THE MUSICAL JOURNEY OF

HUGH MASEKELA

HUGH MASEKELA AND D. MICHAEL CHEERS

Still Grazing The Musical Journey Of Hugh Masekela

Scarlett Cornelissen, Albert Grundlingh

Still Grazing The Musical Journey Of Hugh Masekela:

Still Grazing Hugh Masekela, D. Michael Cheers, 2004 Hugh Masekela is a giant of world music. He was present in the most important music scenes of the late 20th century whether advising a young Bob Marley in Kingston or organising the Rumble in the Jungle musical extravaganza in Zaire. Through his musical Sarafina and his activism he worked to destroy the apartheid regime of his South African homeland. With its surprising humour, historical sweep and human pathos, this closely observed tale will appeal not only to Masekela's fans around the world but anyone interested in the dramatic chronicle of a one of a kind life. Jet, 2004-07-12 The weekly source of African American political and entertainment news. Lonesome

Roads and Streets of Dreams Andrew S. Berish, 2024-05-31 Any listener knows the power of music to define a place but few can describe the how or why of this phenomenon. In Lonesome Roads and Streets of Dreams Place, Mobility and Race in Jazz of the 1930s and 40s Andrew Berish attempts to right this wrong showcasing how American jazz defined a culture particularly preoccupied with place. By analyzing both the performances and cultural context of leading jazz figures including the many famous venues where they played Berish bridges two dominant scholarly approaches to the genre offering not only a new reading of swing era jazz but an entirely new framework for musical analysis in general one that examines how the geographical realities of daily life can be transformed into musical sound. Focusing on white bandleader Jan Garber, black bandleader Duke Ellington, white saxophonist Charlie Barnet and black guitarist Charlie Christian as well as traveling from Catalina Island to Manhattan to Oklahoma City Lonesome Roads and Streets of Dreams depicts not only a geography of race but how this geography was disrupted how these musicians crossed physical and racial boundaries from black to white South to North and rural to urban and how they found expression for these movements in the insistent music they were creating.

Jet, 2004-07-12 The weekly source of African American political and entertainment news. Music, Performance and African Identities Toyin Falola, Tyler Fleming, 2012-03-15 Cutting across countries, genres and time periods this volume explores topics ranging from hip hop's influence on Maasai identity in current day Tanzania to jazz in Bulawayo during the interwar years using music to tell a larger story about the cultures and societies of Africa. Sport Past and Present in South Africa Scarlett Cornelissen, Albert Grundlingh, 2013-09-13 This book provides an interpretation of sport in contemporary South Africa through an historical account of the evolution and social ramifications of sport in the twentieth century. It comprises chapters which trace the growth of sports such as football, cricket, surfing, boxing and rugby and considers their relationship to aspects of racial identity, masculinity, femininity, political and social development in the country. The book also draws out the wider geo-political significance of South African sport placing it in the context of the development of sport both elsewhere on the African continent and internationally. The history of sport has seen significant international growth over the past few decades. For the most part however the history of sport in Africa has remained largely untraced. By detailing the way in which sport's development in South Africa overlapped with major socio-political processes on the wider African continent this volume seeks to narrow the gap This book was previously published as a special issue of the International Journal of the History of Sport The Harder They Fall Gary Stromberg, Jane Merrill, 2010-07-20
