Steptoe Son:

We Will Shoot Back Akinyele Omowale Umoja, 2014-08-22 The notion that the civil rights movement in the southern United States was a nonviolent movement remains a dominant theme of civil rights memory and representation in popular culture Yet in dozens of southern communities Black people picked up arms to defend their leaders communities and lives In particular Black people relied on armed self defense in communities where federal government officials failed to safeguard activists and supporters from the violence of racists and segregationists who were often supported by local law enforcement In We Will Shoot Back Armed Resistance in the Mississippi Freedom Movement Akinyele Omowale Umoja argues that armed resistance was critical to the efficacy of the southern freedom struggle and the dismantling of segregation and Black disenfranchisement Intimidation and fear were central to the system of oppression in Mississippi and most of the Deep South To overcome the system of segregation Black people had to overcome fear to present a significant challenge to White domination Armed self defense was a major tool of survival in allowing some Black southern communities to maintain their integrity and existence in the face of White supremacist terror By 1965 armed resistance particularly self defense was a significant factor in the challenge of the descendants of enslaved Africans to overturning fear and intimidation and developing different political and social relationships between Black and White Mississippians This riveting historical narrative relies upon oral history archival material and scholarly literature to reconstruct the use of armed resistance by Black activists and supporters in Mississippi to challenge racist terrorism segregation and fight for human rights and political empowerment from the early 1950s through the late 1970s Publisher's website THE THREE PARTNERS \(A Western Classic\) Bret Harte, 2017-04-29 When three partners find a fortune in the Gold Rush it invites a lot of unwanted attention deceit and death Excerpt The sun was going down on the Black Spur Range The red light it had kindled there was still eating its way along the serrated crest showing through gaps in the ranks of pines etching out the interstices of broken boughs fading away and then flashing suddenly out again like sparks in burnt up paper Then the night wind swept down the whole mountain side and began its usual struggle with the shadows upclimbing from the valley only to lose itself in the end and be absorbed in the all conquering darkness Bret Harte was an American short story writer and poet best remembered for his short fiction featuring miners gamblers and other romantic figures of the California Gold Rush In a career spanning more than four decades he wrote poetry fiction plays lectures book reviews editorials and magazine sketches in addition to fiction As he moved from California to the eastern U S to Europe he incorporated new subjects and characters into his stories but his Gold Rush tales have been most often adapted and admired Three Partners Bret Harte, 1897 The Conquest of the Coeur D'Alenes, Spokanes and Palouses Benjamin Franklin Manring, 1912 Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress.
