road tourism as important strands in a nation's cultural fabric Making Waves Marele Day, Fay Knight, Susan Bradley Smith, 2006 This anthology celebrates 10 years of the Byron Bay Writers Festival with contributions from twenty four leading Australian writers who have also appeared at the Festival Writers include Kate Grenville Peter Goldsworthy Christopher Kremmer Anita Heiss Roger McDonald Nick Earls and Thea Astley and topics addressed range from the deeply personal to the powerfully political At a time when discussion can be read as sedition and free expression is increasingly muted writers festivals are important forums for independent intelligent discussion something the Byron Bay Writers Festival has provided from its inception Writers address the things that matter to them as writers and as Australians and contributions range from essays to short stories and a poem Like the Festival itself the anthology is by turns and sometimes all at once passionate considered witty and intellectual and provides a fascinating overview of Australian writers today
