STILL LIFE W/BRIDLE Herbert Z, 1999-12-10 In Still Life with a Bridle poet and essayist Zbigniew Herbert takes an intriguing look at the cultural artistic and aesthetic legacy of 17th century Holland These sixteen essays reveal Herbert's discriminating artistic eye and poetic sensibility one that revels in irony humor and a satirist's appreciation of the absurd An inveterate museum goer he focuses on the art of the Dutch masters using it as a stepping off point for a thoroughly individual and entertaining examination of the foibles genius and character of the Dutch people as a whole The result is an unorthodox and revealing glimpse into the past that gives us a keener understanding not only of a distant people but of ourselves as well

The Columbia Guide to the Literatures of Eastern Europe Since 1945 Harold B. Segel, 2003 The Iron Curtain concealed from western eyes a vital group of national and regional writers Marked by not only geographical proximity but also by the shared experience of communism and its collapse the countries of Eastern Europe Poland Hungary Albania Romania Bulgaria and the former states of Yugoslavia Czechoslovakia and East Germany share literatures that reveal many common themes when examined together Compiled by a leading scholar the guide includes an overview of literary trends in historical context a listing of some 700 authors by country and an A to Z section of articles on the most influential writers

The Wrong Turning: Encounters with Ghosts Stephen Johnson, 2021-10-19 Introduced and edited by broadcaster Stephen Johnson a curated selection of chilling ghost stories from world literature Why do people love ghost stories even if they don't believe or say they don't believe in ghosts Is it simply the adrenaline rush that comes from being mesmerized and terrified by a great storyteller or do these tales yield deeper meanings telling us things about our own inner shadows Stephen Johnson brings together some of the most memorable encounters with ghosts in world literature from Europe Russia the United States and China Recurring themes and imagery are noted interpretations suggested but only suggested since ambiguity and resistance to rational interpretation are key elements in the best ghost stories As the writer Robert Aickman observed often the decisive moment comes when someone somehow makes a wrong turning literally perhaps but at the same time psychologically even morally and some mysterious nemesis takes over Old favorites by M R James Ambrose Bierce and Charlotte Perkins Gilman are interlaced with extracts from longer works by Emily Brontë Henry James and Alexander Pushkin along with slightly left field apparitions from Tove Jansson and Flann O'Brien With such expert guides who knows what we will be led to encounter in the haunted chambers of our minds

Borderland Richard Quinney, 2001 To be a midwesterner is for Quinney to belong to a place to a time to a community all of which he evokes in this physical mental and spiritual geography In photographs handed down over the years and in those he has taken over a half century in reflections and anecdotes forays into history and judicious quotations and observations from figures as varied as T S Eliot Roland Barthes and Bob Dylan Quinney recreates the landscape of his life Here he conjures the reality of his Midwest the land where his great grandparents fleeing famine in Ireland settled to farm and where in days past the Potawatomi hunted and fished the land where now in later age Quinney's explorations intensify as he looks for and finds a lifetime burning in every moment Equal parts memoir geography photo journal and natural history Borderland is an exploration of what it means to be at home in a particular landscape
