Stickin To Watchin Over And Gettin With An African American Parents Guide To Discipline:

Stickin' To, Watchin' Over, and Gettin' With Howard Stevenson, Gwendolyn Davis, Saburah Abdul-Kabir, 2001-09-11

Stickin To Watchin Over and Gettin With provides the guidance you need to protect your children from racist hostility while at the same time teaching them character and responsibility Just as important the book also shows how to discipline your children in a way that does not rely on spanking or other forms of painful coercion Written by three African American educators counselors and parents this book outlines an effective program for raising and disciplining your children The Publishers Weekly ,2001 Playing with Anger Howard C. Stevenson, 2003-11-30 This volume presents unique culturally relevant interventions that can teach coping skills to African American boys with a history of aggression Stevenson provides the history and current events for readers to understand why these youths perceive violence as the only way to react Interventions and preventative actions developed in the PLAAY project Preventing Long Term Anger and Aggression are presented These include teaching coping skills and anger management via athletics such as basketball and martial arts Frustrations and strengths in those athletics illuminate the players emotional lives and serve as a basis for self understanding and life skill development The Development of Children Michael Cole, Sheila R. Cole, Cynthia Lightfoot, 2005 Development is best understood as a fusion of biological social and psychological processes interacting in the unique medium of human culture In this text the authors have tried to show not only the role of each of these factors considered separately but also how they interact in diverse cultural contexts to create whole unique human beings Pref Subject Guide to Books in Print ,2001 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2001 In The Black Fran Harris, 1998-09-10 Practical prescriptive and smart In the Black addresses the specific concerns of millions of African American parents who are eager to help their children develop a healthy and realistic approach to money Sit Your Black A.S.S. Down! Miranda y Pearson, 2016-04-12 A no nonsense guide for all parents who love their sons Created for parents who have become frustrated because their sons are frustrated and for those who need guidance in navigating the public school system to ensure it will not fail their child not just academically but socially and emotionally as well This guide will empower you as a parent It will show you how NOT to allow society or public school to label your son as ANOTHER SOCIAL STATISTIC Launching Our Black Children for Success Joyce A. Ladner, Theresa Foy DiGeronimo, 2003-09-04 Launching Our Black Children for Success is a groundbreaking book that goes beyond the typical how to get your kid into the best school or college advice This extraordinary book takes black parents step by step through the stages of child development so they can build a solid foundation for success in their children It shows how to best instill pride self discipline social skills a work ethic and a way to deal with the inevitable racism and prejudice their children will face Authors Joyce Ladner and Theresa Foy DiGeronimo also offer a practical guide for overcoming the many injustices and obstacles African American families face and show how to shepherd their kids through the process that is required to help children keep their eyes on the prize Launching Our Black Children for Success helps parents to provide the strength and the strategies their children need to seek out whatever career they dream of and deserve

Child Discipline in African American Families Carla Adkison-Johnson, 2021-02-22 In Child Discipline in African American Families Carla Adikison Johnson provides a contextual understanding of African American disciplinary practices giving clinicians child welfare professionals and legal professionals a framework to better define what is reasonable and functional when addressing child rearing concerns with African American parents Highlighting numerous sources cases narratives and data Adkison Johnson debunks the theory that spanking is the preferred method of child discipline for African American parents and provides new insights into how African American parents grapple with establishing parenting goals and child behavior expectations in a society that is often hostile toward African American children Accompanied by the perspectives of a seasoned trial lawyer the arguments in this book are brought to life enabling readers to witness how child rearing concerns can play out in a real world context
